News Release

12 August 2010

ANGLOGOLD ASHANTI AND B2GOLD AMEND GRAMALOTE JOINT VENTURE AGREEMENT

AngloGold Ashanti is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement with B2Gold Corp. to amend the Gramalote Joint Venture Agreement. Under the amended terms, AngloGold will retain its 51% interest in the Gramalote Joint Venture and will become manager of the Gramalote Project in Colombia. The Gramalote Project to date was managed by B2Gold, which will retain its 49% interest in the Gramalote Joint Venture.

As part of the amendment, the companies have also agreed to a budget for the Gramalote Project, for the second half of 2010 totalling US$9.18 million. This budget will fund 10,000 metres of diamond drilling for the exploration of additional targets on the property, infill drilling of the Gramalote deposit and drilling for metallurgical test samples during this period to end 2010. In addition, the budget will fund feasibility work including additional environmental studies, metallurgical test work and engineering. The joint venture will continue work on safety, health and environmental projects and will continue to work with government and local communities on social programs.

AngloGold Ashanti and B2Gold plan to continue the exploration and feasibility work into 2011 and 2012, with the goal of completing a final feasibility study by the end of 2012.

A further program and budget for exploration and feasibility in 2011 is to be approved by the end of November, 2010. Each joint venture partner will fund their share of expenditures pro rata to their shareholding in the Gramalote Joint Venture.

AngloGold Ashanti and B2Gold have also agreed as follows regarding AngloGold Ashanti's rights and restrictions regarding its holding of securities of B2Gold:

- AngloGold Ashanti will continue to have a pre-emptive right to subscribe on a pro rata basis for new offerings of shares or convertible securities of B2Gold so as to maintain its percentage (currently 10.2%) holding of B2Gold's outstanding shares;
- AngloGold Ashanti has also agreed to reinstate certain standstill provisions that limit its ability to acquire additional shares of B2Gold or otherwise seek to acquire control of B2Gold alone or jointly with others; and

- In the event that AngloGold Ashanti wishes to sell its shares or warrants in B2Gold for so long that AngloGold Ashanti holds an interest of equal to 5% or more in B2Gold then AngloGold Ashanti will provide B2Gold with a first opportunity to seek purchasers for such securities at prices specified by AngloGold Ashanti, provided that if B2Gold is unable to sell such securities following two such referrals/notices by AngloGold Ashanti, then AngloGold Ashanti shall be free to sell such securities without any further restriction.

Commenting on the agreement, Ron Largent, AngloGold Ashanti's Executive Vice President for the America's said "We are pleased to have reached agreement with our partner B2Gold that will allow for further exploration, feasibility studies and development of the Gramalote Project in Colombia. Colombia is an important and significant component of AngloGold Ashanti's resource base and future production potential and we look forward to taking the Gramalote Project forward in parallel with our other development projects and exploration initiatives in this country"
