Gyrodyne Company of America, Inc.

Dear Sirs:

Kellogg Capital Group, LLC and Everest Special Situations Fund LP between them own in the aggregate 91,396 shares of the common stock of Gyrodyne Company of America, Inc. (the "Company") which represents approximately 8% of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock. We believe that Company management should consider taking steps to unlock value for the Company's shareholders.

We understand that the Company has two principal assets: (1) 314 acres of vacant land in Long Island known as Flowerfield, of which approximately 30 acres are utilized for commercial rental property, and (2) a 10.93% interest in Callery-Judge Grove (a 3,695 acre citrus grove in Palm Beach County, Florida which is currently being considered for a residential, commercial and/or industrial development). We are aware that the Flowerfield property is subject to rezoning and potential eminent domain/condemnation hearing proceedings and that management is pursuing a plan to develop the Flowerfield property as a "luxury residential golf course community".

We intend to explore ways in which the Company could maximize shareholder value. In this connection, we may communicate with other shareholders, industry participants and other potentially interested parties, seek board representation, and/or seek to discuss with the Company's management (i) management's current and future strategies with respect to the Company's assets, (ii) the Company's ongoing dispute with SUNY Stony Brook regarding SUNY Stony Brook's efforts to acquire land in Suffolk County, New York from the Company via eminent domain/condemnation proceedings and (iii) our willingness, under the appropriate circumstances, to work with the Company in challenging SUNY Stony Brook's eminent domain action.

Sincerely,
