Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 22, 2011, WellCare of Georgia, Inc. (“WCGA”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of WellCare Health Plans, Inc. (“WellCare”), received a countersigned Medicare Advantage Health Plan Agreement (the “D-SNP Agreement”) between WCGA and the Georgia Department of Community Health (“DCH”).

A “D-SNP” is a special needs plan offered to members of a Medicare Advantage plan that are eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid. The Medicare Improvements for Patients and Providers Act, commonly known as MIPPA, and its related regulations require that a Medicare Advantage plan that wishes to offer a D-SNP in a particular state enter into a contract with that state to coordinate benefits and/or services for such members. The D-SNP Agreement is intended to fulfill this requirement in the State of Georgia.

The D-SNP Agreement outlines the terms under which WCGA will share information with DCH regarding members of its Georgia D-SNP plan and coordinate benefits for such members. There are no payment obligations under the D-SNP Agreement, although DCH remains responsible for existing cost sharing obligations, such as the payment of deductibles, coinsurance, and co-payments for the Medicare Part A and Part B programs with respect to members of the D-SNP. Among other things, the terms of the D-SNP Agreement also require WCGA to maintain a sufficient network of healthcare providers to provide all medically necessary covered services to enrollees of its D-SNPs and require WCGA to report certain quality measures to DCH such as annual HEDIS reports.

The term of the D-SNP Agreement begins on January 1, 2011 and terminates on December 31, 2011. It automatically renews each successive January 1 unless terminated. Either party may terminate the D-SNP Agreement with 30 days notice to the other party.

The foregoing description does not purport to be a complete description of the parties’ rights and obligations under the D-SNP Agreement. The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the D-SNP Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
