Report of Independent Auditors

To the President, Shareholders and Directors of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A:

1. We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. and subsidiaries (the "Company") as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income and of cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements (and corresponding notes) are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. The attached Reasoned Analysis is not an integral part of these financial statements; therefore this report does not include it.
2. We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
3. In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in Chile.

(j) Allowance for doubtful accounts:

For investments abroad, the valuation methodology applied is that defined in Technical Bulletin No. 64. (p) Goodwill:

This account corresponds to the valuation differences that are created when adjusting the cost of the investments, adopting the equity method or making a new purchase. (t) Staff severance indemnities:

For employees who qualify for this benefit, the Company's staff severance indemnities obligation is provided for by applying the present value of the obligation using an annual discount rate of 6%, considering estimates such as the future service period of the employee, mortality rate of employees and salary increases determined on the basis of actuarial calculations.

(u) Revenue recognition:

The Company's revenues are recognized on an accrual basis in accordance with Chilean GAAP. Since billing dates are different from the accounting close date, as of the date of preparation of these consolidated financial statements provisions have been established for services provided and not billed, which are determined on the basis of contracts, traffic, prices and current conditions for the years. These amounts are recorded under Trade Accounts Receivable.

(v) Foreign currency forwards:

The Company has entered into foreign currency investment and hedging futures. The latter have been purchased to cover the foreign exchange variations for the Company's current foreign currency obligations.

For the purposes of preparing the Statement of Cash Flows according to Technical Bulletin No. 50 of the Chilean Association of Accountants and SVS Circular No.1,312, the Company defines cash equivalents as securities under agreements to resell and time deposits maturing in less than 90 days.

3. Accounting Changes:

a) Accounting changes

During the years covered in these consolidated financial statements, there have been no changes to the accounting principles used.

b) Change in estimate

i) Changes in actuarial hypotheses discount rate

During the first quarter of 2006 an evaluation was performed of the market interest rate used to calculate the current value of staff severance indemnities. After completing this analysis, the Company decided to reduce the discount rate from 7% to 6%. As a result of these modifications, the Company recorded deferred tax assets of ThCh$ 2,797,402 (historical) in 2006, which will be amortized over the future years of service of the employees that qualify for this benefit.

ii) Change in estimation of international traffic

During 2005, subsidiary Telefónica Larga Distancia S.A. surveyed correspondents, in order to implement an automated system to measure, value and determine international traffic provisions. This work allowed optimization of information regarding values pending billing and/or payment for the concept of international traffic.

This new methodology generated a change in the estimation of provisions and purging of real net balances of accounts receivable and payable to correspondents, which altogether resulted in adjustments to these accounts of ThCh$8,960,168 (historical) during the second half of 2005.

4. Marketable Securities:

(1) This amount corresponds to the cost (net of amortizations) of the mandatory reserve paid to the Chilean Central Bank and disbursements incurred for foreign loans obtained by the Company to finance its investment plan. The short-term portion is presented under Other Current Assets (Note 8).

(2) In light of the new contractual conditions derived from the organizational changes experienced by the Company, a series of studies has allowed for, beginning in 2004, modification of the variable for future years of service of employees within the basis for calculating staff severance indemnities. After concluding these studies, in 2005 other estimations were incorporated such as mortality of employees and future salary increases and includes the rate change mentioned in Note 3 b i) for 2006, all determined on the basis of actuarial calculations, as established in Technical Bulletin No. 8 of the Chilean Association of Accountants. The short-term portion is presented under Other Current Assets (Note 8)

The difference at the beginning of the year as a result of changes in the actuarial estimates constitutes actuarial gains or losses, which are deferred and amortized during the average remaining future years of service for the employees that will receive the benefit (see Note 2s).

(3) In conformity with the union agreements between the Company and its employees, loans were granted to employees, the amounts and conditions of which were based, among other aspects, on the accrued balances of staff severance indemnities when they were granted. The staff severance indemnities provision has been recorded in part at its current value, deferring and amortizing this effect over the years of average remaining service life of employees eligible for the benefit. The loan is presented under Other Long-term Receivables.

28. Contingencies and commitments:

a) Lawsuits against the Government:

On October 31, 2001, Telefónica Chile filed an administrative motion before the Ministry of Transport and Telecommunications and the Ministry of Economy, requesting correction of the errors and illegalities in Tariff Decree No. 187 of 1999. On January 29, 2002, the Ministries issued a joint response rejecting the administrative recourse, after having carefully evaluated, only the viability and timeliness of the petition made, considering the set of circumstances that concur in the problem stated and the prudence that must orient public actions, adding that such rejection has had no other motivation than to protect the general interest and progress of the telecommunications services.

Upon extinguishing the administrative instances to correct the errors and illegalities involved in the tariff setting process of 1999, in March 2002, Telefónica Chile filed a lawsuit for damages against the State of Chile for the sum of Ch$ 181,038,411,056, plus readjustments and interest, which covers past and future damages until May 2004. Currently a decision is pending in this case.

Telefónica Chile and Telefónica Larga Distancia filed a plenary damage indemnity lawsuit against the Government of Chile, claiming damages due to modification of telecommunications networks related to work performed by highway concessionaries from 1996 to 2000.

The Government forced both companies to pay to transfer their communications networks due to the construction of public works on concession under the Concessions Law, and the related damages amount to:

- a.- Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.: Ch$1,929,207,445
- b.- Telefónica Larga Distancia S.A.: Ch$ 2,865,208,840

The process is currently at the final sentencing stage.

b) Lawsuits:

(i) Voissnet Accusation:

On January 20, 2005, Telefónica Chile responded to the accusation made by Voissnet filed before the National Economic Attorney General's Office for alleged events which in its opinion threatened free competition, development and growth of Internet technology, fundamentally of broadband telephony, and access to broadband, since they establish the prohibition of carrying voice using the Internet broadband access provided by Telefónica Chile. Voissnet has requested the Antitrust Commission to force Telefónica Chile to allow third parties to provide IP Telephony through the ADSL Internet owned by Telefónica Chile.

On October 26, 2006, the Company was notified of the sentence dictated by the Antitrust Commission, which partially accepted the complaint filed by Voissnet S.A. and the requirement of the National Economic Attorney General's Office, and fined Telefónica Chile 1,500 Annual Tax Units.

On November 8, 2006, Telefónica Chile S.A. filed an appeal before the Supreme Court requesting the sentence to be revoked exonerating the Company from any sanction. The appeal was accepted for processing and the Supreme Court has not set a date to hear the allegations of the parties.

(ii) Complaint filed by VTR Telefónica S.A.:

On June 30, 2000, VTR Telefónica S.A. filed a plenary suit charged in Chilean pesos, claiming payment of Ch$2,204 million plus sums accrued during the suit, for the concept of access charges for the use of its networks. It bases its complaint on the differences arising due to the reduction of access charge tariffs after Tariff Decree No. 187 came into effect. Telefónica Chile answered the complaint sustaining that the tariffs for access charges that both parties must pay for the reciprocal use of their networks, are regulated in a contract signed with VTR, and which that company does not recognize. The first instance sentence accepted the complaint filed by VTR and the compensations alleged in subsidy by Telefónica Chile for the its access charges. The Company filed an appeal for annulment before the Court of Appeals of Santiago which is pending.

There are another two causes related to the judicial process mentioned above. The first filed by VTR in 2002 before Subtel for alleged non-payment of invoices for access charges set by D.S. 26, in which it requests that Telefónica Chile be forced to pay such invoices and pay the fines imposed by the General Telecommunications Laws. That case has been suspended by order of the Minister until sentence is dictated in the judicial proceeding filed by VTR in 2000. The other case was filed by Telefónica Chile on June 6, 2003, for VTR's non-payment of access charges in accordance with the contract signed between the parties. That case has been suspended until a sentence is issued in the first of the mentioned suits.

In turn, on December 21, 2005 Telefónica Chile sued VTR for non-payment of automatic reversal of charges service (800 service), in the amount of Ch$1,500 million, plus sums accrued during the course of the trial. VTR filed a countersuit for the same concepts in the amount of Ch$1,200 million. That judicial process is in first instance processing.

(iii) Manquehue Net

On June 24, 2003, Telefónica Chile filed a forced contract compliance with damage indemnity complaint against Manquehue Net in the amount of ThCh$3,647,689 in addition to the sums accrued during substantiation of the proceeding, before the mixed arbitration court of Mr. Víctor Vial del Río. Likewise, and on the same date, Manquehue Net filed a discounts compliance complaint (in the amount of UF 107,000), in addition to an obligation to perform complaint (signing of 700 service contract). On June 5, 2004, following the evidence presentation stage, the arbitrator summoned the parties to hear sentencing.

On April 11, 2005, the Court notified the first instance sentence that accepted the complaint filed by Telefónica Chile, condemning Manquehue Net to pay approximately Ch$ 452 million and at the same time accepted the complaint filed by Manquehue Net condemning Telefónica Chile to pay UF 47,600.

Telefónica Chile filed an appeal for annulment, which is currently pending before the Court of Appeals of Santiago.

28. Contingencies and restrictions, continued:

(iv) Chilectra and CGE:

In June 2006, Telefónica Chile filed complaints against Chilectra S.A. and Río Maipo (currently CGE Distribución), in which it requests a readjusted refund of the Reimbursable Financial Contributions (AFR) ( Aportes Financieros Reembolsables ) made by the Company between 1992 and 1998, in relation to the Electrical Law. The restitution amounts claimed are ThCh$899,658 and ThCh$117,350, respectively. The lawsuits have recently been notified and is at the discussion stage.

(v) Protection Motion:

On June 28, 2006 television channels UCTV and TVN filed a petition for protection against Telefónica Chile requesting suspension of the inclusion of such signals in the Digital Television Plan. On June 30, the Court of Appeals declared the petition inadmissible, which was confirmed on July 4, by rejection of the motion to appeal.

The complaint filed before the Supreme Court by the channels against the ministers integrating the Courtroom was declared inadmissible on July 13, 2006.

(vi) Labor lawsuits:

In the course of normal operations, labor lawsuits have been filed against the Company.

To date, among others, there are labor proceedings involving former employees, who claim wrongful dismissal. These employees did not sign termination releases or receive staff severance indemnities. On various occasions, the Supreme Court has reviewed the sentences handed down on the matter, accepting the argument of the Company and ratifying the validity of the dismissals.

There are, in addition, other lawsuits involving former employees in some proceedings, whose staff severance indemnities have been paid and their termination releases signed, who in spite of having chosen voluntary retirement plans or having been terminated due to company needs, intend to have the terminations voided. Of these lawsuits, to date, two have received a sentence favorable to the Company, rejecting the annulments.

Certain unions have filed complaints before the Santiago Labor Courts, requesting damage payments for various concepts.

Management and their internal and external legal counsel periodically monitor the evolution of the lawsuits and contingencies affecting the Company in the normal course of its operations, analyzing in each case the possible effect on the financial statements. Based on this analysis and on the information available to date, Management and their legal counsel believe that it is unlikely that the Company's income and equity will be significantly affected by a loss contingency eventually represented by significant liabilities in excess of those already recorded in the financial statements.

(c) Financial restrictions

In order to develop its investment plans, the Company has obtained financing both in the domestic market and abroad (notes 15, 16 and 17), which establish among other things: clauses on the Company's maximum debt.

The maximum debt ratio for these is 1.60.

Non-compliance with these clauses implies that all the obligations assumed in these financing contracts would be considered due and payable.

As of December 31, 2006 the Company complies with all financial restrictions.

29. Third party guarantees:

The Company has not received any guarantees from third parties.

3. ANALYSIS OF INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

3.1 OPERATING INCOME

As of December 31, 2006, operating income amounted to Ch$ 82,624 million, which represents a 7.1% decrease with respect to the previous year.

Operating Revenue

Operating revenue for the year amounted to Ch$577,204 million, or a decrease of 2.6% in relation to operating revenue for the year 2005 of Ch$592,904 million. This variation was mainly the result of the decrease in revenues from basic and corporate communications service due to lower traffic and revenues recorded in the year.

Fixed Telephony Revenues: Fixed telephony revenues decreased 2.5% with respect to the previous year, mainly due to a drop of 12.0% in basic telephony revenues, which resulted from a 29.4% decrease in variable charge revenues. This decrease shows the effect of lower revenues derived from the downturn in traffic per line and migration of customers to flexible plans. Similarly, fixed charge revenues from the fixed monthly network connection charge dropped 36.0% . This change is mainly explained by the incorporation of customers to flexible plans, which grew by 93.7% with respect to the previous year. Consequently, the incorporation of customers to flexible plans contributed positively to income, growing Ch$ 43,742 million with respect to the previous year. Revenues from connections and other installations are 55.7% below the previous year's level, whereas value-added service revenues decreased by 16.7%, mainly due to the drop in average lines in use. Other basic telephony services revenues dropped by 2.0% .

Revenues from broadband services have shown sustained growth, reaching Ch$ 61,291 million, or 39.9% growth, in 2006, as compared to Ch$ 43,802 million in 2005.

Access charges and interconnections increased by 14.0%, mainly due to the 28.7% increase in other interconnection services, where there were particularly noteworthy increases in network rental services, carrier information and connection services, and unbundling services. On the other hand, there was a 19.6% drop in revenues from international long distance access charges and a 34.0% drop in domestic long distance.

Revenues from other fixed telephony businesses increased 1.8%, equivalent to Ch$ 1,097 million.

This change is primarily explained by an increase of Ch$ 624 million in Telemergencia's revenues, with respect to 2005, and television service in the amount of Ch$ 3,792 million. The increase was offset by a drop of Ch$ 1,033 million from commercialization of equipment, Ch$ 677 million from interior installation and equipment rental; Ch$ 1,140 million from telephone book advertising; and Ch$377 million from switchboard and dedicated ISP.

Long Distance: Revenues from long distance services decreased by 0.5% in comparison to 2005, due to a decrease of 7.1% in DLD and a decrease of 8.1% in Network Capacity and Circuit Rentals. However, the decline was offset by an 13.5% increase in ILD income from international services revenue, due to correspondent charges recorded during the third and fourth quarter of 2005.

Corporate Communications: Revenue from corporate communications decreased 4.7% with respect to the previous year, due to decreases in all lines of business: 6.8% in data services, 17.1% in sales of terminal equipment, and 8.3% in complementary services. This was partly offset by a 8.0% increase in revenues from circuits and others.

Other Businesses: Revenue from other businesses decreased 15.8%, mainly because of lower revenues from the subsidiary Telepeajes (automatic toll services) and revenue obtained in 2005 by Fibragaloría.

Operating Costs

Operating costs for the period amounted to Ch$ 494,580 million, decreasing by 1.9% in relation to 2005, when they amounted to Ch$ 503,979 million. This change is mainly explained by a Ch$12,090 million decrease in remunerations as a product of the restructuring performed at the beginning of 2006. Furthermore, there was a 1.7% drop in other operating costs, which was offset by an increase in depreciation costs.

3.2 NON-OPERATING INCOME

Non-operating income obtained in the period ended on December 31, 2006 shows a loss of Ch$ 29,713 million, whereas in the previous period it was a loss Ch$ 29,089 million, which implied a 2.1% greater loss. Where:

Financial income decreased 45.6%, mainly because in 2005 the greater volume of funds in the 2005 period was temporarily allocated to financial investments.

Other non-operating income amounted to Ch$1,617 million, which is lower than the Ch$3,171 million in 2005. This difference is mainly because of lower income obtained on the sale of recovered material, as well as the positive effect of the sale of Intelsat shares on 2005 net income.

Financial expenses decreased by 35.3% in 2006, as a product of lower interest-bearing debt and to an improvement in the international risk rating from BAA2 to BAA1

Amortization of goodwill increased Ch$606 million in relation to 2005, mainly because of the full amortization of the goodwill of Tecnonáutica, during the first quarter of 2006, due to the restructuring of the Telefonica Chile group.

Other non-operating expenses amounted to Ch$16,645 million, a Ch$3,293 million increase with respect to 2005. This increase is explained by the costs incurred in the personnel restructuring that took place at the beginning of 2006.

The Company recorded positive net price-level restatement in 2006 in the amount of Ch$666 million, mainly due to the variations in the CPI, UF and exchange rate. It should be noted that the Company's hedging activities covered 100% of exchange rate fluctuations and 84% of interest rate fluctuations. As a result of the Chilean peso-U.S. dollar exchange rate hedges, the effect of exchange rate variation in 2005 and 2006 was neutral.

3.3 NET INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

The Company recorded net income of Ch$23,353 million for the 2006 period, compared to Ch$25,712 million in 2005. The lower income obtained in 2006 is explained by a 7.1% decrease in operating income, and a 2.1% decrease in the non-operating loss which effects were partially offset by the drop in income taxes.

3.4 RESULTS BY BUSINESS AREA

1. Fixed Telecommunications Business: For the fixed telecommunications business, the Company recorded a net loss of Ch$742 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, which is comparatively lower than the net income of Ch$ 12,219 million recorded for the year 2005. The difference is explained in part by lower operating income, which results from lower operating revenues and higher operating costs, and in part by higher non-operating losses, mainly due to the restructuring cost incurred during the first quarter of 2006.

2. Corporate Communications Business: The corporate communications business contributed net income of Ch$13,296 million, a 20.9% increase in relation to 2005, when net income was Ch$11,002 million. The increase is mainly explained by higher operating income, due to the decrease in payroll costs, as well as smaller non-operating losses.

3. Long Distance Business: The Company recorded net income of Ch$15,121 million for the long distance business for the year ended December 31, 2006. This figure exceeds 2005 net income of Ch$1,645 million, as a result of improvements in both operating income and non-operating income, owing to the changes in international businesses, which required the recognition of extraordinary charges during the third quarter of 2005.

4. Other Businesses Other businesses mainly include the services of Telefónica Multimedia, Instituto Telefónica, T-gestiona and Fundación . These businesses altogether generated a net loss of Ch$4,322 million in 2006, whereas during the same period the previous year they generated net income of Ch$846 million. This is mainly due to entry in the operation of the television business through Telefónica Multimedia; in addition to lower income obtained by Fundación and Instituto Telefónica Chile (formerly Telepeajes).

Net change in cash and cash equivalents for the year	68,956	55,915	13,041	-18.91%

The net negative variation in cash and cash equivalents of Ch$55,915 million in cash flows for the 2006 period, compared to the negative variation of Ch$68,966 million in 2005, is because of a decrease in cash flows from financing activities in 2006. The decrease is mainly caused by a lower distribution of dividends. In addition greater cash flows were obtained from operating activities. These effects were offset by lower cash flows allocated to investment activities due to a decrease in investment in short-term instruments.

The key points from the table above are the following:

The current ratio increase is the result of a 8.8% drop in current assets and a 31.9% drop in current liabilities. The change in current liabilities is explained by a decrease in financial debt in comparison to December of the previous year.

The decrease in the leverage ratio is explained by a 10.7% drop in total liabilities as well as a 4.7% decrease in shareholders' equity, which was the result of both the distribution of retained earnings through the payment of dividends and the capital decrease.

6. EXPLANATION OF THE MAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MARKET OR ECONOMIC VALUE AND THE BOOK VALUE OF THE COMPANY'S ASSETS

Due to market imperfections regarding the capital assets of the sector, there is no economic or market value that can be compared to their accounting values. However, there are certain buildings with a book value equal or close to zero. These buildings have a market value, but it is not significant with respect to the Company's assets in the aggregate.

For other assets with a referential market value, such as marketable securities (shares and promissory notes), provisions have been established when the market value is less than the book value.

7. ANALYSIS OF MARKETS, COMPETITION AND RELATIVE MARKET SHARE

Relevant Industry Information

During the year 2006, the sector has begun to develop the concept of convergence of services and hybrid wireless solutions.

The most relevant event was the launch of Telefónica Chile's Satellite Digital TV during the second quarter of 2006. The launch of this new product was followed by rapid growth in bundled offers of voice, broadband and pay TV services. Other fixed telephony operators have replicated this offer through alliances with satellite operators.

Wireless technology continues its development through deployment of Telefónica Chile's WiFi solutions, the launching of Telsur's PHS (Personal Handy System), and the recent entrance of Transam to local telephony through the GSM standard. In turn, Entel announced the completion of the upgrade of its WLL network to Wimax.

The mobile sector continues to be highly dynamic. This year has been marked by the massive migration of Telefónica Móviles and América Móviles to the GSM standard. América Móviles changed its local brand from Smartcom to Claro toward the end of July 2006.

Market Evolution

Estimates indicate that as of December 2006 the fixed-line market had approximately 3.3 million lines, a drop of 4.7% with respect to December 2005. Within fixed voice consumption, there were decreases of 5.8% in local consumption, 11.5% in DLD and 15.3% in ILD with respect to the same period the previous year.

According to estimates, as of December 2006 the mobile telephone market had a total of 12.9 million subscribers, which represents growth of 14% in comparison to December 2005.

The Internet market continues with the migration from switchboard access to broadband. In 2006 there was a 61% decrease in switchboard market access, with an estimated total of 2.1 billion annual minutes, and a 39% increase in the Broadband market, with 1,020,000 accesses, 58% of which use ADSL technology.

8. ANALYSIS OF MARKET RISK

Financial Risk Coverage

Due to the attractive foreign interest rates in certain periods, the Company has obtained financing abroad, denominated mainly in dollars and in certain cases at a floating interest rate. Consequently, the Company faces two types of financial risks: the risk of exchange rate fluctuations and the risk of interest rate fluctuations.

Financial risk due to foreign currency fluctuations

The Company has exchange rate hedging instruments. The purpose of these instruments is to reduce the negative impact of fluctuations of the dollar on Company results. The percentage of interest-bearing debt exposure is defined and continuously reviewed, basically considering the volatility of the exchange rate, its trend, and the cost and availability of hedging instruments for different terms.

The main hedging instruments used are Cross Currency Swaps and dollar/UF and dollar/peso exchange insurance.

As of December 31, 2006, the interest-bearing debt in original currency expressed in dollars was US$ 749 million, including US$ 500 million in dollar denominated financial liabilities, and US$ 249 million of debt expressed in UF. In this manner US$ 500 million corresponds to debt directly exposed to the variations of the dollar.

During the period, the Company had Cross Currency Swaps, dollar/peso exchange insurance and assets in dollars that resulted, as of the end of the fourth quarter 2006, in close to 0% exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations.

Financial risk due to floating interest rate fluctuations

The policy for hedging interest rates seeks to reduce the negative impact on financial expenses due to interest rate increases.

As of December 31, 2006, the Company had debt at the variable interest rates Libor and TAB, mainly for bank loans.

To protect the Company from increases in the floating interest rates, derivative financial instruments have been used, particularly Cross Currency Swaps (which cover the Libor rate), to limit the future fluctuation of interest rates. As of December 31, 2006, the use of these swaps has allowed the Company to limit its exposure to 16% of the total interest-bearing debt in Chilean pesos.

On September 15, 2005, the companies participating in the public tender called by Subtel to grant wireless local public telephone concessions on the 3,400 – 3,600 MHz band delivered their proposals.

The companies participating in the tender were Telefónica Chile, Telmex Servicios Empresariales, MIC Chile S.A. (owned by Telmex Chile) and VTR.

On December 13, 2005, Subtel informed that VTR and Telmex were awarded the concessions to offer wireless local telephone throughout the country, through the preferential rights of both companies.

Telefónica Chile appealed the awarding of the concessions in conformity with the procedure established in the General Telecommunications Law. Additionally on December 27, 2005 Telefónica Chile filed a public law motion to vacate before the 2nd Civil Court of Santiago against the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications and Subtel, requesting that the recognition of the preferential right of Telmex Servicios Empresariales S.A. be declared null. The Court accepted the mentioned complaint for processing. Regarding the projects corresponding to Regions XI and XII, the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications communicated that by means of Resolutions No. 64 and No. 65, both of January 20, 2006, it assigned the regional concessions to provide wireless local telephone services in Regions XI and XII to Telefónica Chile, since it was the only bidder.
