Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 27, 2005, the Company notified Mellon Investor Services, L.L.C. that effective August 1, 2005 UMB Bank, n.a. would replace Mellon Investor Services, L.L.C. as its stock transfer agent.

In addition, the Company and Mellon Investor Services, L.L.C. (the "Rights Agent") are parties to a certain Rights Agreement, dated as of September 30, 2002 (the "Rights Agreement"). Pursuant to Section 21 of the Rights Agreement, the Company gave notice to the Rights Agent that effective as of 12:01 a.m. on August 1, 2005, the Rights Agent is removed as Rights Agent under the Rights Agreement and shall be discharged from its duties as Rights Agent. The Company appointed UMB Bank, n.a. as successor Rights Agent, effective as of 12:01 a.m. on August 1, 2005, pursuant to Section 21 of the Rights Agreement.

The Securities and Exchange Commission encourages companies to disclose forward-looking information so that investors can better understand the future prospects of a company and make informed investment decisions.

This current report and exhibit contain these types of statements, which are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "may," "plan," "predict," "believe" and similar words or expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. We use such forward-looking statements regarding our future financial condition and results of operations and our business operations in this release. Investors should not place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements reflect the present expectation of future events of our management and are subject to a number of important factors, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. These factors and risks include, but are not limited to, general economic conditions; labor relations; cost and availability of qualified drivers, fuel, purchased transportation and operating assets; governmental regulations, including but not limited to Hours of Service, engine emissions, compliance with recent legislation requiring companies to evaluate their internal control over financial reporting and Homeland Security; dependence on key employees; inclement weather; integration risks; effectiveness of company-specific performance improvement initiatives; competitive initiatives and pricing pressures; terrorism risks; self-insurance claims, equity-based compensation and other expense volatility; the Company's determination from time to time whether to purchase any shares under the repurchase program; and other financial, operational and legal risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC filings.
