Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 16, 2013, the Superior Court of California for the County of Santa Clara issued a proposed statement of decision in a 13-year old case captioned The People of the State of California vs. Atlantic Richfield Company, ConAgra Grocery Products Company ("ConAgra Grocery Products"), E.I. Du Pont De Nemours and Company, NL Industries, Inc. and The Sherwin-Williams Company (the "proposed decision"). The case sought an order against the defendants to abate an alleged public nuisance created by lead paint sales that occurred more than 50 years ago. The proposed decision includes a finding against three defendants, including ConAgra Grocery Products, a wholly owned subsidiary of ConAgra Foods, Inc. (the "Company"). The proposed decision orders the creation of a California abatement fund in the amount of $1.1 billion. Liability is joint and several. The Company and ConAgra Grocery Products strongly disagree with this outcome.

The Company has never engaged in the manufacture or sale of any type of paint. ConAgra Grocery Products was included in this suit solely due to an alleged corporate linkage between it and a lead paint manufacturer. More than 20 years ago, in 1990, the Company acquired Beatrice Company ("Beatrice"). A former subsidiary of Beatrice manufactured lead paint until the 1950s. That paint company sold all of its assets to a third party in 1967 and was dissolved in 1968, more than 45 years ago and 22 years prior to the Company's acquisition of Beatrice. The Company does not believe ConAgra Grocery Products inherited any liabilities of this dissolved entity. The absence of any linkage between ConAgra Grocery Products and this paint company is a critical issue that the Company will continue to advance throughout the appeals process.

The Company strongly believes that ConAgra Grocery Products is not an appropriate defendant in this litigation and will appeal. The Company also believes that the public nuisance theory is flawed, that no causation has been demonstrated and the need for any abatement is highly questionable. The Company has been and will continue to vigorously defend itself in this case and any lead paint related litigation. To date, favorable decisions have been rendered in states across the country. The Company continues to believe that a favorable outcome is the right decision here.

If ultimately necessary, the Company will look to its insurance policies for coverage; its carriers are on notice. However, the Company cannot absolutely assure that the final resolution of this matter will not have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations or liquidity.
