Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As described in the attached press release, the Board of Directors of CME Group Inc. ("CME Group" or the "Company") approved changes to its leadership structure to better meet the needs of its global client base.

In connection with these changes, Bryan T. Durkin, 53, who has served as our Chief Operating Officer since 2007, will take on the newly created role of Chief Commercial Officer to comprehensively serve and support our global client base by ensuring the development, delivery and maintenance of industry leading products, platforms and services. Kim Taylor, 53, will lead all of the company's operational functions globally – Clearing, Operations, Technology and Platform Development – as our President, Global Operations, Technology & Risk and will be charged with bringing new trading and clearing products and services to market. Ms. Taylor previously served as our President, CME Clearing since 2004.

No changes were made to the compensation for Mr. Durkin and Ms. Taylor in connection with these changes and they continue to be compensated on terms commensurate with other members of the Executive Team.

There are no family relationships existing between these executive officers and any other executive officer or director of the Company. There have been no transactions, and no transactions are currently proposed, in which the Company was or is to be a participant and in which such executive officers or any member of their respective immediate family had or will have an interest.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
