On September 27, 2017, the Company's Board of Directors promoted Brett McGill to President and Chief Operating Officer, effective October 1, 2017.

Joe Watters, Board Member and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee Chairman, stated, "Brett McGill's promotion to President and Chief Operating Officer is in recognition of his contributions that have made MarineMax the industry leader that it is today. Brett's passion for the industry, his specific skill sets and his ability to build successful teams have been evident throughout his career. He has a close relationship with the MarineMax customer and he has done an outstanding job in overseeing the management of our stores and operations. As a Board, we are confident that his experience, leadership skills and knowledge will serve MarineMax well as he assumes his increased responsibilities as President."

Prior to his promotion, Brett McGill, age 48, served as MarineMax's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer since October 1, 2016 after serving as Executive Vice President Operations since October 2015 and Executive Vice President of West Operations since May 2012.
