7. The impacts of the New Issue to the Company

(1) Impact of the New Issue on the financial position of the Company

After completion of the New Issue, the net assets of the Company will be increased, and the asset/liability ratio will be lowered. On repaying the loans from funds raised in the New Issue, the capital structure of the Company will become more stable and the capital base will be strengthened, which is conducive to further upgrading the risk resistance capability of the Company. In addition, the repayment of the bank loans from the funds raised in the New Issue is conducive to lowering the financial costs, and to enhance the overall profitability of the Company. The completion of the New Issue is consistent with the actual situations and the strategies of the Company and is in the interest of its shareholders as a whole, which is beneficial to the long term sustainable development of the Company.

(2) Impact of the New Issue on the business structure

The funds raised from the New Issue will be used in the construction projects of power industry, in line with the State's strategic and industrial policies regarding energy. It is anticipated that after completion and commencement of operation of the projects invested by the funds raised from the New Issue, the Company's core competitiveness will be further strengthened. At the same time of expanding the construction of large-capacity, high-parameter, high-efficiency and environmental protection-type thermal power projects, the Company's assets layout on power will be further enhanced, thus realizing optimization of the power source structure and having a significant strategic meaning in realizing the Company's long-term sustainable development. The New Issue will not have a significant impact on the Company's business structure.

(3) Impact of the New Issue on corporate governance and structure of senior management personnel

After completion of the New Issue, there is no change in the Company's controlling shareholders and effectual controllers. The directors, supervisors and senior management personnel are stable and the stability and independence of the original legal person governance structure will not be affected. The Company will further regulate its operation according to the stipulations of the relevant laws, regulations and State policies in order to practically warrant the Company's independence. Accordingly, the New Issue will not result in changes to the Company's governance structure and the structure of the senior management personnel.

(4) Impact of the New Issue on connected transactions and industry competition

1. Impact of the New Issue on the industry competition of the Company

The New Issue will not result in substantial industry competition between the Company and Huaneng Group. In addition, Huaneng Group has also provided an undertaking in relation to relevant matters for further avoidance of business competition by Huaneng Group with Huaneng Power International, Inc. Please refer to an announcement published on 17 September 2010 for details.

2. Impact of the New Issue on the connected transactions of the Company

The New Issue is instrumental in reducing the percentage of the overall connected transactions. Connected transactions between the Company and Huaneng Group and its controlled enterprises will continue to be conducted according to the principles of market impartiality, fairness and openness, connected transaction agreements will be entered into according to law, information disclosure obligations will be performed and the relevant reporting and approval procedures will be completed according to the relevant stipulations of the relevant laws, regulations and listing rules and the connected transactions will be conducted in strict accordance with the pricing principles stipulated in the connected transaction agreements that will not prejudice the interest of the Company and the shareholders as a whole.
