Form 8-K

SECTION 5 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective March 12, 2007, the Board of Directors of FedEx Corporation adopted the following amendments to FedEx's Amended and Restated Bylaws:

Section 8 of Article II and Section 1 of Article III of the bylaws were amended to change from a plurality-voting standard to a majority-voting standard in uncontested director elections. Under the new standard, a director nominee will be elected only if the number of votes cast for the nominee exceeds the number of votes cast against the nominee.

Amended Section 1 of Article III of the bylaws provides that directors will continue to be elected by a plurality vote at any contested election meeting, which is defined as any annual meeting of FedEx's stockholders for which (i) the Secretary of FedEx receives a notice that a stockholder has nominated a person for election to the Board of Directors in compliance with the advance notice requirements set forth in Section 12 of Article II of the bylaws, and (ii) such nomination has not been withdrawn by such stockholder on or prior to the tenth day preceding the date FedEx first gives notice of such meeting to the stockholders, as required by Section 3 of Article II of the bylaws.

Section 1 of Article III of the bylaws was amended to prohibit the Board of Directors from nominating for election (or filling a vacancy or newly created directorship with) any candidate who has not agreed in advance to submit an irrevocable resignation that would take effect upon (i) the failure to receive the required vote for reelection in the next election, and (ii) the Board's acceptance of such resignation. Section 12 of Article II of the bylaws was amended to impose a similar requirement on director candidates nominated by stockholders. Conforming changes were made to Section 9 of Article VII.

Section 1 of Article III of the bylaws was amended to provide that if an incumbent director does not receive the required vote for reelection, the Board of Directors must, within 90 days after certification of the election results, accept the director's resignation unless there is a compelling reason not to do so and promptly disclose its decision (including, if applicable, the reasons for rejecting the resignation) in an SEC filing.

Article VIII of the bylaws was amended to prohibit the Board of Directors from changing back to a plurality-voting standard without the approval of FedEx's stockholders.

The foregoing summary of the bylaw amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Amended and Restated Bylaws as adopted and effective as of March 12, 2007, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated by reference herein. A copy of FedEx's related press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
