ITEM 1.01

ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On March 7, 2013, ChromaDex Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("ChromaDex"), entered into an Exclusive License Agreement (the "Agreement") with Washington University, a corporation established by special act of the Missouri General Assembly approved February 22, 1853 and acts amendatory thereto ("WU"). Under the terms of the Agreement, WU granted to ChromaDex a worldwide, exclusive, sublicensable right and license to use certain patent rights relating to the use of the vitamin known as Nicotinamide Riboside ("NR") in a specified field of use. NR is found naturally in trace amounts in milk and other foods and is a more potent version of Niacin (vitamin B3). The Agreement terminates on the earliest of (i) the expiration date or abandonment of the last valid claim of the patent rights licensed under the Agreement or the tenth anniversary of the first sale by Chromadex under the Agreement, whichever is later, (ii) failure by ChromaDex to meet certain pre-development milestones or an uncured default or breach by ChromaDex under the Agreement or (iii) upon prior written notice given by ChromaDex and payment of a termination fee consisting of maintenance fees, minimum royalties and any milestone payments that ChromaDex would pay in the 120 day period after such termination.

In consideration of the license granted, ChromaDex will pay to WU earned royalties on net sales of all licensed products (including sales by sublicensees and affiliates), as well as a percentage of attributed income from sublicensing agreements. ChromaDex is subject to minimum annual maintenance or royalty payments to WU of $25,000 during the term of the Agreement.

ChromaDex has agreed upon a commercialization plan to develop, commercialize and market licensed products under that Agreement and will make certain payments to WU in connection with the achievement of certain milestone events relating to product development and regulatory approvals in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.

The foregoing is a summary of the material terms of the Agreement and does not purport to be complete. You should read the complete Agreement, which shall be attached as an exhibit to ChromaDex Corporation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2013 and, when filed, such Agreement shall be incorporated by reference herein. ChromaDex Corporation will seek confidential treatment for certain terms of the Agreement at the time of filing such Quarterly Report.
