Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers. Effective January 18, 2017, M. Brian Aynesworth resigned from his position as a Class III director of Independent Bank Group, Inc. (“Independent”) in connection with his rejoining Independent Bank as a Executive Vice President-Senior Credit Officer. Mr. Aynesworth previously served as an officer of Independent Bank and resigned from that position in February 2013 in connection with Independent’s initial public offering. Mr. Aynesworth has been appointed as a Executive Vice President-Senior Credit Officer of Independent Bank to enhance Independent Bank’s lending and credit administration team in the Austin/Central Texas region. He will also join the Independent Bank board of directors.

Effective January 18, 2017, Jack Radke resigned from his position as a Class I director of Independent. Mr. Radke’s term as a Class I director was to expire at the Independent annual meeting of shareholders in May 2017, and his resignation facilitates the recomposition of the Independent board of directors as part of the previously announced acquisition of Carlile Bancshares, Inc. (“Carlile”). Mr. Radke will join the Independent Bank board of directors. These resignations, along with the previously announced resignation of Torry Berntsen in October 2016, created two vacancies in the Class I directors and one vacancy in the Class III directors. As a result, there was an uneven distribution among the director classes. To correct this uneven distribution, Class II directors Daniel W. Brooks and Craig E. Holmes resigned as Class II directors effective January 18, 2017. Effective January 19, 2017, Mr. Brooks and Mr. Holmes were appointed by the Independent board of directors to fill the two Class I vacancies for a term that will expire at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2017.

As a result of these changes, the size of Independent’s board of directors is set at twelve directors, of which there are nine directors of Independent with three members in each of the three director classes currently serving, and there are three vacancies on the Independent board of directors, one in each class.
