Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 7, 2005, Charming Shoppes, Inc. (the "Company") granted restricted stock and performance share awards to Dorrit J. Bern, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and to Joseph M. Baron, Anthony A. DeSabato, Eric M. Specter, and Colin D. Stern, the other executive officers who were named in the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement and/or who are expected to be named in the Company's 2005 Proxy Statement (the "Executive Officers"). These grants were made pursuant to the Charming Shoppes, Inc. 2004 Stock Award and Incentive Plan

(the "2004 Plan"), which was approved by the Company's Board of Directors on April 30, 2004 and by the Company's shareholders on June 24, 2004. In addition to approving the plan, shareholders also approved, among other things, the material terms of certain awards that may be granted under the 2004 Plan to the named Executive Officers in order to meet the requirement for such awards to qualify as "performance-based" under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The 2004 Plan was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 19, 2004 as Appendix "B" to the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement Pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Following is a brief description of the general terms of the restricted stock and performance share awards, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2004 Plan filed as "Appendix B" to the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement and by reference to the full text of the Forms of Restricted Stock Agreement and Performance Share Agreement filed as Exhibits under Section 9.01 of this Report on Form 8-K.

Restricted Stock Agreement

The Company granted to Ms. Bern restricted shares of its common stock under the Form of Restricted Stock Agreement filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Report on Form 8-K. The restricted shares are subject to a two-year restricted period commencing on the date of grant. In general, the shares of restricted stock are subject to forfeiture during the restricted period upon termination of employment for any reason other than death, disability, retirement, termination by the employee for good reason, or termination by the Company for reasons other than cause. The terms "disability," "good reason," and "cause" have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Employment Agreement by and between the Company and Dorrit J. Bern dated as of January 1, 2005 (the "Employment Agreement"), filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Report on Form 8-K dated January 3, 2005 and filed on January 4, 2005. In addition, the lapse of restrictions on shares issued under the Restricted Stock Agreement will be accelerated if Ms. Bern resigns for good reason, is terminated without cause, dies, or becomes disabled, or in the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreement), and the restricted shares will vest immediately. A non-renewal of the Employment Agreement by the Company will be treated as a termination for good reason. If the employee elects to defer any of the restricted shares pursuant to the Company's Variable Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives or a successor plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan"), the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan will govern the timing of payment of vested restricted shares.

The Company granted to the remaining Executive Officers, restricted shares of its common stock under the Form of Restricted Stock Agreement filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this Report on Form 8-K. Restrictions on the shares lapse as to 33% of the total number of shares granted on each of the third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant, and as to 34% of the total number of shares granted on the fifth anniversary of the date of grant. In general, the shares of restricted stock are subject to forfeiture during the restricted period upon termination of employment for any reason other than death, permanent disability, retirement, or involuntary termination by the Company for reasons other than cause (as defined in the Restricted Stock Agreement). In addition, the lapse of restrictions on shares issued under the Restricted Stock Agreement will be accelerated in the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Restricted Stock Agreement), and the restricted shares will vest immediately. If the employee elects to defer any of the restricted shares pursuant to the Deferred Compensation Plan, the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan will govern the timing of payment of vested restricted shares.

Performance Share Agreement

The Company granted to Ms. Bern, restricted stock units with respect to shares of its common stock under the Form of Performance Share Agreement filed as Exhibit 99.3 to this Report on Form 8-K. The actual number of shares that will vest and be distributed pursuant to the Performance Share Agreement will depend on the Company's achievement of certain performance goals over a three-year performance period or the satisfaction of other conditions described in the Performance Share Agreement. The performance goal relates to the Company's achievement of a specified level of cumulative free cash flow (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement), and provides for 100% vesting upon achievement of the target amount, 50% vesting upon achievement of a minimum amount, and 200% vesting upon achievement of a maximum amount, with interpolation between these measuring points. The restricted stock units generally vest on February 2, 2008, subject to continued employment with the Company and to the Company's achievement of the performance goals specified in the Performance Share Agreement. In general, the restricted stock units are subject to forfeiture during the restricted period upon termination of employment for any reason other than death, disability, retirement, termination by the employee for good reason, or termination by the Company for reasons other than cause. The terms "disability," "good reason," and "cause" have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Employment Agreement by and between the Company and Dorrit J. Bern dated as of January 1, 2005 (the "Employment Agreement"), filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Report on Form 8-K dated January 3, 2005 and filed on January 4, 2005. In addition, the lapse of restrictions on restricted stock units under the Performance Share Agreement will be accelerated if Ms. Bern resigns for good reason, is terminated without cause, dies or becomes disabled, or in the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreement), and shares of common stock equal to the Target Shares (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement) will vest immediately. A non-renewal of the Employment Agreement by the Company will be treated as a termination for good reason. If the employee elects to defer any of the performance shares pursuant to the Company's Variable Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives or a successor plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan"), the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan will govern the timing of payment of vested shares.

The Company granted to the remaining Executive Officers, restricted stock units with respect to shares of its common stock under the Form of Performance Share Agreement filed as Exhibit 99.4 to this Report on Form 8-K. The actual number of shares that will vest and be distributed pursuant to the Performance Share Agreement will depend on the Company's achievement of certain performance goals or the satisfaction of other conditions described in the Performance Share Agreement. The performance goal relates to the Company's achievement of a specified level of cumulative free cash flow (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement), and provides for 100% vesting upon achievement of the target amount, 50% vesting upon achievement of a minimum amount, and 200% vesting upon achievement of a maximum amount, with interpolation between these measuring points. The restricted stock units generally vest on February 2, 2008, subject to continued employment with the Company and to the Company's achievement of the performance goals specified in the Performance Share Agreement. In general, the restricted stock units are subject to forfeiture during the restricted period upon termination of employment for any reason other than death, permanent disability, retirement, or involuntary termination by the Company for reasons other than cause (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement). In addition, the lapse of restrictions on restricted stock units under the Performance Share Agreement will be accelerated in the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement), and shares of common stock equal to the Target Shares (as defined in the Performance Share Agreement) will vest immediately. If the employee elects to defer any of the performance shares pursuant to the Deferred Compensation Plan, the terms of the Deferred
