On January 17, 2007, the Board of Directors approved amendments to Article III, Section 1 of the Company's bylaws to revise the provisions with regard to the majority vote standard for director elections. The date for determining if an election is contested or uncontested has been set at 14 days before the Company files its definitive proxy statement; this addition is intended to clarify whether directors will be elected under a majority or plurality standard prior to soliciting proxies. The existing resignation requirement was revised to conform to a new Delaware law recognizing advance, irrevocable contingent resignations, and the general text was moved from the bylaws to the Company's corporate governance guidelines (which are published on the company's Investor relations website). The mandatory recusal provision was also removed in light of Delaware law considerations.
