The information contained in Item 2.01 is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On June 6, 2007, Katy Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) sold Contico Manufacturing, Ltd. (“CML”) to Invescotec Limited (“Invescotec”) for approximately $10.0 million, subject to a post-closing adjustment based on working capital, capped at an additional $1.0 million. A formal plan of disposition was not committed to by the Company’s Board of Directors until subsequent to March 31, 2007. The description of the definitive share purchase agreement set forth above is qualified in its entirety by the full text of that agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference. The sale of CML to Invescotec occurred simultaneously with the execution of the definitive agreement, which contained customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification agreements.

CML is a distributor of a wide range of cleaning equipment, storage solutions and washroom dispensers for the commercial and sanitary maintenance and food service markets primarily in the United Kingdom.

(b) Pro Forma Financial Information.

The following unaudited pro forma financial information is presented to give effect to the disposition of CML. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet as of March 31, 2007 is based on the historical statements of the Company as of March 31, 2007 after giving effect to the disposition as if it had occurred on March 31, 2007. Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information

1. Basis of Presentation

The historical financial statements represent the consolidated balance sheets and statements of operations derived from the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the years ending December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, and the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2007.

The accompanying financial information has been presented to give effect to the disposition of CML. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet as of March 31, 2007 is based on the historical statements of the Company as of March 31, 2007 after giving effect to the disposition as if it had occurred on March 31, 2007. The unaudited pro forma statements of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 are based on the historical financial statements of the Company for such periods after giving effect to the disposition of CML as if it had occurred on January 1, 2004.

2. Transaction

The expected proceeds to be received, net of closing costs, for CML is approximately $9.7 million. Based on these proceeds and, after taking into account transaction costs and expenses of approximately $0.3 million, the Company expects to incur a pre-tax gain of approximately $5.4 million.

3. Pro Forma Adjustments

The pro forma adjustments are described below:

- (a) Amounts represent the receipt of gross proceeds of $10.0 million used to pay down the Revolving Credit Facility and Term Loan. This pay down was required in the Bank of America Credit Agreement, but does not reduce the Company's overall borrowing capacity. The application of proceeds between the Revolving Credit Facility and Term Loan reflects the consent given by the creditors in the Bank of America Credit Agreement.
- (b) Amounts represent the historical account balances of CML, net of intercompany account balances prior to closing.
 - (c) Amount represents the transactional closing costs incurred.
 - (d) Amounts represent the historical account activity of CML, net of intercompany activity.
- (e) Amounts relate to the interest expense reduction as a result of the use of the above proceeds. The interest rates applied were consistent with the terms of the Bank of America Credit Agreement.
- (f) Amounts represent the historical income tax activity of CML. No income tax impact is present associated with the interest expense reduction as the reduction will be recognized in the United States.
