MDU Resources Names Moylan Chief Accounting Officer

BISMARCK, N.D. - Jan. 10, 2006 - Dan Moylan, 44, was promoted to chief accounting officer for MDU Resources Group, Inc. (NYSE:MDU), effective today. Moylan previously held the position of assistant vice president - accounting and financial reporting. Moylan will provide leadership for the corporate accounting, financial planning and taxation functions. He will also provide direction to the operating companies to assist them in developing financial strategies and achieving financial goals.

“Dan will do an excellent job in this position,” said Martin A. White, chairman of the board and chief executive officer. “At MDU Resources, Dan has shown outstanding leadership in managing the accounting and financial reporting functions. His advancement to chief accounting officer is well deserved.”

Moylan has been with MDU Resources since 1993, when he started as an internal auditor. In 1994, he transferred to the corporate accounting department. He was promoted to corporate accounting manager in 1997 and to assistant vice president in 2003.

A native of Sebastopol, Calif., Moylan graduated with a bachelor’s degree in accounting from California State University in Chico. He is a certified public accountant. Before joining MDU Resources, Moylan worked for a major accounting firm in auditing and management consulting.

Moylan, his wife Janis and their three children reside in Bismarck.
