Amendments to, or waivers from, a provision of the code of business conduct that applies to our directors, executive officers or employees will be posted to our website promptly following the date of the amendment or waiver.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by Commission regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it has received, written representations from certain reporting persons that they were not required to file Forms 5 for the last fiscal year and other information known to the Company, the Company believes that all its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions filed during fiscal year 2003, except for Dennis E. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC, nor shall such information be incorporated by reference into any previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that the Company incorporated it by specific reference.

The Board of Directors appointed a Compensation Committee comprised of the undersigned, Messrs. Jennings, Legler, and Martinez. Members of the Compensation Committee, all of whom must be independent directors of the Company, are selected each year by the full Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing and administering executive compensation programs including administration of the 2000 Commercial Net Lease Realty, Inc. Performance Incentive Plan (the 2000 Plan) and the 2003 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the 2003 Plan), as well as approval of changes in directors' compensation. The Compensation Committee currently operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors in November 2003, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.nnnreit.com.

The Compensation Committee believes the Company's degree of success is largely attributable to the talent and dedication of its associates and to the management and leadership efforts of its executive officers. The goal of the Compensation Committee is to establish a compensation program that will attract and retain talented corporate officers, motivate them to perform to their fullest potential, as well as align their long-term interests with the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Historically, the key elements in the Company's executive compensation program have consisted of salary, annual bonus (which may be paid in cash and/or restricted stock) and long-term incentive compensation (paid in restricted stock). In making compensation decisions, the Compensation Committee considers the compensation practices and financial performance of other REIT industry participants and from time to time receives assessments and advice regarding compensation practices from independent compensation consultants. In evaluating performance, the Compensation Committee considers quantitative and qualitative improvement in the Company's Funds From Operations (FFO), capital structure, absolute and relative shareholder returns and individual performance and contribution to corporate goals and objectives. Additionally, the Compensation Committee makes a subjective assessment of the general performance of the Company, the officer's contribution to the Company's performance, the officer's anticipated performance and contribution to the Company's achievement of its long-term goals and the position, level, and scope of the officer's responsibility.

In keeping with its belief that tying the financial interests of executive officers of the Company to those of the shareholders will result in enhanced alignment of interests and shareholder value, the Committee has evaluated the stock ownership levels of executive management and determined them to be adequate. The Committee also established stock ownership guidelines of $50,000 for directors.

For 2003, Mr. Seneff received total cash payments of $150,000 in salary. The Compensation Committee considered this level of payment appropriate in light of Mr. Seneff's responsibilities and the Company's performance. A bonus of $123,750 was paid to Mr. Seneff in 2004 based on FFO per share results, capital structure improvement, and total shareholder return for 2003. Additionally, 10,571 shares of restricted common stock were awarded as long-term incentive compensation as a result of the outperformance of total shareholder returns relative to REIT and general equity market indices for the past three, five and ten year periods. Salary increases in 2003 for Executive Officers were based on FFO per share targets, individual performance, position, tenure, experience, leadership and competitive data in compensation surveys of comparable companies.

In November 2003, the Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors unanimously approved, director compensation commencing in fiscal year 2004 as follows: (a) annual retainer of $20,000 per year for each director; (b) restricted stock grant of 1,500 shares of common stock per year for each director vesting over a two year period; (c) meeting fees of $1,000 per Board meeting or committee meeting attended; and $500 per telephonic Board meeting or committee meeting attended; (d) chairmanship fees of $12,000 per year for Chairman of the Board of Directors, $10,000 per year for Chairman of Audit Committee, and $6,000 per year for Chairman of the Compensation, Governance and Nominating, and other committees; and (e) new director initial restricted stock grant of 2,500 shares of common stock, vesting over a two year period.

Consistent with SEC policies regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the Audit Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

Prior to engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, management will submit to the Audit Committee for approval an aggregate of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the three categories of services listed in the table above.

Prior to engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service.
