Introduction.

On May 21, 2001, Southeastern converted its Schedule 13G to a filing on Schedule 13D in order to gain the flexibility to work constructively with management to take capital out of the business and return significant amounts of that capital to shareholders.

Edgar Filing: IHOP CORP - Form SC 13G/A

Management has done an outstanding job of implementing a much superior business model, including comp store gains well above previous expectations. Additionally, the newly instituted dividend combined with meaningful share repurchases disclosed in last week's 10-Q convey the company's serious intention to efficiently return the much improved free cash flow to shareholders.

Because we have no current need to explore capital allocation issues with management or others, Southeastern is hereby converting its Schedule 13D back to a Schedule 13G, indicating our return to "passive" status. We believe that IHOP is now in excellent hands, and that management has established a foundation with meaningful growth opportunities. The stock remains undervalued, and we are pleased to continue our partnership with IHOP.
