Section 2 - Financial Information

Item 2.03. Creation of an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

(b) On July 20, 2006, the Registrant became contingently liable for an obligation arising out of an off-balance sheet arrangement by guaranteeing $1,000,000,000 principal amount of 5.50% Farmer Mac Guaranteed Notes of Farmer Mac Guaranteed Notes Trust 2006-2 (the "Notes"). The Notes are general obligations of the newly-created Farmer Mac Guaranteed Notes Trust 2006-2 and are secured by an obligation of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company that is collateralized by agricultural real estate mortgage loans eligible for the Registrant's Farmer Mac I program. The Registrant has fully and unconditionally guaranteed the timely payment of interest and principal on the Notes.

Payments of interest on the Notes at a per annum rate of 5.50% will be made semi annually in arrears on each January 15 and July 15, beginning January 15, 2007 until maturity on July 15, 2011. Payment of the full principal amount of the Notes will be paid at maturity. The obligation of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company that secures the Notes is intended to be the primary source of payments on the Notes and has terms that mirror the payment terms of the Notes. The value of the agricultural real estate mortgage loans and other assets collateralizing Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's obligation is required to be at least 103% of the principal amount of the obligation at all times. The Registrant, as guarantor of the Notes, would have recourse to that collateral in the event that Metropolitan Life Insurance Company defaulted on its obligation that secures the Notes.

The maximum potential amount of future payments (undiscounted) that the Registrant may be required to make pursuant to its guarantee of the Notes is $1.275 billion.

The Notes are not redeemable or callable before maturity and are not convertible to any other security. The Notes were offered under Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933 only to U.S. and non-U.S. qualified institutional buyers and were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any state securities laws. The Notes are rated Aaa, AAA and AAA, respectively, by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., Fitch Ratings and Dominion Bond Rating Service.
