AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

We prepare our unaudited interim Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). We consistently applied the accounting policies described in our 2018 Annual Report on Form 10-K ("2018 Form 10-K") in preparing these unaudited interim Consolidated Financial Statements, other than those impacted by new accounting standards as described below. In our opinion, the unaudited interim Consolidated Financial Statements reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature that are necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented. Results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year. You should read these unaudited interim Consolidated Financial Statements in conjunction with our Consolidated Financial Statements contained in our 2018 Form 10-K. When used in this report, the terms "Avon," "Company," "we" or "us" mean Avon Products, Inc.

For interim Consolidated Financial Statements purposes, we generally provide for accruals under our various employee benefit plans for each quarter based on one quarter of the estimated annual expense, and adjust these accruals as estimates are refined. In addition, our income tax provision is determined using an estimate of our consolidated annual effective tax rate, adjusted in the current period for discrete income tax items including:

• the effects of significant, unusual or extraordinary pretax and income tax items, if any;

• withholding taxes recognized associated with cash repatriations; and

• the impact of loss-making subsidiaries for which we cannot recognize an income tax benefit and subsidiaries for which an effective tax rate cannot be reliably estimated.

Argentina Currency

During the quarter ended June 30, 2018, based on published official exchange rates which indicated that Argentina's three-year cumulative inflation rate had exceeded 100%, we concluded that Argentina had become a highly inflationary economy. From July 1, 2018, we have applied highly inflationary accounting for our Argentinian subsidiary. As such, the functional currency for Argentina has changed to the U.S. dollar, which is the consolidated group's reporting currency. When an entity operates in a highly inflationary economy, exchange gains and losses associated with monetary assets and liabilities resulting from changes in the exchange rate are recorded in income. Nonmonetary assets and liabilities, which include inventories, property, plant and equipment and contract liabilities, are carried forward at their historical dollar cost, which was calculated using the exchange rate at June 30, 2018.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases, which requires all assets and liabilities arising from leases to be recognized in our Consolidated Balance Sheets. We adopted this new accounting guidance effective January 1, 2019.

In July 2018, the FASB added an optional transition method which we elected upon adoption of the new standard. This allowed us to recognize and measure leases existing at January 1, 2019 without restating comparative information. In addition, we elected to apply the package of practical expedients permitted under the transition guidance within the new standard, which among other things, allows us to carry forward the historical lease classification.

We determine if an arrangement is a lease at the lease commencement date. In addition to our lease agreements, we review all material new vendor arrangements for potential embedded lease obligations. The asset balance related to operating and finance leases is presented within right-of-use (ROU) asset and property, plant and equipment, respectively, on our Consolidated Balance Sheet. The short-term liability balance related to operating and finance leases is presented within other accrued liabilities on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. The long-term liability balance is presented within long-term operating lease liability and long-term debt on our Consolidated Balance Sheets for operating and finance leases, respectively.

The lease liability is recognized based on the present value of the remaining fixed or in-substance fixed lease payments discounted using our incremental borrowing rates. We use a specific incremental borrowing rate for our material leases, which is determined based on the geography and term of the lease. These rates are determined based on inputs provided by external banks and updated periodically. The lease liability includes the exercise of a purchase option only if we are reasonably certain to exercise as of the commencement date of the lease. The residual value guarantee amount is only included in the lease liability calculation to the extent payment is probable to the lessor as of the commencement of the lease. The ROU asset is calculated based on the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments paid to the lessor at or before the commencement date (i.e. prepaid rent) and initial direct costs incurred by Avon and excluding any lease incentives received from the Lessor.

Variable lease payments are payments to the lessor not included in the lease liability calculation. We define variable lease payments as payments made by Avon to the lessor for the right to use a leased asset that vary because of changes in facts or circumstances (such as changes in an index rate, volume, usage, etc.) occurring after the lease commencement date, other than predetermined contractual changes due to the passage of time (for example, predetermined rent increase amounts that are set out in the contract). Variable lease payments or charges are accounted for as incurred.

The lease term for purposes of lease accounting may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that we will exercise that option as of the commencement date of the lease. For operating leases, the lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. For finance leases, the Company amortizes the ROU asset on a straight-line basis and records interest expense on the lease liability created at lease commencement over the lease term.

We account for our lease and non-lease components as a single component for most of our asset classes, and therefore both are included in the calculation of lease liability recognized on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. However, for certain lease asset classes related to identified embedded leases we account for the lease and non-lease components separately, and therefore, the non-lease component is not included in the lease liability.

Leases with an initial term of twelve months or less are not recorded on the balance sheet; we recognize lease expense for these leases over their lease term. See Note 9, Leases, for further details.

Other Accounting Standards Implemented

ASU 2018-02, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income

In February 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-02, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income, which permits entities to reclassify the disproportionate income tax effects of the 2017 enactment of U.S. tax reform legislation (the "Act") on items within accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) to retained earnings. We adopted this new accounting guidance effective January 1, 2019 and elected not to reclassify the disproportionate income tax effects of the Act from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) to retained earnings.

Accounting Standards to be Implemented

ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses

In January 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses, which requires measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. We intend to adopt this new accounting guidance effective January 1, 2020. We are currently assessing the impact on our consolidated financial statements.

2. LOSS PER SHARE AND SHARE REPURCHASES

We compute loss per share ("EPS") using the two-class method, which is a loss allocation formula that determines loss per share for common stock, and loss allocated to convertible preferred stock and participating securities, as appropriate. The earnings allocated to convertible preferred stock are the larger of 1) the preferred dividends accrued in the period or 2) the percentage of earnings from continuing operations allocable to the preferred stock as if they had been converted to common stock. Our participating securities are our grants of restricted stock and restricted stock units, which contain non-forfeitable rights to dividend equivalents to the extent any dividends are declared and paid on our common stock. We compute basic EPS by dividing net income (loss) allocated to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is calculated to give effect to all potentially dilutive common shares that were outstanding during the period.

Amounts in the table above may not necessarily sum due to rounding.

During the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, we did not include stock options to purchase 17.2 million and 15.3 million shares, respectively, of Avon common stock in the calculation of diluted EPS as we had a net loss and the inclusion of these shares would decrease the net loss per share. Since the inclusion of such shares would be anti-dilutive, these are excluded from the calculation.

For the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, it is more dilutive to assume the series C convertible preferred stock is not converted into common stock; therefore, the weighted-average shares outstanding were not adjusted by the as-if converted series C convertible preferred stock because the effect would be anti-dilutive. The inclusion of the series C convertible preferred stock would decrease the net loss per share for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018. If the as-if converted series C convertible preferred stock had been dilutive, approximately 87.1 million additional shares would have been included in the diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018. See Note 6, Related Party Transactions. We did not purchase any shares of Avon common stock during the first three months of 2019, as compared to approximately .9 million shares of Avon common stock for $2.7 during the first three months of 2018, through acquisition of stock from employees in connection with tax payments upon the vesting of restricted stock units and performance restricted stock units.

(9) The payables due to an affiliate of Cerberus relate to the agreement for the project management team, and were classified within other accrued liabilities in our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In addition, the Company also issued standby letters of credit to the lessors of certain equipment, a lease for which was transferred to New Avon in connection with the separation of the Company's North America business. As of March 31, 2019, the Company has a liability of $.8 for the estimated value of such standby letters of credit.

Series C Preferred Stock

On March 1, 2016, the Company issued and sold to Cerberus Investor 435,000 shares of newly issued series C preferred stock for an aggregate purchase price of $435.0. Cumulative preferred dividends accrue daily on the series C preferred stock at a rate of 1.25% per quarter. The series C preferred stock had accrued unpaid dividends of $72.0 as of March 31, 2019. Series C convertible preferred stock and accrued dividends of $498.3 on the Consolidated Balance Sheet at March 31, 2019 is stated net of $8.7 of costs incurred in connection with the issuance of the Series C convertible preferred stock in 2016. There were no dividends declared in the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018.

Contract balances

The timing of revenue recognition generally is different from the timing of a promise made to a Representative. As a result, we have contract liabilities, which primarily relate to the advance consideration received from Representatives prior to transfer of the related good or service for material rights, such as loyalty points and status programs, and are primarily classified within other accrued liabilities (with the long-term portion in other liabilities) in our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Generally, we record accounts receivable when we invoice a Representative. In addition, we record an estimate of an allowance for doubtful accounts on receivable balances based on an analysis of historical data and current circumstances, including seasonality and changing trends. The allowance for doubtful accounts is reviewed for adequacy, at a minimum, on a quarterly basis. We generally have no detailed information concerning, or any communication with, any ultimate consumer of our products beyond the Representative. We have no legal recourse against the ultimate consumer for the collection of any accounts receivable balances due from the Representative to us. If the financial condition of the Representatives were to deteriorate, resulting in their inability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.

The following table provides information about receivables and contract liabilities from contracts with customers at March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018:

	2019		2018
	31 March	1 January	31 March	1 January
Accounts receivable, net of allowances of $79, $93, $128 and $139	$340.9	$349.7	$429.0	$457.2
Contract liabilities	$58.3	83.5	$75.5	$91.8

At January 1, 2019 and March 31, 2019 we had a contract liability of $83.5 and $58.3, respectively, relating to certain material rights (loyalty points, status program and prospective discounts). During the three months ended March 31, 2019, we recognized $52.1 of revenue related to the contract liability balance at January 1, 2019, as the result of performance obligations satisfied. In addition, we deferred an additional $26.1 related to certain material rights granted during the period, for which the performance obligations are not yet satisfied. Of the amount deferred during the period, substantially all will be recognized within a year, with the significant majority to be captured within a quarter. The remaining movement in the contract liability balance is attributable to foreign exchange differences arising on the translation of the balance as at March 31, 2019 as compared with December 31, 2018.

At January 1, 2018 and March 31, 2018 we had a contract liability of $91.8 and $75.5, respectively. During the three months ended March 31, 2018, we recognized $66.0 of revenue related to the contract liability balance at January 1, 2018, as the result of performance obligations satisfied. In addition, we deferred an additional $47.9 related to certain material rights granted during the quarter, for which the performance obligations are not yet satisfied. Of the amount deferred during the period, substantially all was recognized in 2018.

Contract costs

Incremental costs to obtain contracts, such as bonuses or commissions, are recognized as an asset if the entity expects to recover them. However, ASC 340-40, Other Assets and Deferred Costs, offers a practical expedient to recognize the incremental costs of obtaining a contract as an expense when incurred if the amortization period of the asset that the entity otherwise would have recognized is one year or less. We elected the practical expedient and expense costs to obtain contracts when incurred because our amortization period is one year or less.

Costs to fulfill contracts with Representatives are comprised of shipping and handling (including order processing) and payment processing services, which are expensed as incurred. The fees for these services are included in the transaction price.

Brazilian Tax Assessments

In December 2012, our Brazilian subsidiary, Avon Industrial LTDA (Avon Brazil Manufacturing) received an excise tax (IPI) assessment for the year 2008. The assessment totals approximately $300, including penalties and accrued interest. As in prior IPI cases that have been resolved in Avon's favor, this assessment asserts that the establishment in 1995 of separate manufacturing and distribution companies in Brazil was done without a valid business purpose and that Avon Brazil Manufacturing did not observe minimum pricing rules to define the taxable basis of excise tax. The structure adopted in 1995 is comparable to that used by many other companies in Brazil. We believe that our Brazilian corporate structure is appropriate, both operationally and legally, and that the 2012 IPI assessment is unfounded.

These matters are being vigorously contested. In July 2013, the 2012 IPI assessment was upheld at the first administrative level and we appealed this decision to the second administrative level. On April 18, 2018, Avon received official notification that the second administrative level has issued a partially favorable and partially unfavorable decision. In this decision, the original assessment was reduced by approximately $62 (including associated penalty and interest), subject to Federal Revenue appeal. The remaining $238 of the assessment was upheld at the second administrative level. On April 20, 2018, we appealed this decision in the third administrative level where the matter remains pending resolution.

On October 3, 2017, Avon Brazil Manufacturing received a new tax assessment notice regarding IPI for 2014 on grounds similar to the 2012 assessment. The 2017 IPI assessment totals approximately $232, including penalties and accrued interest. On April 2, 2018, Avon was notified of an unfavorable decision at the first administrative level. On February 25, 2019 this IPI assessment was upheld at the second administrative level and we are waiting for the formal decision.

In the event that the 2012 and the 2017 IPI assessments are upheld in the third and final administrative level, it may be necessary for us to provide monetary security to pursue further appeals in the judicial levels, which, depending on the circumstances, may result in a charge to earnings and an adverse effect on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. It is not possible to reasonably estimate the likelihood or potential amount of assessments that may be issued for subsequent periods (tax years up through 2010 are closed by statute). We believe that the 2012 and the 2017 IPI assessments are unfounded, however, based on the likelihood that these will be upheld, we assess the risks as disclosed above as reasonably possible. At March 31, 2019, we have not recognized a liability for the 2012 or 2017 IPI assessments.

Brazil IPI Tax on Cosmetics

Separate from the tax assessments received by Avon Brazil Manufacturing, Avon Cosméticos LTDA (Avon Brazil) is involved in litigation related to an executive decree issued in May 2015. This decree increased the amount of IPI taxes that are to be remitted by Avon Brazil to the taxing authority on the sales of cosmetic products. Avon Brazil filed an objection to this IPI tax increase on the basis that it is not constitutional. In December 2016, Avon Brazil received a favorable decision from the Federal District Court regarding this objection. This decision has been appealed by the tax authorities.

From May 2015 through April 2016, Avon Brazil remitted the taxes associated with this IPI tax increase into a judicial deposit which would be remitted to the taxing authorities in the event that we are not successful in our objection to the tax increase. In May 2016, Avon Brazil received a favorable preliminary decision on its objection to the tax and was granted a preliminary injunction. As a result, beginning in May 2016, Avon Brazil was no longer required to remit the taxes associated with IPI into a judicial deposit. On June 12, 2018, we received a decision authorizing Avon to withdraw the amount held as a judicial deposit, substituting it by letter of guarantee, which was presented. On June 29, 2018, the tax authorities presented an appeal against that decision. On July 30, 2018, the funds were received in our bank account. As of September 30, 2018, due in part to recent judicial decisions across the industry and other developments, we concluded, supported by the opinion of legal counsel, that the Executive Decree is unconstitutional. We therefore assessed the IPI tax under ASC 450, Contingencies and determined that the risk of loss is reasonably possible but not probable. Accordingly, we released the associated liability as of September 30, 2018 of approximately $195 and ceased accruing the IPI taxes from October 1, 2018. The liability had been classified within long-term sales taxes and taxes other than income in our Consolidated Balance Sheet, and the release was recorded in net sales and other (income) expense, net in the amounts of approximately $168 and approximately $27, respectively, in our Consolidated Income Statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2018.

An unfavorable ruling to our objection of this IPI tax increase would have an adverse effect on the Company's Consolidated Income Statements and Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows as Avon Brazil would have to remit the reasonably possible amount of $227 to the taxing authorities (including the judicial deposit that was returned to us on July 30, 2018). We are not able to reliably predict the timing of the outcome of our objection to this tax increase. A favorable judicial ruling to our objection of this IPI tax would also have an adverse effect on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows as Avon Brazil would have to remit all or a portion of the associated income tax liability to the taxing authorities. The Company is accruing a tax reserve, which amounts to approximately $73 at March 31, 2019. This reserve will be settled on final adjudication of the law through a combination of cash and use of deferred tax assets.

Talc-Related Litigation

The Company has been named a defendant in numerous personal injury lawsuits filed in U.S. courts, alleging that certain talc products the Company sold in the past were contaminated with asbestos. Many of these actions involve a number of co-defendants from a variety of different industries, including manufacturers of cosmetics and manufacturers of other products that, unlike the Company's products, were designed to contain asbestos. As of March 31, 2019, there were 118 individual cases pending against the Company. During the three months ended 31 March, 2019, 18 new cases were filed and 8 cases were dismissed, settled, or otherwise resolved. The value of our settlements in this area thus far has not been material, either individually or in the aggregate. Additional similar cases arising out of the use of the Company's talc products are reasonably anticipated.

We believe that the claims asserted against us in these cases are without merit. We are defending vigorously against these claims and will continue to do so. To date, none of the cases filed against the Company have proceeded to trial and there have been no findings of liability against the Company. However, nationwide trial results in similar cases filed against other manufacturers of cosmetic talc products have ranged from outright dismissals to very large jury awards of both compensatory and punitive damages. Given the inherent uncertainties of litigation, we cannot predict any overall trends in the outcome of the cases pending against the Company, and we are only able to make a reasonable estimate for a small number of individual cases that have advanced to the later stages of legal proceedings. Any accruals currently recorded on the Company's balance sheet with respect to these individual cases are not material. Other than these accruals, we are at this time unable to estimate our reasonably possible or probable losses. However, any adverse outcomes, either in an individual case or in the aggregate, could be material. Future costs to litigate these cases, which we expense as incurred, are not known but may be significant, though some costs will be covered by insurance.

Brazilian Labor-Related Litigation

On an ongoing basis, the Company is subject to numerous and diverse labor-related lawsuits filed by employees in Brazil. These cases are assessed on an aggregated and ongoing basis based on historical outcomes of similar cases. The claims made are often for significantly larger sums than have historically been paid out by the Company. Our practice continues to be to recognize a liability based on our assessment of historical payments in similar cases. Our best estimate of the probable loss for such current cases at March 31, 2019 is approximately $12 and, accordingly, we have recognized a liability for this amount.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Shareholder Litigation

On February 14, 2019, a purported shareholder's class action complaint (Bevinal v. Avon Products, Inc., et al., No. 19-cv-1420) was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company and certain former officers of the Company. The complaint is brought on behalf of a purported class consisting of all purchasers of Avon common stock between August 2, 2016 and August 2, 2017, inclusive. The complaint asserts violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") Act based on allegedly false or misleading statements and alleged market manipulation with respect to, among other things, changes made to Avon's credit terms for Representatives in Brazil. In light of the early stage of the litigation, we are unable to predict the outcome of this matter and are unable to assess the likelihood of loss or to make a reasonable estimate of the amount or range of loss that could result from an unfavorable outcome.

Other Matters

Various other lawsuits and claims, arising in the ordinary course of business or related to businesses previously sold, are pending or threatened against Avon. In management's opinion, based on its review of the information available at this time, the total cost of resolving such other contingencies at March 31, 2019, is not expected to have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

13. SEGMENT INFORMATION

We determine segment profit by deducting the related costs and expenses from segment revenue. Segment profit includes an allocation of global marketing and digital expenses based on actual revenues. Segment profit excludes global expenses other than the allocation of marketing and digital, costs to implement ("CTI") restructuring initiatives (see Note 15, Restructuring Initiatives), certain significant asset impairment charges, and other items, which are not allocated to a particular segment, if applicable. This is consistent with the manner in which we assess our performance and allocate resources.

15. RESTRUCTURING INITIATIVES

Transformation Plan and Open Up Avon

Open Up Avon

In September 2018, we initiated a new strategy in order to return Avon to growth ("Open Up Avon"). As one element of this plan, we are targeting annualized cost savings of approximately $400 by 2021, to be generated from efficiencies in manufacturing and sourcing, distribution, general and administrative activities, and back office functions, as well as through revenue management, interest and tax. These savings are expected to be achieved through restructuring actions (that may result in charges related to severance, contract terminations and inventory and other asset write-offs), as well as other cost-savings strategies that would not result in restructuring charges. In January 2019, we announced significant advancements in this strategy, including a structural reset of inventory processes and a reduction in global workforce. The structural reset resulted in an incremental one-off inventory obsolescence expense of $88 recognized at December 31, 2018. As a result of Open Up Avon restructuring actions approved to-date, we have recorded total costs to implement these restructuring initiatives of $188.3 before taxes, of which $45.1 was recorded during the three months ended March 31, 2019, in our Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Transformation Plan

In January 2016, we initiated a transformation plan (the "Transformation Plan"), in order to enable us to achieve our long-term goals of mid-single-digit constant-dollar ("Constant $") revenue growth and low double-digit operating margin. Under this plan, we had targeted pre-tax annualized cost savings of approximately $350 after three years, which we exceeded through restructuring actions, as well as other cost-savings strategies that did not result in restructuring charges.

As a result of these restructuring actions approved to-date, we have recorded total costs to implement these restructuring initiatives of $203.4 before taxes, of which a benefit of $2.0 was recorded during the three months ended March 31, 2019, in our Consolidated Statements of Operations. There are no further restructuring actions to be taken associated with our Transformation Plan, as beginning in the third quarter of 2018, all new restructuring actions approved operate under our new Open Up Avon plan described above.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Our financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, available-for-sale securities, short-term investments, accounts receivable, debt maturing within one year, accounts payable, long-term debt and foreign exchange forward contracts. The carrying value for cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and short-term investments approximate fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

The net asset (liability) amounts recorded in the balance sheet (carrying amount) and the estimated fair values of our remaining financial instruments at March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, respectively, consisted of the following:

	March 31, 2019		December 31, 2018
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Available-for-sale securities	$3.9	$ 3.9	$3.8	$ 3.8
Debt maturing within one year ⁽¹⁾	(425.4)	(433.4)	(12.0)	(12.0)
Long-term debt ⁽¹⁾	(1,196.1)	(1,207.1)	(1,581.1)	(1,460.2)
Foreign exchange forward contracts	15.2	15.2	(5.1)	(5.1)

(1) The carrying value of debt maturing within one year and long-term debt is presented net of debt issuance costs and includes any related discount or premium and unamortized deferred gains on terminated interest-rate swap agreements, as applicable.

The methods and assumptions used to estimate fair value are as follows:

• Available-for-sale securities - The fair values of these investments were the quoted market prices for issues listed on securities exchanges.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Debt maturing within one year and long-term debt - The fair values of our debt and other financing were determined using Level 2 inputs based on indicative market prices.

Foreign exchange forward contracts - The fair values of forward contracts were estimated based on quoted forward foreign exchange prices at the reporting date.

18. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES

We operate globally, with manufacturing and distribution facilities in various countries around the world. We may reduce our exposure to fluctuations in the fair value and cash flows associated with changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions, including through the use of derivative financial instruments.

If we use foreign currency-rate sensitive and interest-rate sensitive instruments to hedge a certain portion of our existing and forecasted transactions, we would expect that any gain or loss in value of the hedge instruments generally would be offset by decreases or increases in the value of the underlying forecasted transactions.

We do not enter into derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes, nor are we a party to leveraged derivatives. The master agreements governing our derivative contracts generally contain standard provisions that could trigger early termination of the contracts in certain circumstances, including if we were to merge with another entity and the creditworthiness of the surviving entity were to be "materially weaker" than that of Avon prior to the merger.

Derivatives are recognized in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at their fair values. The following table presents the fair value of derivative instruments at March 31, 2019:

	Asset		Liability
	Balance Sheet	Fair	Balance Sheet	Fair
	Classification	Value	Classification	Value
Derivatives designated as hedges:
Foreign exchange forward contracts	Prepaid expenses and other	$—	Accounts payable	$1.6
Derivatives not designated as hedges:
Foreign exchange forward contracts	Prepaid expenses and other	$17.1	Accounts payable	$.3
Total derivatives		$17.1		$1.9

The fair value of derivative instruments outstanding was immaterial at December 31, 2018.

Interest Rate Risk

A portion of our borrowings is subject to interest rate risk. In the past we have used interest-rate swap agreements, which effectively converted the fixed rate on long-term debt to a floating interest rate, to manage our interest rate exposure. The agreements were designated as fair value hedges. As of March 31, 2019, we do not have any interest-rate swap agreements. Approximately 26% and 1% of our debt portfolio, at March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, respectively, was exposed to floating interest rates. For the purpose of this calculation, we consider all short-term debt to be exposed to floating interest rates.

In March 2012, we terminated two of our interest-rate swap agreements previously designated as fair value hedges, with notional amounts totaling $350. As of the interest-rate swap agreements' termination date, the aggregate favorable adjustment to the carrying value (deferred gain) of our debt was $46.1, which was amortized as a reduction of interest expense until repayment of the underlying debt obligations in June 2018, at which point the remaining unamortized balance was fully released to the Consolidated Statement of Operations. The net impact of the gain amortization was zero for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and $1.3 for the three months ended March 31, 2018. At March 31, 2019, there was no unamortized deferred gain associated with the March 2012 interest-rate swap termination as the underlying debt obligations have been paid.

Foreign Currency Risk

We may use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage a portion of our foreign currency exchange rate exposures. At March 31, 2019, we had outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts with notional amounts totaling approximately $1,236.2 for various currencies, of which $26.8 were designated as cash flow hedges.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

We may use foreign exchange forward contracts to manage foreign currency exposure of certain intercompany loans. The change in fair value of these contracts is immediately recognized in earnings and substantially offsets the foreign currency impact recognized in earnings relating to the associated intercompany loans. During the three months ended March 31, 2019, we recorded a gain of $25.0 in other expense in our Consolidated Statements of Operations related to these undesignated foreign exchange forward contracts. During the three months ended March 31, 2018, we recorded a gain of $.9 in other expense, net in our Consolidated Statements of Operations related to other undesignated foreign exchange forward contracts.

During the first quarter of 2019, we discontinued our program to hedge foreign exchange risk relating to forecasted operational transactions. The last of our designated cash flow hedges will expire during the first quarter of 2020. Our designated hedges did not have a material impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements for the three months ended March 31, 2019.

Revolving Credit Facility

In June 2015, Avon International Operations, Inc. ("AIO"), a wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of the Company, entered into a five-year $400.0 senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2015 facility").

In February 2019, Avon International Capital, p.l.c. ("AIC"), a wholly-owned foreign subsidiary of the Company, entered into a three-year €200 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2019 facility"). As of March 31, 2019 this amounted to $225. The 2019 facility replaced the 2015 facility and the 2015 facility was terminated at such time. There were no amounts drawn under the 2015 revolving credit facility on the date of termination and no early termination penalties were incurred. In the first quarter of 2019, $2 was recorded for the write-off of unamortized issuance costs related to the 2015 revolving credit facility. As of March 31, 2019, there were no amounts outstanding under the 2019 facility. The 2019 facility will terminate in February 2022; provided, however, that it shall terminate on the 91st day prior to the maturity of the 4.60% Notes (as defined below), if on such 91st day, the applicable notes are not redeemed, repaid, discharged, defeased or otherwise refinanced in full. In the first quarter of 2019, the Company capitalized $10 of issue costs relating to the new revolving credit facility; this resulted in a cash outflow presented in other financing activities within the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.

As of March 31, 2019, we were in compliance with our interest coverage and total leverage ratios under the 2019 facility, as amended. The amount of the facility available to be drawn down on is reduced by any standby letters of credit granted by an obligor, which, as of March 31, 2019, was approximately $28. As of March 31, 2019, based on then applicable interest rates, the entire amount of the remaining 2019 facility, which is approximately €175 million, could have been drawn down without violating any covenant.

Public Notes

In March 2013, we issued, in a public offering, $500.0 principal amount of 4.60% Notes due March 15, 2020 (the "4.60% Notes"), $500.0 principal amount of 5.00% Notes due March 15, 2023 (the "5.00% Notes") and $250.0 principal amount of 6.95% Notes due March 15, 2043 (the "6.95% Notes") (collectively, the "2013 Notes"). Interest on the 2013 Notes is payable semi-annually on March 15 and September 15 of each year.

The indenture governing the 2013 Notes contains interest rate adjustment provisions depending on the long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes by S&P and Moody's. As described in the indenture, the interest rates on the 2013 Notes increase by .25% for each one-notch downgrade below investment grade on each of our long-term credit ratings assigned to the 2013 Notes by S&P or Moody's. These adjustments are limited to a total increase of 2% above the respective interest rates in effect on the date of issuance of the 2013 Notes. As a result of the long-term credit rating downgrades by S&P and Moody's since issuance of the 2013 Notes, the interest rates on these notes have increased by the maximum allowable increase.

The remaining balance of $386.9 of the 4.60% Notes is due in March 2020. Based upon the Company's cash on hand and restricted cash of $431.0 as of March 31, 2019 and its 2019 forecasted cash flow, the Company believes that it will maintain sufficient liquidity to meet this obligation. In addition, the Company has access to the unused portion of its revolving credit facility of €175 million.

Senior Secured Notes

In August 2016, AIO issued, in a private placement exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, $500.0 in aggregate principal amount of 7.875% Senior Secured Notes, which will mature on August 15, 2022 (the "Senior Secured Notes"). Interest on the Senior Secured Notes is payable semi-annually on February 15 and August 15 of each year.

20. INCOME TAXES

Our quarterly income tax provision is calculated using an estimated annual effective income tax approach. The quarterly effective tax rate can differ from our estimated annual effective tax rate as the Company cannot apply an effective tax rate approach for all of its operations. For those entities that can apply an effective tax rate approach, as of March 31, 2019, our annual effective tax rate, excluding discrete items, is 24.3% for 2019, as compared to 26.5% as of March 31, 2018. The remaining entities, which are operations that generate pre-tax losses which cannot be tax benefited and/or have an effective tax rate which cannot be reliably estimated, have to account for their income taxes on a discrete year-to-date basis as of the end of each quarter and are excluded from the effective tax rate approach. The estimated annual effective tax rate for 2019 also excludes the unfavorable impact of withholding taxes associated with certain intercompany payments, including royalties, service charges, interest and dividends, which in the aggregate are relatively consistent each year due to the need to repatriate funds to cover U.S. and U.K.-based costs, such as interest on debt and corporate overhead. Withholding taxes are accounted for discretely and accrued in the provision for income taxes as they become due.

The provision for income taxes for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018 was $19.5 and $31.5, respectively. Our effective tax rates for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018 were (433.3)% and 302.9%, respectively. The effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2019 was also favorably impacted by the accrual of income tax benefits of approximately $3.5 associated with the release of income tax reserves of approximately $3.7 associated with our uncertain tax positions net of other miscellaneous income tax expenses of approximately $0.2. The effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2018 was also unfavorably impacted by one-time income tax reserves of $9.2 associated with our uncertain tax positions net of other miscellaneous income tax benefits of approximately $1.2.

In its final analysis of the impacts of the Tax Cuts and Job Act (the "Act") during the fourth quarter of 2018, the Company elected to treat income taxes associated with Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income ("GILTI"), as a period cost. As a result, the first-quarter 2019 provision for income taxes reflects this treatment. The first-quarter 2018 provision for income taxes has also been calculated treating GILTI as a period cost. For both periods, GILTI did not have a material effect. The Act has significant complexity. The Company has considered the published guidance provided by the various Federal and state regulatory authorities into the calculation of its income tax provisions available as of March 31, 2019 and March 31, 2018 for the respective quarters ended March 31, 2019 and March 31, 2018.

In prior years, we had previously recorded valuation allowances against certain deferred tax assets associated with the U.S. and foreign jurisdictions. We intend to continue maintaining these valuation allowances on our deferred tax assets until there is sufficient evidence to support the reversal of all or some portion of these allowances. Release of the valuation allowance would result in the recognition of certain deferred tax assets and a decrease to income tax expense for the period the release is recorded. However, the exact timing and amount of the valuation allowance release are subject to change on the basis of the level of profitability that we are able to actually achieve.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

When used in this report, the terms "Avon," "Company," "we," "our" or "us" mean, unless the context otherwise indicates, Avon Products, Inc. and its majority, wholly owned and controlled subsidiaries.

OVERVIEW

We are a global manufacturer and marketer of beauty and related products. Our business is conducted primarily in the direct-selling channel. During 2018, we had sales operations in 56 countries and territories, and distributed products in 21 more. All of our consolidated revenue is derived from operations of subsidiaries outside of the United States ("U.S."). Our reportable segments are based on geographic operations in four regions: Europe, Middle East & Africa; South Latin America; North Latin America; and Asia Pacific. Our product categories are Beauty and Fashion & Home. Beauty consists of skincare, fragrance and color (cosmetics). Fashion & Home consists of fashion jewelry, watches, apparel, footwear, accessories, gift and decorative products, housewares, entertainment and leisure products, children's products and nutritional products. Sales are made to the ultimate consumer principally through direct selling by Representatives, who are independent contractors and not our employees.

During the three months ended March 31, 2019, revenue decreased 15% compared to the prior-year period, favorably impacted by foreign exchange. Constant $ revenue decreased 4%.

Revenue and Constant $ revenue decline was primarily driven by Russia, which continued to be impacted by lower consumption in the market as well as a decrease in Representative recruitment incentives and weaker sales leader engagement. Constant $ revenue decline was partially offset by revenue improvements in Asia Pacific, North Latin America and South Latin America, particularly in Argentina.

Revenue and Constant $ revenue were impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives of 9%, which was driven primarily in Brazil and Russia due to lower consumption in both markets, as well as strategic initiatives to focus on Representative productivity over recruitment. The decrease in Active Representatives was partially offset by higher average order. Average order decreased 6% and Constant $ average order increased 5%, driven by effective pricing and the focus on Representative productivity via Representative segmentation and training, as well as offering product bundles to support average order growth across the markets. Average order in Constant $ was also favorably impacted by the Brazil IPI tax accrual in the prior-year period. Units sold decreased 12%, driven by declines in Brazil and Russia.

Ending Representatives decreased by 10%. The decrease in Ending Representatives at March 31, 2019 as compared to the prior-year period was driven by Europe, Middle East and Africa, primarily in Russia, and Brazil.

See "Segment Review" in this management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations ("MD&A") for additional information related to changes in revenue by segment.

Open Up Avon

In September 2018, we initiated a new strategy in order to return Avon to growth ("Open Up Avon"). The Open Up Avon strategy is integral to our ability to return Avon to growth, built around the necessity of incorporating new approaches to various elements of our business, including increased utilization of third-party providers in manufacturing and technology, a more fit for purpose asset base, and a focus on enabling our Representatives to more easily interact with the company and achieve relevant earnings. The commercial elements of the strategy were developed to help increase Representative earnings and thereby retention. Elements of the Representative facing strategy include improvements in service functions, increased training on utilization of digital tools to expand her consumer reach, product bundling and regimens designed to help improve her earnings opportunity and sharper more targeted product innovation to drive brand relevancy. Cost savings under this plan are targeted as annualized cost savings of approximately $400 by 2021, and expected to be generated from efficiencies in manufacturing and sourcing, distribution, general and administrative activities, and back office functions, as well as through revenue management, interest and tax. These savings are expected to be achieved through restructuring actions (that may result in charges related to severance, contract terminations and inventory and other asset write-offs), as well as other cost-savings strategies that would not result in restructuring charges. In January 2019, we announced significant advancements in this strategy, including a structural reset of inventory processes and a reduction in global workforce. The structural reset of inventory will result in lower operational and ongoing obsolescence costs. Over the longer term, it will result in a more concentrated focus on high-turn, higher margin products, driving greater earnings for Representatives due to lessened discount pressure and enhanced service levels. The structural reset resulted in an incremental one-off inventory obsolescence expense of $88 recognized at December 31, 2018. In addition, the global workforce will be reduced in 2019 by approximately 10% to align with ongoing operating model changes and to create a leaner organization that is better aligned with Avon's current and future business focus. This reduction is incremental to an 8% reduction of the global workforce that was completed in 2018. We expect to incur a restructuring charge of approximately $100 in 2019 relating to the global workforce reduction, which was approved by the Board of Directors in January 2019. We initiated the Open Up Avon strategy to enable us to achieve our goals of low-single-digit Constant $ revenue growth and low double-digit operating margin by 2021. We plan to reinvest a portion of these cost savings in commercial initiatives, including training for Representatives, and digital and information technology infrastructure initiatives.

During 2018, we estimate that we achieved total cost savings of $40 attributable to Open Up Avon, primarily related to tax and interest, when compared to our costs in 2017. In addition, during the first quarter of 2019, we estimate that we achieved cost savings of $22. These savings included both run-rate savings from Open Up Avon actions in 2018, along with in-year savings from current year initiatives.

In connection with the actions and associated savings discussed above, we have incurred costs to implement ("CTI") restructuring initiatives of approximately $188 before taxes to-date associated with Open Up Avon, which includes $88 relating to the structural reset of inventory. The costs of approximately $188 before taxes incurred to-date associated with Open Up Avon includes $150 of employee-related costs, inventory and asset write-offs, foreign currency translation write-offs and contract terminations, and $38 related to professional service fees, dual running costs, accelerated depreciation and gain on sale of business. Of these costs, $45 was recorded during the first quarter of 2019. The additional charges not yet incurred associated with the restructuring actions approved as at March 31, 2019 of $20 to $25 before taxes are expected to be recorded primarily in 2019. At March 31, 2019, we have liabilities of approximately $73 associated with our restructuring actions, primarily associated with Open Up Avon. The majority of future cash payments associated with these restructuring liabilities are expected to be made during 2019. For additional details on restructuring initiatives, see Note 15, Restructuring Initiatives, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein.

Transformation Plan

In January 2016, we initiated a transformation plan (the "Transformation Plan"), in order to enable us to achieve our long-term goals of mid-single-digit constant-dollar ("Constant $") revenue growth and low double-digit operating margin. There are no further restructuring actions to be taken associated with our Transformation Plan, as beginning in the third quarter of 2018, all new restructuring actions approved operate under our new Open Up Avon plan described above.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Information relating to new accounting standards is included in Note 1, Accounting Policies, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS—THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2019 AS COMPARED TO THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2018

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement our financial results presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"), we disclose operating results that have been adjusted to exclude the impact of changes due to the translation of foreign currencies into U.S. dollars, including changes in: revenue, operating profit, Adjusted operating profit, operating margin and Adjusted operating margin. We also refer to these adjusted financial measures as Constant $ items, which are Non-GAAP financial measures. We believe these measures provide investors an additional perspective on trends and underlying business results. To exclude the impact of changes due to the translation of foreign currencies into U.S. dollars, we calculate current-year results and prior-year results at constant exchange rates, which are updated on an annual basis as part of our budgeting process. Foreign currency impact is determined as the difference between actual growth rates and Constant $ growth rates.

AVON PRODUCTS, INC.

We also present gross margin, SG&A as a percentage of revenue, operating profit, operating margin, income (loss) before taxes, income taxes and effective tax rate on a Non-GAAP basis. We refer to these Non-GAAP financial measures as "Adjusted." We also present free cash flow as an additional financial measure for liquidity. We have provided a quantitative reconciliation of the difference between the Non-GAAP financial measures and the financial measures calculated and reported in accordance with GAAP. See "Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures" within "Results of Operations" in this MD&A for this quantitative reconciliation.

The Company uses the Non-GAAP financial measures to evaluate its operating performance. These Non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation, or as a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. The Company believes investors find the Non-GAAP information helpful in understanding the ongoing performance of operations separate from items that may have a disproportionate positive or negative impact on the Company's financial results in any particular period. The Company believes that it is meaningful for investors to be made aware of the impacts of 1) CTI restructuring initiatives; 2) transaction fees and 3) one-time tax items that are not associated with recurring, normal operations ("Special tax items").

(1) CTI restructuring initiatives includes the impact on the Consolidated Statements of Operations for all periods presented of net charges incurred on approved restructuring initiatives.

(2) Transaction fees of $4.

(3) The Special tax items includes the impact on the provision for income taxes in the Consolidated Statements of Operations during the first quarter of 2018 due to one-time tax reserves of approximately $9 associated with our uncertain tax positions.

See Note 15, Restructuring Initiatives and Note 20, Income Taxes, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein and "Effective Tax Rate" in this MD&A for more information on these items.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2019*Revenue*

During the three months ended March 31, 2019, revenue decreased 15% compared to the prior-year period, favorably impacted by foreign exchange. Constant $ revenue decreased 4%.

Revenue and Constant $ revenue decline was primarily driven by Russia, which continued to be impacted by lower consumption in the market as well as a decrease in Representative recruitment incentives and weaker sales leader engagement. Constant $ revenue decline was partially offset by revenue improvements in Asia Pacific, North Latin America and South Latin America, particularly in Argentina.

Revenue and Constant $ revenue were impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives of 9%, which was driven primarily in Brazil and Russia due to lower consumption in both markets, as well as strategic initiatives to focus on Representative productivity over recruitment. The decrease in Active Representatives was partially offset by higher average order. Average order decreased 6% and Constant $ average order increased 5%, driven by effective pricing and the focus on Representative productivity via Representative segmentation and training, as well as offering product bundles to support average order growth across the markets. Average order in Constant $ was also favorably impacted by the Brazil IPI tax accrual in the prior-year period. Units sold decreased 12%, driven by declines in Brazil and Russia.

Ending Representatives decreased by 10%. The decrease in Ending Representatives at March 31, 2019 as compared to the prior-year period was driven by Europe, Middle East and Africa, primarily in Russia, and Brazil.

Operating Margin

Operating margin decreased 350 basis points, and Adjusted operating margin increased 50 basis points, compared to the same period of 2018, as the savings in SG&A more than offset the unfavorable impact of foreign currency on gross margin. The changes in operating margin and Adjusted operating margin include the benefits associated with CTI restructuring initiatives, primarily reductions in headcount, as well as other cost reductions, partially offset by the inflationary impact on costs. The increases in operating margin and Adjusted operating margin are discussed further below in "Gross Margin" and "Selling, General and Administrative Expenses."

Gross Margin

Gross margin decreased 200 basis points, and Adjusted gross margin decreased 160 basis points, compared to the same period of 2018.

Gross margin and Adjusted gross margin were primarily impacted by the following:

a decrease of 220 basis points due to the net unfavorable impact of foreign currency transaction losses and foreign currency translation largely due to currency devaluations in Brazil, Argentina and Turkey, partially offset by an increase of 150 basis points due to the favorable net impact of mix and pricing. Mix and pricing improvements were driven by inflationary pricing, lower promotional discounts, more effective incentives and more favorable product mix in most markets; and a decrease of 90 basis points from the higher cost of incentives.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses ("SG&A")

SG&A as a percentage of revenue increased 160 basis points, significantly impacted by higher CTI restructuring, and Adjusted SG&A as a percentage of revenue decreased 200 basis points, compared to the same period of 2018.

Savings in SG&A were recorded across most segments as well as in unallocated global expenses, mostly from lower fixed expenses (benefit of 130 basis points), lower advertising expenses (benefit of 60 basis points) and better bad debt management (benefit of 50 basis points). Lower fixed expenses were driven by lower headcount and employee benefit costs, mostly recorded in unallocated global expenses. We optimized our advertising portfolio by concentrating investments in selected channels and focusing on digital advertising, primarily in Europe, Middle East and Africa, particularly in Russia, and in South Latin America, particularly in Brazil. We have further reduced our bad debt expense, primarily in Brazil, from continued focus on credit control and collections processes.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(U.S. dollars in millions, except per share data)

Other Expenses

Interest expense decreased by approximately $3 and interest income decreased by approximately $2 compared to the prior-year period.

Loss on extinguishment of debt and credit facilities of approximately $2 comprised the write-off of debt issuance costs related to the 2015 revolving credit facility, which was terminated and replaced with a new revolving credit facility in February 2019. Refer to Note 19, Debt, for more information relating to the termination of the 2015 revolving credit facility.

Other income, net, of $23 increased by approximately $26 compared to other expense, net of $3 in the prior-year period. The approximate $26 benefit was primarily attributable to favorable impact of higher foreign exchange net gains.

Gain on sale of business was the result of the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd. to TheFaceShop Co., Ltd, which closed in February 2019. Refer to Note 3, Discontinued Operations, Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale and Divestitures, for more information relating to the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd.

Effective Tax Rate

The effective tax rates and the Adjusted effective tax rates in 2019 and 2018 continue to be impacted by our inability to recognize additional deferred tax assets in various jurisdictions related to our current-year operating results. In addition, the effective tax rates and the Adjusted effective tax rates in 2019 and 2018 continue to be impacted by withholding taxes associated with certain intercompany payments, including royalties, service charges, interest and dividends, which in the aggregate are relatively consistent each year due to the need to repatriate funds to cover U.S. and U.K.-based costs, such as interest on debt and corporate overhead. These factors resulted in unusually high effective tax rates and Adjusted effective tax rates in 2019 and 2018.

Our effective tax rates for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018 were (433.3)% and 302.9%, respectively. The effective tax rates in 2019 and 2018 were impacted by CTI restructuring charges, country mix of earnings and withholding taxes. The effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2019 was also favorably impacted by the accrual of income tax benefits of approximately $3.5 associated with the release of income tax reserves of approximately $3.7 associated with our uncertain tax positions net of other miscellaneous income tax expenses of approximately $.2. The effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2018 was also unfavorably impacted by one-time income tax reserves of $9.2 associated with our uncertain tax positions net of other miscellaneous income tax benefits of approximately $1.2. Our Adjusted effective tax rates for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018 were 54.2% and 114.6%, respectively. The Adjusted effective tax rates in 2019 and 2018 were impacted by country mix of earnings and withholding taxes. The Adjusted effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2019 was also favorably impacted by the accrual of income tax benefits of approximately $3.5 associated with the release of income tax reserves of approximately $3.7 associated with our uncertain tax positions net of other miscellaneous income tax expenses of approximately $.2. The Adjusted effective tax rate in the first quarter of 2018 was also favorably impacted by other miscellaneous income tax benefits of approximately $1.2.

As of March 31, 2019, we believe that there is a reasonable possibility that within the next 12 months, sufficient positive evidence may become available to allow us to reach a conclusion that a portion of the valuation allowance will no longer be needed.

See Note 20, Income Taxes, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein for more information on the effective tax rate, and Note 15, Restructuring Initiatives, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein for more information on CTI restructuring.

Impact of Foreign Currency

As compared to the prior-year period, foreign currency has impacted our consolidated financial results in the form of:

foreign currency transaction losses (classified within cost of sales, and SG&A in our Consolidated Statements of Operations), which had an unfavorable impact to operating profit and Adjusted operating profit of approximately $25, or approximately 170 basis points to operating margin and Adjusted operating margin;

foreign currency translation, which had an immaterial and unfavorable impact of approximately $15 to operating profit and Adjusted operating profit, respectively, or a favorable impact of approximately 20 basis points and an unfavorable impact of approximately 40 basis points, respectively, to operating margin and Adjusted operating margin; and higher foreign exchange net gains on our working capital (classified within other expense, net in our Consolidated Statements of Operations) as compared to the prior year, resulting in a favorable impact of approximately $20 before tax on both a reported and Adjusted basis.

Segment Review

We determine segment profit by deducting the related costs and expenses from segment revenue. Segment profit includes an allocation of global marketing and digital expenses based on actual revenues. Segment profit excludes global expenses other than the allocation of marketing and digital, CTI restructuring initiatives, certain significant asset impairment charges, and other items, which are not allocated to a particular segment, if applicable. This is consistent with the manner in which we assess our performance and allocate resources. See Note 13, Segment Information, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein for a reconciliation of segment profit to operating profit.

Total revenue decreased 19% compared to the prior-year period, impacted by the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange which was driven by the strengthening of the U.S. dollar relative to multiple currencies, primarily the Russian ruble, Turkish lira and the South African rand. On a Constant $ basis, revenue decreased 9%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue were negatively impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives, partially offset by higher average order. The decline in both Active Representatives and Ending Representatives was primarily driven by a decline in Russia.

In Russia, revenue decreased 31%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Russia's revenue decreased 19%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue in Russia were negatively impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives. Revenue and Constant $ revenue in Russia continued to be impacted by lower consumption in the market, a decrease in Representative recruitment incentives and weaker sales leader engagement.

In the UK, revenue decreased 16%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, the UK's revenue decreased 11%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue in the UK were negatively impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives, driven by the continuation of underlying field issues, partially offset by higher average order. Segment margin decreased 20 basis points, or increased 20 basis points on a Constant $ basis, as the decline of 100 basis points in gross margin was more than offset by a net benefit of 120 basis points from better SG&A control. The gross margin decline of 100 basis was primarily caused by the favorable net impact of mix and pricing not fully offsetting the unfavorable impact of foreign currency net losses (130 basis points benefit compared to a 150 basis points unfavorable impact) and a higher cost of incentives (40 basis points). Savings in SG&A were mainly from lower advertising expense (benefit of 100 basis points), primarily in Russia, following return on investment assessment and higher focus on digital advertising, and reduction of bad debt expense (benefit of 70 basis points) primarily in South Africa, as the year-over-year bad debt expense comparison benefited from stricter credit requirements for the acceptance of new Representatives as compared to the requirements in the prior year. These SG&A savings were partially offset by higher variable distribution cost in most markets (unfavorable impact of 60 basis points), primarily relating to increased flexibility in order processing in the UK, and labor cost increases in Russia.

Total revenue decreased 17% compared to the prior-year period. The unfavorable impact of foreign exchange, which was primarily driven by the strengthening of the U.S. dollar relative to the Brazilian real and the Argentinian peso, offset the increase in total revenue. On a Constant $ basis, revenue increased 1%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, driven by Brazil and Argentina, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. The decline in both Active Representatives and Ending Representatives was primarily driven by a decline in Brazil.

Revenue in Brazil decreased 17%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange, while Brazil's Constant $ revenue decreased 2%. On a Constant $ basis, Brazil's sales from Beauty products declined 3%, while sales from Fashion & Home products increased 4%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue in Brazil were negatively impacted by a decrease in Active Representatives, which continued to be negatively impacted by competitive pressures against a backdrop of a challenging macroeconomic environment and lower consumption in the market, as well as lower appointments due to the application of strict credit requirements for the acceptance of new Representatives. The decrease in Active Representatives was partially offset by higher average order, which was favorably impacted by the Brazil IPI tax accrual in the prior-year period. For additional details on the IPI tax on cosmetics increase in Brazil, see Note 11, Contingencies, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein.

Revenue in Argentina declined 27%, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Argentina's revenue grew 45%. North Latin America consists largely of our Mexico business. Total revenue for the segment declined 1% compared to the prior-year period, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange, which was primarily driven by the strengthening of the U.S. dollar relative to the Mexican peso. On a Constant $ basis, revenue increased 1%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives. The decline in Ending Representatives was primarily driven by a decline in Mexico.

Revenue in Mexico was relatively unchanged compared to the prior year period, unfavorably impacted by foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, Mexico's revenue increased 2%. Constant $ revenue growth in Mexico was primarily due to higher average order, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives, both driven by strategic initiatives to focus on Representative productivity via Representative segmentation and training, as well as offering product bundles to support average order growth.

Segment margin decreased 200 basis points on both a reported and Constant $ basis, due to a decline of 130 basis points in gross margin coupled with a decline of 70 basis points from higher SG&A expense. The gross margin decline of 130 basis was primarily caused by the unfavorable impact of foreign currency net losses (unfavorable impact of 230 basis points), partially offset by the favorable contribution of brochures sold (benefit of 70 basis points). Higher SG&A expense was driven by higher bad debt expense (unfavorable impact of 150 basis points), primarily in Mexico. Higher SG&A expense was partially offset by savings from lower box packing variable distribution cost driven by higher Representative productivity (benefit of 30 basis points) and lower representative and sales leader investments linked to the decrease in Active Representatives and investment efficiencies (benefit of 20 basis points).

Three Months Ended March 31, 2019

Total revenue increased 3% compared to the prior-year period, due to the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, revenue increased 7%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue benefited from higher average order, partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives, most significantly in the Philippines and Malaysia. The decline in Ending Representatives was primarily driven by a decline in Malaysia. Revenue and Constant $ revenue growth was primarily driven by Philippines.

Revenue in the Philippines increased 10%, including the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange. On a Constant $ basis, revenue in the Philippines increased 12%. Revenue and Constant $ revenue in the Philippines benefited from higher average order, which was primarily due to effective pricing, as well as the impact of inventory system implementation issues in the prior-year period. Higher average order was partially offset by a decrease in Active Representatives, impacted by a change in campaign cycle, which negatively impacted the year-on-year performance metric comparison.

Segment margin increased 520 basis points, or 500 basis points on a Constant $ basis, due to both gross margin increase of 100 basis points and lower SG&A expense of 400 basis points. The gross margin benefit of 100 basis was primarily due to effective pricing increases in all markets. Savings in SG&A were mainly from lower fixed expenses on a higher revenue base (benefit of 220 basis points) and lower sales leader and field investments (benefit of 120 basis points). SG&A also included a one-off benefit following the closure of a 2014 tax audit.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our principal sources of funds historically have been cash flows from operations, public offerings of notes, bank financings, issuance of commercial paper, borrowings under lines of credit and a private placement of notes. The Company has a $387 debt maturity obligation due March 2020. Based upon the Company's cash on hand and restricted cash of $431 as of March 31, 2019 and its 2019 forecasted cash flow, the Company believes that it will maintain sufficient liquidity to meet this obligation. In addition, the Company has access to the unused portion of its revolving credit facility of €175.

We may seek to repurchase our equity or to retire our outstanding debt in open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, through derivative instruments, cash tender offers or otherwise. Repurchases of equity and debt may be funded by cash, the incurrence of additional debt or the issuance of equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities and will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors, and the amounts involved may be material. We may also elect to incur additional debt or issue equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities to finance ongoing operations or to meet our other liquidity needs. Any issuances of equity (including shares of preferred stock) or convertible securities could have a dilutive effect on the ownership interest of our current shareholders and may adversely impact earnings per share in future periods. Our credit ratings were downgraded during the past several years, which may impact our ability to access such transactions on favorable terms, if at all. For more information, see "Risk Factors - Our credit ratings were downgraded during the past several years, which could limit our access to financing, affect the market price of our financing and increase financing costs. A further downgrade in our credit ratings may adversely affect our access to liquidity," "Risk Factors - Our indebtedness and any future inability to meet any of our obligations under our indebtedness, could adversely affect us by reducing our flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions," and "Risk Factors - A general economic downturn, a recession globally or in one or more of our geographic regions or markets or sudden disruption in business conditions or other challenges may adversely affect our business, our access to liquidity and capital, and our credit ratings" contained in our 2018 Form 10-K.

Our liquidity could also be negatively impacted by restructuring initiatives, dividends, capital expenditures, acquisitions, and certain contingencies, including any legal or regulatory settlements, described more fully in Note 11, Contingencies, to the Consolidated Financial Statements included herein. See our Cautionary Statement for purposes of the "Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contained in this report.

Cash Flows

Net Cash (Used) Provided by Continuing Operating Activities

Net cash used by continuing operating activities during the first three months of 2019 was approximately $143 as compared to approximately $96 during the first three months of 2018, a decrease of approximately $47. The year-over-year comparison of net cash used by continuing operating activities was unfavorably impacted by an increase in working capital, most significantly from lower accounts payable and accrued liabilities due to the timing of payments, including payments related to CTI restructuring, partially offset by a reduction in inventory associated with our Open Up Avon strategy. The timing of payments was also impacted by a backlog of payables during the fourth quarter of 2018 due to a vendor processing transition.

Net Cash Provided (Used) by Continuing Investing Activities

Net cash provided by continuing investing activities during the first three months of 2019 was approximately $26, as compared to net cash used by continuing investing activities of approximately $27 during the first three months of 2018. The approximate $53 increase to net cash used by continuing investing activities was primarily due to net proceeds from the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd, which closed during the first quarter of 2019. Refer to Note 3, Discontinued Operations, Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale and Divestitures, for more information relating to the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd.

Free Cash Flow (Used) by Continuing Operations

We also present free cash flow as an additional financial measure for liquidity, which we believe provides an additional perspective on trends and underlying business results. Free cash flow is the sum of Net Cash (Used) Provided by Continuing Operating Activities and Net Cash Provided (Used) by Continuing Investing Activities, and was a net outflow of $117 and $123, respectively, during the first three months of 2019 and 2018.

Net Cash Provided by Continuing Financing Activities

Net cash provided by continuing financing activities during the first three months of 2019 was approximately $18, as compared to less than a million during the first three months of 2018. The approximate $18 favorable impact to net cash provided by continuing financing activities was primarily due to the portion of the gross proceeds from the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd that related to intercompany loans totaling $24 between Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd. and other Avon subsidiaries. These loans became third party loans upon the sale of Avon Manufacturing (Guangzhou), Ltd. to TheFaceShop Co., Ltd. The loans were subsequently settled in April 2019. This was partially offset by approximately $10 issue costs relating to the new revolving credit facility entered into in February 2019. Refer to Note 19, Debt, for more information relating to the new revolving credit facility.

Capital Resources

Revolving Credit Facility

In June 2015, Avon International Operations, Inc. ("AIO"), a wholly-owned domestic subsidiary of the Company, entered into a five-year $400.0 senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2015 facility").

In February 2019, Avon International Capital, p.l.c. ("AIC"), a wholly-owned foreign subsidiary of the Company, entered into a three-year €200.0 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the "2019 facility"). The 2019 facility replaced the 2015 facility and the 2015 facility was terminated at such time. The 2019 facility will terminate in February 2022; provided, however, that it shall terminate on the 91st day prior to the maturity of the 4.60% Notes⁽¹⁾, if on such 91st day, the applicable notes are not redeemed, repaid, discharged, defeased or otherwise refinanced in full.

As of March 31, 2019, we were in compliance with our interest coverage and total leverage ratios under the 2019 facility, as amended. The amount of the facility available to be drawn down on is reduced by any standby letters of credit granted by an obligor, which, as of March 31, 2019, was approximately $28. As of March 31, 2019, based on then applicable interest rates, the entire amount of the remaining 2019 facility, which is approximately €175 million, could have been drawn down without violating any covenant. Depending on our business results (including the impact of any adverse foreign exchange movements and significant restructuring charges), it is possible that we may be non-compliant with our interest coverage or total leverage ratio absent the Company undertaking other alternatives to avoid noncompliance, such as obtaining additional amendments to the 2019 facility or repurchasing certain debt. If we were to be non-compliant with our interest coverage or total leverage ratio, we would no longer have access to our 2019 facility and our credit ratings may be downgraded. As of March 31, 2019, there were no amounts outstanding under the 2019 facility.

(1)In March 2013, we issued, in a public offering $500.0 principal amount of 4.60% Notes due March 15, 2020, referred above as the "4.60% Notes"

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES

Interest Rate Risk

In the past we have used interest-rate swaps to manage our interest rate exposure. The interest-rate swaps were used to either convert our fixed rate borrowing to a variable interest rate or to unwind an existing variable interest-rate swap on a fixed rate borrowing. As of March 31, 2019, we do not have any interest-rate swap agreements. Approximately 26% and 1% of our debt portfolio at March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, respectively, was exposed to floating interest rates. For the purpose of this calculation, we consider all short-term debt to be exposed to floating interest rates.

Foreign Currency Risk

We conduct business globally, with operations in various locations around the world. Over the past three years, all of our consolidated revenue was derived from operations of subsidiaries outside of the U.S. The functional currency for most of our foreign operations is their local currency. We may reduce our exposure to fluctuations in cash flows associated with changes in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions, including through the use of derivative financial instruments.
