Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On January 30, 2009, ISCO International, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter from the Corporate Compliance Department (the “Staff”) of NYSE Alternext US LLC (the “Exchange”), which was formerly known as the American Stock Exchange, indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the Exchange’s continued listing standards. The letter confirms the intent of the Exchange to delist the Company’s common stock from the Exchange.

The letter indicates that the Company is not in compliance with the following listing standards contained in the NYSE Alternext US LLC Company Guide (the “Company Guide”):

- The Company had stockholders’ equity of less than $2,000,000 and losses from continuing operations and net losses in two of its three most recent fiscal years (Section 1003(a)(i) of the Company Guide);
- The Company had stockholders’ equity of less than $4,000,000 and losses from continuing operations and net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years (Section 1003(a)(ii) of the Company Guide);
- The Company had stockholders’ equity of less than $6,000,000 and losses from continuing operations and net losses in its five most recent fiscal years (Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide); and
- The Company has sustained losses which are so substantial in relation to its overall operations or its existing financial resources, or its financial condition has become so impaired and it appears questionable, in the opinion of the Exchange, as to whether the Company will be able to continue operations and/or meet its obligations as they mature (Section 1003(a)(iv) of the Company Guide).

The Staff has also advised the Company of non-compliance with Section 1003(f)(v) of the Company Guide since the Company’s common stock has been trading at a low price per share for a significant period of time.

The Company must appeal the Staff’s determination by February 6, 2009, or it will become final. If the determination becomes final, the Staff will suspend trading in the Company’s common stock and submit an application to the Securities and Exchange Commission to strike the Company’s common stock from listing and registration on the Exchange. The Company does not intend to seek an appeal of the Staff’s determination.

The Company is working with a market maker to apply for the registration and quotation of the Company’s common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board. If the Company is not approved for quotation on the OTC Bulletin Board before trading is suspended on the Exchange, the Company expects that its common stock will be quoted on the Pink Sheets until clearance is obtained for quotation on the OTC Bulletin Board.

The Company’s press release dated February 2, 2009, describing the notice from the Exchange, is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
