ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Reporting Persons acquired the Ordinary Shares for investment purposes. The Reporting Persons intend to exercise fully their rights as stockholders.

The Reporting Persons are engaged in the investment business. In pursuing this business, the Reporting Persons will routinely monitor the Issuer with regard to a wide variety of factors that affect their investment considerations, including, without limitation, current and anticipated future trading prices for the Ordinary Shares and other securities, the Issuer's operations, assets, prospects, financial position, and business development, the Issuer's management, Issuer-related competitive and strategic matters, general economic, financial market and industry conditions, as well as other investment considerations.

Depending on their evaluation of various factors, including those indicated above, the Reporting Persons may take such actions with respect to their holdings in the Issuer as they deem appropriate in light of circumstances existing from time to time. Such actions may include the purchase of additional Ordinary Shares in the open market, through privately negotiated transactions with third parties or otherwise, or the sale at any time, in the open market, through privately negotiated transactions with third parties or otherwise, of all or a portion of the Ordinary Shares now owned or hereafter acquired by any of them. In addition, the Reporting Persons may from time to time enter into or unwind hedging or other derivative transactions with respect to the Ordinary Shares or otherwise pledge their interests in the Ordinary Shares as a means of obtaining liquidity. Under the Shareholders Agreement, the holders are entitled to rights with respect to registration of Ordinary Shares held by them. Beginning six months following the completion of the Issuer's initial public offering, each of certain shareholders, including the Fund, may require on up to three occasions that the Issuer register their shares for public resale. In addition, any holder of registrable securities may require the Issuer to effect a registration statement on Form F-3 (or any successor form or any comparable form for a registration statement in a jurisdiction other than the United States) for a public offering of registrable securities so long as the Issuer is entitled to use Form F-3 (or such comparable form) for such offering. There is no limitation on the number of demands for such registrations on Form F-3 (or a comparable form), although the Issuer is not obligated to effect more than one such registration in any six-month period.
