

PENN AMERICA GROUP INC

Form 425

December 17, 2004

Filed by Penn-America Group, Inc.
pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933
and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12
under the Securities and Exchange
Act of 1934, as amended

Subject Company: Penn-America
Group, Inc.
Commission File No.: 0-22316

This filing relates to a planned merger (the Merger) between United National Group, Ltd. (UNGL) and Penn-America Group, Inc. (PNG) pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 14, 2004 (the Merger Agreement), between UNGL and PNG. The Merger Agreement is on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) as an exhibit to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by PNG on October 15, 2004, and is incorporated by reference into this filing.

The following is the text of an e-mail sent by Joseph F. Morris, PNG's Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, which was first distributed to PNG's general agents and employees on December 16, 2004:

We have recently received some questions about Penn-America's A.M. Best rating resulting from a December 15, 2004 press release issued by A. M. Best announcing that United National Group's rating was being removed from under review. In the press release, A. M. Best stated, "As is its customary practice, A.M. Best expects to conclude its review of Penn-America Group, Inc. after the final disposition of the merger. At this time, the rating of Penn-America will remain under review with developing implications.

As they stated, this is normal practice for A.M. Best in any merger transaction and you needn't be concerned by the under review status. I met with A.M. Best last month to discuss Penn-America's historical results and expected future results in 2005 and beyond. The meeting went very well and we have every expectation that following the completion of the merger, that at a minimum, we will retain our A- rating. Additionally, we presented what we believe was a compelling case to earn an upgrade to an A rating and are hopeful that A. M. Best will consider this action.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call me at 215-443-3612. I have attached A.M. Best's press release in case you didn't see it.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information:

This communication contains forward-looking information about PNG and the Merger with UNGL that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as believe, expect, may, will, should, project, plan, intend, or anticipate or the negative thereof or comparable terminology, and include discussions of strategy, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements regarding plans, objectives, expectations or consequences of the Merger, and statements about the future performance, operations, products and services of the companies.

PNG's business and operations, as well as the combined business and operations of United America Indemnity, Ltd., are and will be subject to a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors. Consequently, their actual results and experience may materially differ from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results and experience to differ from those projected include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) ineffectiveness of their business strategy due to changes in current or future market conditions, (2) the effects of competitors' pricing policies, and of changes in laws and regulations on competition, including industry consolidation and development of competing financial products, (3) greater frequency or severity of claims and loss activity than their underwriting, reserving or investment practices have anticipated, (4) decreased level of demand for their insurance products or increased competition due to an increase in capacity of property and casualty insurers; (5) risks inherent in establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves; (6) uncertainties relating to the financial ratings of their insurance subsidiaries; (7) uncertainties arising from the cyclical nature of their business; (8) changes in their relationships with, and the capacity of, their general agents; (9) the risk that their reinsurers may not be able to fulfill their obligations and (10) uncertainties relating to governmental and regulatory policies. The foregoing review of important factors should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included in PNG's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, as well as in the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by UNGL, as amended, and other materials to be filed with the SEC. See Additional Information above. PNG does not make any commitment to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances occurring or existing after the date any forward-looking statement is made.
