Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 16, 2015, VAALCO Energy, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release describing its communication, dated as of November 16, 2015, to the stockholder group consisting of Group 42, Inc. and Bradley L. Radoff, together with other participants (collectively, the “Group 42–BLR Group”). The Company’s communication was in response to the Group 42–BLR Group’s proposed solicitation of stockholder written consents to remove four duly elected members of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”). Included in the press release is a copy of the Company’s communication to the Group 42–BLR Group.

The Company’s communication, as described in the press release, noted that the proposed action by the Group 42–BLR Group to remove directors without cause conflicts with the Company’s certificate of incorporation (the “Charter”), which provides that directors may be removed only for cause. The Company noted that, under the Charter, the Group 42–BLR Group’s removal proposal is not a proper matter for stockholder action and that the Company is therefore obliged to consider any purported stockholder action with respect to the removal proposal null and void.

As described in the press release, the Company offered to hold a special meeting in December 2015 (the “Special Meeting”) to submit to the vote of the stockholders a proposal to amend the Charter to provide for the removal of directors without cause. The Board would commit to approve such Charter amendment if the stockholders approve the proposal at the Special Meeting. In addition, the Board offered to submit to the vote of the stockholders all other proposals contained in the Group 42–BLR Group’s preliminary consent solicitation statement, dated as of November 6, 2015.

The press release additionally noted that the Company reiterates its previous offer to the Group 42–BLR Group to appoint one Group 42–BLR Group nominee to the Board.

A copy of the press release issued by the Company is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.
