LITHIA MOTORS REPORTS A 75% INCREASE IN NET INCOME; EARNINGS PER SHARE OF 40 CENTS AND RECORD Q1 REVENUES

Lithia Motors' First-quarter 2004 Highlights for continuing operations:

Operating Income:	+49%
Net Income:	+75%
Earnings Per Share:	+67%
Retail Same-Store Sales:	+1.7%

MEDFORD, OREGON, APRIL 26, 2004 (5:00 a.m. PDT) - Lithia Motors, Inc. (NYSE: LAD) today announced that first quarter 2004 net income from continuing operations increased 75% to $7.6 million from $4.3 million in the first quarter of 2003. Earnings per share from continuing operations increased 67% to $0.40 as compared to $0.24 in the first quarter of 2003. This was on 5% more diluted shares outstanding.

First quarter 2004 sales increased 14% to $637.8 million as compared to $559.6 million in the same period last year. New vehicle sales increased 15%, used vehicle sales increased 10%, parts/service sales increased 23%, and finance/insurance sales increased 15%.

Sid DeBoer, Lithia's Chairman and CEO, commented, "The first quarter results were driven by growth in sales and better margins. Our operating margin improved by 60 basis points for the quarter."

"Combined new and used retail vehicle sales improved with retail vehicle same-store sales up nearly 1%. Retail new and used margins also demonstrated improvements leading to growth in same-store retail vehicle gross profits of nearly 5%. New vehicle same-store sales have now grown for five consecutive quarters. The used vehicle sales market has continued to stabilize and show signs of improvement. Lithia's strategy of producing strong new vehicle sales combined with high sales rates for our Lifetime Oil & Filter product is starting to demonstrate results in the parts and service department. Parts and Service same-store sales for the quarter were up 8.0%. Parts and service same-store sales have now grown for 3 consecutive quarters."

Edgar Filing: LITHIA MOTORS INC - Form 8-K

"Total retail same-store sales for the quarter were up 1.7%. All business lines produced positive growth in same-store gross profits for the quarter," concluded Mr. DeBoer.

Jeffrey B. DeBoer, Senior Vice President and CFO added, "For the full-year 2004, we are raising earnings guidance from continuing operations to a range of $2.06 to $2.14 per diluted share. We expect second quarter earnings per share in the range of $0.51 to $0.53."

"In the first quarter, we completed two acquisitions; a Chrysler-Jeep store in Reno, Nevada and a Chevrolet store in Helena, Montana. The two stores have approximately $95 million in annualized revenues."

Lithia Motors will be providing more detailed information on the results for the first quarter 2004 in its conference call scheduled for 7 a.m. PDT today. ### LITHIA MOTORS, INC. ANNOUNCES PROPOSED CONVERTIBLE DEBT OFFERING

MEDFORD, OREGON, APRIL 26, 2004 (5:00 a.m. PDT) - Lithia Motors, Inc. (NYSE: LAD) today announced that it proposes to offer $85 million of senior subordinated convertible notes due 2014, through a Rule 144A offering to qualified institutional buyers. These notes will be senior subordinated obligations of the Company and will be convertible into Lithia Motors Class A common stock at a price to be determined. The Company has granted the initial purchasers of the notes an option to purchase an additional $15 million principal amount of the notes.

The notes are expected to be redeemable at the Company's option beginning on May 6, 2009 at a redemption price of 100% of the principal amount plus accrued interest, if any. Holders of the notes are expected to have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or some of their notes on May 1, 2009 and upon certain events constituting a fundamental change.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from this offering to pay off amounts currently outstanding on its used vehicle and working capital line and to pay portions of its new vehicle flooring notes payable or for other corporate purposes. The Company's used vehicle and working capital line will remain available for future borrowings.

The notes and common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States, except pursuant to an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and applicable state securities laws.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy securities and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful. This press release is being issued pursuant to and in accordance with Rule 135c under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This press release includes forward looking statements within the meaning of the "Safe-Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which management believes are a benefit to shareholders. These statements are necessarily subject to risk and uncertainty and actual results could differ materially due to certain risk factors, including without limitation risk factors set forth from time to time in the Company's filings with the SEC. Specific risks in this press release include market and other conditions or events that may affect the Company's ability to complete the proposed financing or to use the net proceeds as intended.

LITHIA MOTORS ACQUIRES TWO CHEVROLET STORES LOCATED IN ANCHORAGE AND WASILLA, ALASKA

MEDFORD, OREGON, April 26, 2004 (5:00 a.m. Pacific) - Lithia Motors, Inc. (NYSE: LAD) announced today that it will be acquiring Tony Chevrolet of Anchorage and Tony Chevrolet of Wasilla located in Alaska. The stores will be renamed Chevrolet of South Anchorage and Chevrolet of Wasilla. The stores have combined annualized sales of approximately $125 million. With this acquisition, Lithia will have acquired approximately $220 million in annualized revenues in 2004. Closing of the transaction is anticipated within the next 10 days.

Lithia Motors Chairman and CEO Sid DeBoer commented, "We first entered the Anchorage, Alaska market in January of 2001 with the purchase of a Chrysler Jeep store. Later in that year, we completed a new facility and opened a new Dodge store. In February of 2003, we made a purchase of a Hyundai store and in that same year, we acquired a Chevrolet Cadillac store in Fairbanks. Alaska has been a solid performing market for Lithia over the past three years. The two new stores will contribute to our continued growth in the Alaska market."

Lithia Motors, Inc. is a Fortune 1000 and Russell 2000 Company that sells 25 brands of new vehicles and operates 80 stores and 149 franchises in 12 states in the Western United States and over the Internet through "Lithia.com-America's Car & Truck Store."
