I want to take a moment to update you on the ongoing litigation related to Airgas' annual meeting of stockholders. This past Friday, the Delaware Chancery Court upheld the Air Products By-Law amendment proposal to require that an Annual Meeting of Stockholders be held on January 18, 2011 and that all future annual meetings of stockholders be held in January. Airgas awaits a decision on other matters still pending before the Court.

While we appreciate the Court's consideration of this matter, we disagree with the Court's decision and we intend to appeal the ruling as we firmly believe the Air Products By-Law proposal is invalid under both Delaware law and Airgas' Certificate of Incorporation. We also believe that the proposal has not been approved because it received the affirmative vote of less than 67% of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

As you know, the Airgas Board has previously determined that Air Products' tender offer is grossly inadequate and does not adequately compensate Airgas stockholders for the Company's excellent prospects, inherent value and impressive economic performance. Airgas is poised for continued success as the economy strengthens and I look forward to working with you to capitalize on the significant opportunities that lie ahead for us.

Our Board continues to work hard to protect the interests of all Airgas stockholders and we appreciate your continued dedication and commitment. Please help us by remaining focused on meeting and exceeding the needs of our customers and delivering the outstanding performance that stockholders have come to expect from us.

As always, don't hesitate to reach out to your managers with any questions.

Sincerely,

Peter McCausland
Chief Executive Officer
