Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(d) Appointment of New Director.

On January 21, 2005, the Board of Directors of Denbury Resources Inc. ("Denbury"), after consideration and recommendation by the Nominating Committee, appointed Randy Stein to serve as a director of Denbury until the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders, thus filling a prior board vacancy, the last remaining vacancy on its Board that the Board intends to fill. Mr. Stein will serve as co-chairman of the Board's audit committee. There have been no transactions or series of similar transactions of the type required to be described under Section 404(a) or Regulation S-K between Denbury and Mr. Stein which have taken place since January 1, 2004.

Mr. Stein, age 51, has 29 years of diversified management experience with public and private companies, including 20 years with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, formerly Coopers & Lybrand LLP, most recently as principal in charge of the Denver tax practice until his resignation in 2000. Mr. Stein was also employed as an executive officer of a Denver based independent oil and gas company, and is currently a self employed business consultant. Mr. Stein served as audit committee chairman, co-chairman of the nominating and governance committee, and a member of the compensation committee of Westport Resources Corp., a Denver-based public oil and gas company, from 2000 until they were acquired in 2004. Mr. Stein is currently a board member and audit committee chairman of Bill Barrett Corporation, an oil and gas company, and also serves on the board and audit committee of Koala Corporation, both Denver based public companies.
