Press Release

CVRD Natural Resources Reserve Receives Award

Rio de Janeiro, August 08, 2002 - Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that its Natural Resources Reserve, located in Linhares, Espirito Santo, Brazil, received the ECO Award granted by the American Chamber of Commerce in Brazil (AMCHAM) in the environmental protection category. This Natural Resources Reserve, comprising 22,000 hectares of primary Atlantic Forest, has already been declared World Heritage Site of the Discovery Coast by UNESCO. In this Natural Resources Reserve CVRD implemented an innovative management model for a protected area, combining environmental protection with a self sustainable economy.

The award granted to CVRD is a recognition of its commitment with environmental quality. In this specific event, it is guaranteeing the preservation and reproduction of one of the most important ecosystems in Brazil, with one of the largest biodiversities in the world - the Atlantic Forest.

Further information about CVRD Linhares Natural Resources Reserve can be obtained on the website www.cvrld.com.br/linhares.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissao de Valores Mobiliarios and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
