ISSUANCE OF COMMON STOCK TO SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Edgar Filing: PHOENIX TECHNOLOGIES LTD - Form S-3

On December 21, 2001, Phoenix entered into a definitive asset acquisition agreement (the "Acquisition Agreement") under which Phoenix acquired certain assets and assumed certain liabilities of StorageSoft, Inc., StorageSoft Solutions, Inc. and StorageSoft BV i.o. (collectively referred to herein as "StorageSoft"), a privately-held developer of hard drive utilities that can be used in connection with Phoenix's FirstWare product line and distribution channels in the "White Box" manufacturing, corporate, and personal computer system builder markets. The acquisition closed January 8, 2002.

Under the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, Phoenix acquired certain assets and assumed certain liabilities of StorageSoft. As part of the transaction, Phoenix issued 505,646 new shares of common stock to the selling stockholders. This prospectus covers the resale of the shares of common stock issued in the acquisition.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement on Form S-3, of which this prospectus forms a part, in connection with the future resale of these shares. With respect to the 505,646 shares issued to the selling stockholders, we have agreed to keep this registration statement effective until January 8, 2003, or such earlier time as these shares have been sold by the selling stockholders. Although we will receive no proceeds from this offering, we will bear all costs, expenses and fees in connection with this offering. The selling stockholders will bear any brokerage commissions or similar selling expenses related to their resale of their common stock.

These broker-dealers may receive compensation in excess of customary commissions.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth certain information as of January 18, 2002, with respect to the selling stockholders. The following table assumes that the selling stockholders sell all of the shares offered by this prospectus. We are unable to determine the exact number of shares that actually will be sold.

The number and percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on shares outstanding at January 18, 2002, determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act. The information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under Rule 13d-3, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which an individual has sole or shared voting power or investment power, and also includes shares which an individual has the right to acquire within 60 days of January 18, 2002, through the exercise of any stock option or other right. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes, each person has sole voting and investment power (or shares such powers with his or her spouse) with respect to the shares shown as beneficially owned.

No selling stockholder has had any material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates within the last three years.

Except as indicated in the footnotes to this table and pursuant to applicable community property laws, the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of Common Stock beneficially owned.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law allows a corporation to eliminate the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, subject to certain exceptions. Article NINTH of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the personal liability of the Registrant's directors to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of a director's fiduciary duty, except for liability: (1) for breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders; (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law; (3) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law grants to each corporation organized thereunder the power to indemnify its officers and directors for certain acts. Article TENTH of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation sets forth the extent to which officers and directors of the Registrant may be indemnified against any liabilities which they may incur in their capacities as directors or officers of the Registrant. Article TENTH provides, in part, that each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Registrant or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Registrant, to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with such proceeding; provided, however, that if the person seeking indemnification initiated the proceeding in respect to which he or she is seeking indemnification from the Registrant, the Registrant shall provide such indemnification only if such proceeding was authorized by the Registrant's Board of Directors. The right to indemnification includes the right to be paid expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that if the Delaware General Corporation Law so requires, the payment of such expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Registrant of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to indemnification.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted against the Registrant by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered hereunder, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
