Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 15, 2016, Marcia J. Miller notified Energy Focus, Inc. (the “Company”) of her intent to resign from her position as the Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of the Company effective August 15, 2016 to pursue other opportunities. Ms. Miller’s departure is not the result of any disagreement with the Company regarding any financial or accounting matters.

The Company and Ms. Miller entered into a Separation Agreement and Release on June 17, 2016, which provides for the continued payment of Ms. Miller’s salary at the rate in effect as of June 17, 2016 for a period of eleven months following her separation date, the payment of up to $10,000 for executive outplacement and coaching service expenses, and full vesting of unvested options to purchase the Company’s Common Stock granted prior to 2016. A copy of this agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

The Company is conducting a search for a permanent Chief Financial Officer and Secretary and if no successor is named by August 15, 2016, Michael H. Port, the Company’s Controller, will serve in an interim capacity as the Company’s Chief Financial Officer and Secretary. In consideration for such service, Mr. Port will receive a $4,000 bonus payment for each month served in such capacity and a restricted stock unit grant for 5,000 shares, vesting as to one-third of such shares on each anniversary of the grant date.

Mr. Port, age 51, has served as the Company’s Controller since July, 2015. From 2010 to July 2015, Mr. Port was as a consultant with Resources Global Professionals (“RGP”), a multinational professional services firm, during which time he filled roles such as Interim CFO, Controller and Director of External Reporting for industrial and manufacturing customers. Prior to joining Resources Global Professionals, Mr. Port held various senior level executive positions at both private and public companies, including Mork Process, Inc., an international manufacturer of industrial cleaning equipment, Oglebay Norton Company, a great lakes shipping and industrial minerals company and Hitachi Medical Systems of America, a distributor of diagnostic imaging products. He began his career at Ernst & Young, focusing on entrepreneurial growth companies. Mr. Port is CPA and has an MBA from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve and a BS in Business Administration from The Ohio State University.

A copy of the press release relating to these announcements is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”) of the Company was held on June 15, 2016. A total of 6,048,205 shares of common stock, representing approximately 51.90% of the shares outstanding, were represented at the meeting. The matter voted upon and the results of the votes were as follows:
