If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate).

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Pursuant to Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, AMCON Distributing Company ("AMCON") is unable to file its quarterly report for the fiscal quarter and nine months ended June 30, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense. AMCON is currently in the process of amending its Form 10-K for the year ended September 24, 2004 and Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 to correct the classification of certain financial instruments, correct the classification of nonoperating asset impairment from "other income, net" to "selling, general and administrative" in the Fiscal 2003 Statement of Operations and to retroactively apply the discontinued operations accounting treatment related to The Beverage Group, Inc., which is the former marketing and distribution component of the beverage segment, of which operations ceased effective March 31, 2005.

The process of amending the filings referred to above began after the Company received clearance from the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding their review of these filings. The Company cannot file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 until the amended filings have been completed and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. AMCON expects to complete the process of amending its Form 10-K for the year ended September 24, 2004 and its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 and file these documents contemporaneously with Form 10-Q for the quarter and nine months ended June 30, 2005 on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date of Form 10-Q for the quarter and nine months ended June 30, 2005.
