Only holders of common stock of record at the close of business on June 11, 2003 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting.

Enclosed is an Information Statement relating to this Meeting, which provides certain information regarding the Fund, but which does not request your vote. We understand that a stockholder of the Fund, the Ernest Horejsi Trust No. 1B, along with certain of its affiliated trusts (collectively, the "Horejsi Group"), will provide you with a proxy statement (the "Horejsi Group Proxy Statement") in order to solicit proxies for the election of its nominees as Directors and for certain other matters. A copy of the Horejsi Group Proxy Statement is expected to be mailed with this Information Statement.

The Horejsi Group Proxy Statement will be accompanied by a proxy card and information on telephonic and Internet voting. As the Fund is not soliciting votes for this Meeting, the only way you may vote is to return a signed and dated proxy card provided to you by the Horejsi Group, to follow the instructions in the Group's materials regarding telephonic and Internet voting or to vote in-person at the Meeting. Please refer to the Horejsi Group Proxy Statement for further information regarding its proxy solicitation.

The Fund has agreed with the Horejsi Group to a joint mailing of the Fund's Notice of Meeting and Information Statement and the Horejsi Group's Proxy Statement and Proxy Card. ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
AUGUST 19, 2003

INTRODUCTION

This Information Statement is furnished to the stockholders of First Financial Fund, Inc. ("Fund") by the Board of Directors of the Fund in connection with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders or any adjournments thereof ("Meeting") to be held on August 19, 2003 at 9:00 a.m. at Gateway Center Three, 100 Mulberry Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102-4077. The matters to be acted upon at the Meeting are set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting.

WE ARE NOT ASKING FOR A PROXY. YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

The close of business on June 11, 2003 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting ("Record Date"). On that date, the Fund had 23,576,182 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting. It is expected that the Notice of Annual Meeting and Information Statement first will be mailed to stockholders on or about June 24, 2003. We understand that Fund stockholders will also receive a proxy statement and proxy card from a group of affiliated stockholders advised by Stewart R. Horejsi (the "Horejsi Group") asking for your vote for their four nominees for election as Director and for certain other matters. Please refer to the Horejsi Group Proxy Statement for further information about their nominees and proposal and procedures for voting by proxy.

All expenses in connection with preparing and filing this Information Statement and its enclosures will be borne by the Fund. The Horejsi Group has agreed to pay the entire cost of a joint mailing of the Fund's Notice of Meeting and Information Statement and the Horejsi Group's Proxy Statement and proxy card.

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form DEF 14C

The presence at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the Fund's outstanding shares is required for a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding at the Meeting is required to elect each Director if the Horejsi Group's anticipated proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws is not approved by stockholders. If the Fund's stockholders approve that proposal, however, then a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting will be required to elect each Director. The proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws requires that affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Meeting. Please refer to the Horejsi Group Proxy Statement for more information on its nominees and its proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws.

If a quorum is not present at the Meeting or if a quorum is present at the Meeting but sufficient votes to approve a proposed item are not received, persons named as proxies may propose one or more adjournments of such Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. Any such adjournments will require the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present at the Meeting or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present. A stockholder vote may be taken on any item for consideration at the Meeting prior to any such adjournment if sufficient votes have been received and it is otherwise appropriate.

Broker non-votes are shares held in street name for which the broker indicates that instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or other persons entitled to vote and with respect to which the broker does not have discretionary voting authority. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present, but will not be considered as votes cast at the Meeting. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes effectively will be a vote against an adjournment or the election of Directors (under the current voting standard for the election of Directors), but will have no effect on the election of Directors if stockholders approve the Horejsi Group's proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws to elect Directors by a plurality of votes cast at the Meeting or on the proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws.

STOCKHOLDERS MAY OBTAIN A FREE COPY OF THE FUND'S MOST RECENT ANNUAL REPORT BY CALLING EQUISERVE TRUST COMPANY, N.A. TOLL-FREE AT (800) 451-6788 OR BY MAILING A WRITTEN REQUEST TO EQUISERVE TRUST COMPANY, N.A., PO BOX 43011, PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND 02940-3011.

+ These stockholders, along with their investment adviser, Stewart R. Horejsi, are considered by the Fund to be members of the Horejsi Group due to their affiliations and common objectives with regard to the Fund.

++ This information is based solely on Amendment #34 to a joint Schedule 13D filed May 5, 2003 by these entities along with Stewart R. Horejsi, reporting aggregate holdings of 9,343,500 shares or 39.6% of the Fund's outstanding shares by these entities as of April 30, 2003 and indicating that, because of the relationships between Mr. Horejsi and the entities, Mr. Horejsi may be deemed to share indirect beneficial ownership of such shares. Because some of the shares reported above may be deemed to be beneficially owned by more than one entity within the Horejsi Group, the aggregate number and percentage of shares owned are less than the sum total shown for each individual owner. No subsequent amendment to the joint Schedule 13D of the Horejsi Group had been received by the Fund through June 11, 2003.

** According to the joint Schedule 13D of the Horejsi Group, Badlands Trust Company has shared voting and shared dispositive power over the shares held by the Susan L. Ciciora Trust and the John S. Horejsi Trust. Thus, Badlands Trust Company may be considered the indirect beneficial owner of such shares. All other shares reported in the table above are held directly with sole voting and dispositive power by the entity indicated.

*** This information is based solely on an initial Schedule 13G filed on January 30, 2003 reflecting holdings as of December 31, 2002 by T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc., which is located at 100 East Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

In addition, Directors and officers of the Fund, in the aggregate, owned less than 1% of the Fund's outstanding common stock as of June 11, 2003.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

In 2002, the Horejsi Group nominated two persons for election as Class I Directors at the Fund's annual meeting. As part of its due diligence on the Horejsi Group's candidates, the Committee reviewed the actions of the Horejsi Group with two other closed-end funds, Boulder Total Return Fund and Boulder Growth & Income Fund (the "Boulder Funds"). As with the Fund, the Horejsi Group bought a substantial stake in each Boulder Fund and then sought to have its nominees seated on their boards. In each case, once the Horejsi Group gained control, the respective investment advisers of these funds were replaced with one or more advisers affiliated with Stewart R. Horejsi and the Horejsi Group at higher advisory fee rates. The Horejsi Group and its board nominees also proposed and supported fundamental changes to each Boulder Fund's core investment objectives, strategies and policies, which were implemented following stockholder approval where required. After the Committee completed its due diligence, the Committee and the Board decided to nominate the incumbents, Messrs. Dorsey and La Blanc, for election as Directors at the Fund's 2002 meeting and to solicit proxies for these nominees. The Horejsi Group conducted its own proxy solicitation to elect its candidates to the Board. During the solicitation period, the Fund sent numerous letters to stockholders explaining the reasoning behind its support of the incumbent Directors and its opposition to the Horejsi Group candidates.

At the 2002 meeting of stockholders, no candidate received the required vote of a majority of the Fund's outstanding shares, so no one was elected to the Board. Instead, in accordance with Maryland law, the incumbent Directors remained on the Board as "hold over" Directors until the next annual meeting. The Horejsi Group filed suit against the Fund in U.S. District Court to invalidate the Fund's By-law requiring the affirmative vote of a majority of the Fund's outstanding shares to elect a Director and to unseat the "hold over" Directors under Maryland law and the Investment Company Act of 1940. On appeal, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit found the Fund's election By-law and the tenure of the "hold over" Directors to be valid.

In the early spring of 2003, the Horejsi Group provided the Fund with notice of its intention to nominate two persons to be elected as Class II Directors and two persons to be elected as Class I Directors (replacing the "hold over" Directors) of the Fund. The Horejsi Group also provided the Fund notice of its intention to solicit proxies for three proposals to amend the Fund's By-laws: (1) to change the election voting standard to a plurality of votes cast at a meeting; (2) to add a By-law requiring any "hold over" Directors to be less than 60 years old; and (3) to add a By-law requiring that the Fund hold a special meeting of stockholders to elect Directors to replace any "hold over" Directors resulting from a failed election within 60 days of the original meeting. The Horejsi Group then sued the Fund in U.S. District Court to invalidate the Fund's By-law requiring the affirmative vote of 80% of the Fund's outstanding shares to amend certain other By-laws, including the By-law requiring the election of Directors by a majority of the Fund's outstanding shares. Based upon legal precedent that had been decided after the Fund's 80% amendment By-law was instituted, the Fund consented to an order of the District Court invalidating the 80% amendment By-law. The District Court issued that order in April 2003, making the Fund's election of Directors By-law amendable by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting.

During the spring of 2003, the Fund's Nominating Committee reviewed the qualifications and backgrounds of the Horejsi Group's candidates, which included in-person interviews with Susan Ciciora and Stephen Miller, the two candidates who were first nominated by the Group this year and who would be considered "interested persons" of the Fund as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("1940 Act"), and telephonic interviews with the two candidates first nominated in 2002, Dean Jacobson and Joel Looney, who were interviewed by the Committee in-person last year and who would be independent Directors of the Fund. Once again, the Board reviewed the actions of the Horejsi Group towards the Boulder Funds, especially in light of the fact that all of the Group's candidates except Dr. Jacobson sit on the boards of these funds.

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form DEF 14C

In making its decisions, the Nominating Committee and the Board also reviewed the Horejsi Group's Schedule 13D filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), which indicated no current plan or intention to change the Fund's investment adviser or its fundamental investment objective, policies or strategies. Moreover, the Board reviewed the protection currently provided in the Fund's Charter against changes to the Fund's investment program, including that the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the Fund's outstanding shares would be needed to (1) amend the Fund's investment objective or (2) change the Fund's policy of concentrating its investments in the financial services industry. In addition, the Board considered the recent statement by Mr. Horejsi to the Board on behalf of the Horejsi Group that "We have been pleased with Nick Adams management of the fund recently and have no present intentions of doing anything to change that." Finally, the Board considered the substantial legal and solicitation costs that the Fund had expended in 2002, the likelihood of significant additional expenses if it were to solicit proxies for the incumbents and the fact that an election in which no candidates were elected, as occurred in 2002, would leave the Fund with a majority of "hold over" Directors and significant uncertainty related to whether a court would order that the Fund be liquidated under Maryland corporate law.

The Nominating Committee and the Board also noted that it was highly unlikely that the incumbents could or would be elected at the Meeting regardless of the vote required for election. Indeed, because the Horejsi Group almost certainly would control a majority of the shares present at the Meeting, it was almost inevitable that the Group's candidates would win the election. The Committee decided to recommend to the Board that it not nominate anyone on behalf of the Fund, but instead call the Meeting, prepare and file a Notice of Meeting and Information Statement and let the Horejsi Group prepare and file its own proxy statement and solicit proxies for its own nominees and proposals. The Board approved that recommendation.

Messrs. Dorsey, La Blanc, Mooney and Whitehead intend to hold office until their successors are elected and qualify. As Richard Barr, the only Fund Director whose Board seat is not up for election in 2003, was proposed as a nominee by the Horejsi Group in 2001, if the Horejsi Group nominees are elected, all five Board seats would be held by persons proposed and supported by the Horejsi Group. There is no current litigation between the Fund and the Horejsi Group and none is anticipated. The Horejsi Group and the incumbent Directors have signed a mutual release of claims that is contingent upon the election of all of the Horejsi Group's nominees to the Board.

INFORMATION ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes with members of each class serving for a term of three years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The current Class II Directors, Messrs. Whitehead and Mooney, each have terms expiring in 2003. The terms of the current Class I Directors, Messrs. Dorsey and La Blanc, expired in 2002, but they have remained on the Board as "hold over" Directors because stockholders failed to elect any nominees at the 2002 annual meeting. As noted above, the Board has decided not to nominate any persons for election as Directors at this Meeting.

The following tables set forth certain information regarding each of the current Directors of the Fund. Unless otherwise noted, each of the Directors has engaged in the principal occupation listed in the following table for five years

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee and a Nominating Committee.

The Audit Committee acts pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors and is responsible for assisting the Board to oversee the Fund's independent accountants, accounting policies and procedures and other areas relating to the Fund's accounting, auditing and internal controls. The Audit Committee currently consists of Messrs. Whitehead and La Blanc attended each of these meetings and Mr. Dorsey attended one of these meetings. The Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders if such proposed nominations are submitted to the Fund in writing. Formal nominations by stockholders must be made in accordance with the Fund's By-Laws.

The Board of Directors does not have a standing compensation committee.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("1934 Act"), Section 30(f) of the 1940 Act and Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") regulations thereunder, the Fund's officers and Directors, persons owning more than 10% of the Fund's common stock and certain personnel of the Investment Adviser are required to report their transactions in the Fund's common stock to the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange and the Fund. Based solely on the Fund's review of the copies of such reports that it has received, the Fund believes that, during its fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, all filing requirements applicable to its Directors and officers were satisfied, except as noted below. Grace C. Torres, the Fund's Treasurer, who was appointed as Treasurer of the Fund in 2002, filed a Form 3 (Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership) reporting her appointment during the Fund's most recent fiscal year, but later than required under law.

In addition, during prior fiscal years, the Investment Adviser did not file the following reports on a timely basis: Nicholas C. Adams (Partner and Portfolio Manager, Investment Adviser) did not file timely twelve Form 4 (Statement of Changes of Beneficial Ownership of Securities) reports involving twelve purchases or acquisitions of Fund shares between March 26, 1999 and December 29, 2000 and twenty-three sales of Fund shares between July 2, 2001 and March 22, 2002; Duncan M. McFarland (Managing Partner, Investment Adviser) filed two late Form 4 reports involving one purchase of Fund shares on June 28, 1999 and one sale of Fund shares on March 6, 2002; and

Laurie A. Gabriel (Managing Partner, Investment Adviser), John R. Ryan (Managing Partner, Investment Adviser) and Wellington Luxemburg SCA (affiliate of Investment Adviser) did not file Form 3 reports on a timely basis.

INFORMATION ON THE FUND'S INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Fund's financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 were audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"). The Board of Directors of the Fund has selected PwC as the independent accountants for the Fund for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2004. PwC has been the Fund's independent accountants since February 18, 1997. PwC has informed the Fund that it has no material direct or indirect financial interest in the Fund.

Representatives of PwC are not expected to be present at the Meeting but have been given the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available should any matter arise requiring their presence.

AUDIT FEES

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form DEF 14C

The aggregate fees billed by PwC for professional services rendered for the audit of the Fund's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 and the review of the financial statements included in the Fund's annual report to stockholders were $26,000.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

PwC billed no fees for professional services rendered to the Fund for information technology services relating to financial information systems design and implementation for the Fund's fiscal year ended March 31, 2003. Similarly, PwC billed no fees for professional services rendered to the Fund's Investment Adviser for information technology services relating to financial information systems design and implementation for the calendar year ended December 31, 2002.

ALL OTHER FEES

There were no fees billed by PwC for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 for other services provided to the Fund and approximately $836,000 in fees billed by PwC during the same period for other services provided to the Investment Adviser.

The Fund's Audit Committee believes that the provision of services by PwC that are noted above is compatible with maintaining PwC's independence with respect to the Fund.

OTHER MATTERS

As summarized above, in addition to the election of Directors, the Ernest Horejsi Trust No. 1B, a member of the Horejsi Group, gave advance notice to the Fund of its intention to move the following proposal to amend the Fund's By-laws at the Meeting:

Resolved, that Article III, Section 3 of the bylaws is hereby amended and restated in its entirety, with such action to be effective with respect to any election of directors at the meeting in which the Corporation's stockholders approve such repeal and thereafter.

Section 3. Election. Directors shall be elected by vote of a plurality of all the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present. This Section 3 of Article III shall be amended only by a vote of the Corporation's stockholders.

The Horejsi Group initially gave the Fund advance notice that it would move three proposals to amend the Fund's By-laws at the Meeting. Subsequently, however, counsel to the Horejsi Group informally indicated to the Fund that the Horejsi Group intended to solicit proxies for only one of the proposals, which is noted above. The Fund intends to allow the Horejsi Group to move this proposal for consideration at the Meeting. No other business is expected to come before the Meeting.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Fund's By-Laws require stockholders wishing to nominate Directors or make proposals to be voted on at the Fund's annual meeting to provide notice to the Secretary of the Fund at least 90 days in advance of the anniversary of the date that the Fund's Proxy Statement for its previous year's annual meeting was first released to stockholders (or, in 2003 only, the date of the release of the Fund's Information Statement).. Accordingly, if a stockholder intends to present a proposal at the Fund's annual meeting of stockholders in 2004 and desires to have the proposal included in the Fund's Proxy Statement and form of proxy for that meeting, the stockholder must deliver the proposal to the offices of the Fund at Gateway Center Three, 100 Mulberry Street, Newark, New Jersey, 07102-4077 by March 26, 2004. The notice must contain information sufficient to identify the nominee(s) or proposal and to establish that the stockholder beneficially owns shares that would be entitled to vote on the nomination or proposal. Stockholder nominations and proposals that are submitted in a timely manner will not necessarily be included in the Fund's proxy materials. Inclusion of such nomination or proposal is subject to limitation under the federal securities laws. Stockholder nominations or proposals not received by March 26, 2004 will not be considered "timely" within the meaning of Rule 14a-4(c) of the 1934 Act.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

FIRST FINANCIAL FUND, INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of First Financial Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") met on May 28, 2003 to review the Fund's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a Charter, which sets forth the roles of the Fund's management, independent accountants, the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee in the Fund's financial reporting process. Pursuant to the Charter, the Fund's management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Fund's financial statements, and for the procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The independent accountants for the Fund are responsible for planning and carrying out proper audits and reviews. The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its oversight of the financial reporting process by, among other things, reviewing the scope and results of the Fund's annual audit with the Fund's independent accountants and recommending the initial and ongoing engagement of such accountants.

In performing this oversight function, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with the Fund's management and its independent accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"). The Audit Committee has discussed with PwC the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, and has received the written disclosures and the letter from PwC required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Audit Committee also has discussed the independence of PwC with PwC.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting, are not experts in the fields of auditing or accounting and are not employed by the Fund for accounting, financial management or internal control purposes. Members of the Audit Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided and the representations made to them by management and PwC. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not guarantee that the audit of the Fund's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that PwC is in fact "independent."

Based upon this review and related discussions, and subject to the limitation on the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee set forth above and in the Charter, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Fund's Annual Report to Shareholders for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003.

This report has been approved by all of the members of the Audit Committee (whose names are listed below), each of whom has been determined to be independent pursuant to New York Stock Exchange Rule 303.01.
