Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On September 30, 2015, Honeywell International Inc. (“Honeywell”) entered into a $3.0 billion 364-Day Credit Agreement (the “364-Day Credit Agreement”) with the banks, financial institutions and other institutional lenders party thereto, Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent, Bank of America, N.A., Barclays Bank PLC and Goldman Sachs Bank USA, as documentation agents, and Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Barclays Bank PLC and Goldman Sachs Bank USA, as joint lead arrangers and co-book managers.

The 364-Day Credit Agreement is maintained for general corporate purposes including, without limitation, the acquisition of the Elster Division of Melrose Industries plc and related fees and expenses. There is a mandatory reduction of the commitments after Honeywell completes certain capital markets financing transactions, by an amount equal to the net proceeds of such transactions used for certain purposes. Amounts borrowed under the 364-Day Credit Agreement are required to be repaid no later than September 28, 2016, unless termination occurs earlier pursuant to the terms of the 364-Day Credit Agreement. The 364-Day Credit Agreement does not restrict Honeywell’s ability to pay dividends, nor does it contain financial covenants. The failure to comply with customary conditions or the occurrence of customary events of default contained in the 364-Day Credit Agreement would prevent any further borrowings and would generally require the repayment of any outstanding borrowings under the 364-Day Credit Agreement. Such events of default include, among other things, (a) non-payment of 364-Day Credit Agreement debt, interest or fees; (b) non-compliance with the terms of the 364-Day Credit Agreement covenants; (c) cross-default with other debt in certain circumstances; (d) bankruptcy or insolvency; and (e) defaults on certain obligations under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act. Additionally, each of the lenders has the right to terminate its commitment to lend additional funds under the 364-Day Credit Agreement if any person or group acquires beneficial ownership of 30 percent or more of Honeywell’s voting stock, or, during any 12-month period, individuals who were directors of Honeywell at the beginning of the period cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors, except to the extent individuals who at the beginning of such twelve month period were replaced by individuals (x) whose election or nomination to the board was approved by a majority of remaining board members at the time of such election or nomination or (y) who were nominated by a majority of the remaining board members at the time of such election or nomination and subsequently elected as directors by shareholders of the Company. Advances under the 364-Day Credit Agreement would bear interest, (A) (1) at a rate equal to the highest of (a) the floating base rate publicly announced by Citibank, N.A., (b) 0.5% above the Federal funds rate or (c) Libor, provided that Libor shall not be less than zero, plus 1.00%, plus (2) a margin based on Honeywell’s credit default swap mid-rate spread and subject to a floor and a cap as set forth in the 364-Day Credit Agreement (the “Applicable Margin”) minus 1.00%, provided such margin shall not be less than zero; or (B) at a rate equal to Libor plus the Applicable Margin. Honeywell has agreed to pay a commitment fee of 0.04% on the aggregate unused commitment for the 364-Day Credit Agreement. The 364-Day Credit Agreement is not subject to termination based upon a decrease in Honeywell's debt ratings or a Material Adverse Change (as defined in the 364-Day Credit Agreement).

The description of the 364-Day Credit Agreement contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the 364-Day Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
