PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held May 21, 2002

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Blockbuster Inc. for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held at the Company's corporate headquarters, 1201 Elm Street, 21st Floor Assembly Room, Dallas, Texas, on Tuesday, May 21, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., Dallas time, or at such other time and place to which the meeting may be adjourned. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy are first being sent or given to stockholders is April 12, 2002. Blockbuster Inc. will be referred to as "Blockbuster" or the "Company" in this Proxy Statement.

All shares represented by valid proxies, unless the stockholder specifies otherwise, will be voted (i) FOR the election of the two persons named under "Proposal I--Election of Directors" as nominees for election as Class III directors; and (ii) FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants for fiscal 2002. The Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented at the meeting. If any other business is properly presented, the persons named in the enclosed proxy have authority to vote on such matters in accordance with such persons' discretion. Where a stockholder has appropriately specified how a proxy is to be voted, it will be voted accordingly.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

A stockholder executing a proxy retains the right to revoke it at any time prior to exercise at the meeting. A proxy may be revoked by delivery of written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company, by execution and delivery of a later proxy, or by voting the shares in person at the meeting.

VOTING SECURITIES AND RECORD DATE

The Company has two classes of common stock outstanding: Class A Common Stock, which is entitled to one vote per share, and Class B Common Stock, which is entitled to five votes per share. The holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock vote together as a single class on the matters to be considered at the meeting, and their votes are counted and totaled together. Viacom International Inc., a subsidiary of Viacom Inc., currently holds all of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock, or approximately 95% of the combined voting power of the Company. As a result, Viacom International Inc. is able, acting alone, to approve the proposals submitted for approval at the meeting. Viacom International Inc. has advised the Company that it intends to vote all of its shares of Class B Common Stock in favor of the election of the two nominated directors and ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

The record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting and any adjournments thereof was the close of business on March 26, 2002, at which time the Company had issued and outstanding 34,037,802 shares of Class A Common Stock and 144,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock.

QUORUM AND VOTING

The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the stockholders of record entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all stockholders are entitled to cast is necessary to constitute a quorum. Each vote represented at the meeting in person or by proxy will be counted toward a quorum. If a quorum should not be present, the meeting may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

Brokers holding shares of record for a customer have the discretionary authority to vote on some matters if they do not receive timely instructions from the customer regarding how the customer wants the shares voted. There are also some matters with respect to which brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote if they do not receive timely instructions from the customer. When a broker does not have discretion to vote on a particular matter and the customer has not given timely instructions on how the broker should vote, what is referred to as a "broker non-vote" results. Any broker non-vote will be counted as present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but will be treated as not entitled to vote with respect to that matter. Therefore, a broker non-vote will not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular matter and, accordingly, will not affect the outcome of the vote. Brokers will have discretionary authority to vote on Proposals I and II in the absence of timely instructions from their customers. As a result, there should not be any broker non-votes in connection with the meeting.

Proposal I. To be elected, each nominee for election as a Class III director must receive the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes of the shares of Common Stock present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal. Votes may be cast in favor of or withheld with respect to each nominee. Votes that are withheld will be counted toward a quorum, but will be excluded entirely from the tabulation of votes for such proposal and, therefore, will not affect the outcome of the vote on such proposal.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Proposal II. Approval of the ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes of the Common Stock present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal. Abstentions may be specified on this proposal and will have the same effect as a vote against such proposal.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides for a Board of Directors divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of one class expiring each year at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Each class of directors is elected for a term of three years, except in the case of elections to fill vacancies or newly created directorships.

There are two Class III directors to be elected for terms expiring at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2005 or until their successors have been elected and qualified. It is intended that the names of the nominees indicated below will be placed in nomination and that the persons named in the proxy will vote for their election. Each of the nominees has indicated his or her willingness to serve as a member of the Board of Directors if elected; however, in case either nominee shall become unavailable for election to the Board of Directors for any reason not presently known or contemplated, the proxy holders will have discretionary authority in that instance to vote the proxy for a substitute. Proxies cannot be voted for more than two nominees.

Information concerning the two nominees proposed by the Board of Directors for election as Class III directors, along with information concerning the present Class I and Class II directors whose terms of office will continue after the meeting, is set forth below.

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

The business of the Company is managed under the direction of its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors meets on a regularly scheduled basis during its fiscal year to review significant developments affecting the Company and to act on matters requiring Board approval. It also holds special meetings when an important matter requires Board action between scheduled meetings. The Board of Directors met seven times and acted by unanimous written consent three times during the 2001 fiscal year. During the 2001 fiscal year, each member of the Board of Directors participated in at least 75% of all Board and applicable committee meetings held during the period for which he or she was a director.

The Board of Directors has established audit, senior executive compensation and compensation committees to devote attention to specific subjects and to assist it in the discharge of its responsibilities. The functions of these committees, their current members and the number of meetings held during the 2001 fiscal year are described below.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Audit Committee. The functions of the Audit Committee include, among others: (i) reviewing the scope and results of the Company's internal auditing procedures; (ii) reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's system of internal accounting controls; (iii) determining the duties and responsibilities of the Company's internal audit staff; (iv) reviewing with management and the independent accountants the Company's quarterly and annual financial statements prior to the Company's release of earnings, including any transactions, estimates and judgments and the accounting and reporting practices applied thereto; (v) reviewing the scope of the independent accountants' annual audit, the audit procedures to be employed and the results thereof; (vi) reviewing the audit reports submitted by both the independent accountants and the internal audit staff; (vii) annually recommending independent accountants; and (viii) approving the retention of the independent accountants for any non-audit service and the fee for such service. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. Ms. Griego (Chairman), Mr. Muething and Mr. Dauman are members of the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that Ms. Griego and Mr. Muething are "independent," as defined by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Mr. Dauman is not "independent," as defined by such rules, due to his position as an executive officer of Viacom Inc. until May 2000; however, the Board of Directors determined in its business judgment that Mr. Dauman's membership on the Audit Committee is required by the best interests of the Company and its stockholders due to his extensive industry and business expertise. The Board of Directors also determined in its business judgment that Mr. Dauman's former position as an executive officer of Viacom Inc. does not interfere with his exercise of independent judgment. Therefore, it appointed Mr. Dauman as a member of the Audit Committee in May 2001 pursuant to the override provision of the New York Stock Exchange rules. The Audit Committee met seven times during the 2001 fiscal year.

Senior Executive Compensation Committee. The functions of the Senior Executive Compensation Committee include: (i) reviewing and approving the Company's policies and practices relating to the compensation of senior executive officers of the Company, including the forms of their employment agreements and individual compensation recommendations for such officers; (ii) approving the Company's incentive compensation, including annual bonus and stock options plans, for such senior executive officers, subject to stockholder approval where appropriate; and (iii) where designated by the Board of Directors, approving any other benefit programs for such senior executive officers, subject to stockholder approval where appropriate. Mr. Muething (Chairman) and Ms. Griego are members of the Senior Executive Compensation Committee. The Senior Executive Compensation Committee met five times during the 2001 fiscal year.

Compensation Committee. Subject to the authority of the Board of Directors, and except with respect to matters entrusted to the Company's Senior Executive Compensation Committee, the functions of the Compensation Committee include: (i) assisting management in defining and overseeing the Company's general compensation practices; (ii) reviewing and approving the forms of employment agreements for employees at the level of vice president and above; (iii) approving the Company's incentive compensation plans, subject to stockholder approval where appropriate; and (iv) overseeing certain of the Company's other employee benefit programs. Messrs. Dauman (Chairman), Muething and Redstone and Ms. Griego are members of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee met four times during the 2001 fiscal year.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors does not have a nominating committee because the Board of Directors as a whole functions in this capacity.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who do not serve as officers or employees of Viacom Inc. or Blockbuster are entitled to receive an annual retainer fee of $40,000 for membership on Blockbuster's Board of Directors. Of this amount, $20,000 is paid in the Company's Class A Common Stock that is non-transferable for one year after it is paid. The other $20,000 is paid in cash. These directors are also entitled to a per meeting attendance fee of $1,000 for each Board meeting attended and $1,000 for each meeting of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Senior Executive Compensation Committee attended if such meeting is held on a different day from the day of a Board meeting and the committee member has to travel to participate in the committee meeting. Only one fee will be paid for attendance at more than one committee meeting held on the same day.

Pension Plans

Defined Benefit Pension Plan. Through December 31, 1999, the Company participated in a non-contributory qualified defined benefit pension plan and, for some of the Company's highly compensated employees, a non-qualified excess defined benefit pension plan. Both plans are sponsored by Viacom Inc. The Company's employees became eligible to participate in these plans effective January 1, 1996, with credit for past service on and after September 29, 1994 for eligibility and vesting purposes. An eligible employee will receive a benefit at retirement that is based upon the employee's number of years of benefit service and average annual compensation, including salary and bonus, for the highest 60 consecutive months out of the final 120 months immediately preceding retirement. Under the terms of the excess pension plan, such compensation is limited to the greater of base salary as of December 31, 1995 or $750,000. The benefits under Viacom's excess pension plan are not subject to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, that limit the compensation used to determine benefits and the amount of annual benefits payable under Viacom's qualified pension plans. The Company's employees ceased to participate in Viacom's pension plans at December 31, 1999. Viacom retained the accrued liability for benefits under these plans for the Company's employees. All of the Company's employees who were actively employed by the Company and participating in the qualified defined benefit pension plan or the excess defined benefit pension plan on December 31, 1999 were fully vested in their accrued benefits in these plans on that date.

The following table illustrates, for representative average annual pensionable compensation and years of benefit service classifications, the annual retirement benefit that would be payable to employees under both the non-contributory defined benefit pension plan and the excess pension plan if they retired in 2001 at age 65, based on the straight-life annuity form of benefit payment and not subject to deduction or offset.

- . setting levels of annual salary and bonus compensation that will attract and retain superior executives in the highly competitive environment of the Company's business;
- . providing annual bonus compensation for executive officers that varies with the Company's financial performance;
- . providing long-term compensation that is tied to the Company's stock price so as to focus the attention of the Company's executive officers on managing the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake; and
- . emphasizing performance-based compensation through annual bonus compensation and long-term compensation.

The Senior Executive Compensation Committee evaluates the competitiveness of its executive compensation packages based on information from a variety of sources, including information obtained by management from consultants and information obtained from the Company's own experience.

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits to $1,000,000 the federal tax deductibility of compensation (including stock options) paid to a named executive officer. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code provides an exception to such limitation for certain performance-based compensation, and it is the intent of the Senior Executive Compensation Committee to qualify executive compensation for such exception to the extent necessary, feasible and in the best interests of the Company. Certain compensation under the Company's 1999 Long-Term Management Incentive Plan and Senior Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan is intended to qualify for such exception. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code also includes an exception to the $1,000,000 deduction limitation for deferred compensation paid to an executive officer when such executive officer is no longer subject to Section 162(m).

Chief Executive Officer's Fiscal 2001 Compensation

Mr. Antioco's fiscal 2001 salary was determined pursuant to the terms of Mr. Antioco's employment agreement, which provided for a base salary of $1,000,000 in 2001. Mr. Antioco's fiscal 2001 compensation also included $455,000 of deferred salary in order to address Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, Mr. Antioco's employment agreement provides for his annual eligibility for a bonus pursuant to the terms of the Senior Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan. In accordance with the terms of such plan, the Senior Executive Compensation Committee established performance criteria for the Company for fiscal 2001, the achievement of which would permit Mr. Antioco to receive a bonus of up to eight times his base salary and deferred compensation. Mr. Antioco received a $2,500,000 bonus for fiscal 2001 based on the Senior Executive Compensation Committee's determination that the established performance criteria had been achieved. The

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Senior Executive Compensation Committee believes that Mr. Antioco's pioneering of a series of innovative changes in the Company's business was key to the Company's superior operating results during 2001 and, ultimately, achievement of the established performance criteria. Pursuant to his employment agreement, during 2001, Mr. Antioco also received two grants of options to purchase an aggregate of 544,828 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, as well as a grant of options to purchase 600,000 shares of Viacom Inc.'s Class B Common Stock.

Compensation of Other Executive Officers

Fiscal 2001 compensation for the Company's other executive officers was comprised of base salary, annual bonus compensation and long-term compensation in the form of stock options.

Salary and Bonus. Fiscal 2001 salary levels for executive officers were designed to be consistent with competitive practice and level of responsibility within the Company and were based on recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer. Fiscal 2001 bonuses for the Company's executive officers were provided under the Senior Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan based on the same performance criteria as was the bonus for the Chief Executive Officer.

Long-Term Compensation. The Senior Executive Compensation Committee believes that the use of equity-based long-term compensation plans appropriately links executive interests to enhancing stockholder value. The Senior Executive Compensation Committee granted options to all of the Company's executive officers in July 2001. The size of the grant to each executive was within the range assigned to the executive's relative level of responsibility. In determining the amounts awarded, the Senior Executive Compensation Committee considered recommendations from management based on market assessments provided by outside consulting firms and relative responsibilities and performance of each executive.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in overseeing and monitoring the Company's financial reporting practices. As part of this process, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited consolidated financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent accountants, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as modified by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90 (Audit Committee Communications). The Audit Committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP that firm's independence from the Company.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP did not render any professional services to the Company relating to financial information systems design and implementation.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for services rendered to the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, other than the services described above, were $7,007,000, as further detailed in the following table.

Statutory audit fees.....	$ 297,000

Management consulting fees	5,454,000

In March 2002, the Company's Board of Directors amended its Audit Committee Charter to provide that the Audit Committee has the authority to approve the retention of the Company's independent accountants for any non-audit service and the fee for such service.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Relationships Between the Company and Viacom Inc.

The Company and Viacom Inc. have entered into several agreements in connection with the Company's initial public offering in August 1999 and a then-contemplated split-off, each of which is discussed below.

Initial Public Offering Agreement

General. The Company has entered into an Initial Public Offering and Split-Off Agreement with Viacom Inc., which will be referred to in this Proxy Statement as the "IPO Agreement." The IPO Agreement governs the respective rights and duties of the Company and Viacom with respect to certain offerings of the Company's Common Stock and other securities, including a possible split-off of the Company from Viacom or similar transaction. In addition, the IPO Agreement sets forth certain covenants to which the Company has agreed for various periods following its initial public offering and certain other provisions that would be applicable in the event that Viacom were to determine to split-off Blockbuster.

Offerings of the Company's Securities. The Company has agreed to cooperate with Viacom in all respects to accomplish any primary offerings of the Company's Common Stock and other securities while it is controlled by Viacom. The Company has also agreed that, at Viacom's direction, it will promptly take all actions necessary or desirable to effect the foregoing, including the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of shares of the Company's capital stock that Viacom owns.

Expenses. Unless otherwise provided for in the IPO Agreement or any other agreement, the Company has generally agreed to pay all costs and expenses relating to any primary offerings of the Company's Common Stock and other securities of the Company while controlled by Viacom.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Access to Information. Generally, the Company and Viacom have agreed to provide each other with, upon written request and subject to specified conditions, and for a specified period of time, access to information relating to the assets, business and operations of the requesting party. The Company and Viacom have agreed to keep their books and records for a specified period of time. In addition, the Company and Viacom have agreed to cooperate with each other to allow access to each other's employees, to the extent they are necessary, to discuss and explain all requested information mentioned above and with respect to any claims brought against the other relating to the conduct of the Company's business while controlled by Viacom.

Covenants. The Company has agreed that, for so long as Viacom is required to consolidate its results of operations and financial position, the Company will:

(i) provide Viacom with financial information regarding the Company and its subsidiaries;

(ii) provide Viacom with copies of all quarterly and annual financial information and other reports and documents the Company intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission prior to such filings, as well as final copies upon filing, and to actively consult with Viacom with respect to any changes made to these reports;

(iii) provide Viacom with copies of the Company's budgets and financial projections, as well as the opportunity to meet with the Company's management to discuss such budgets and projections;

(iv) consult with Viacom regarding the timing and content of earnings releases and cooperate fully and cause the Company's accountants to cooperate fully with Viacom in connection with any of the Company's public filings;

(v) not change its auditors without Viacom's prior written consent, and use its reasonable best efforts to enable its auditors to complete their audit of the Company's financial statements such that they will date their opinion the same date that they date their opinion on Viacom's financial statements;

(vi) provide to Viacom and its auditors all information required for Viacom to meet its schedule for the filing and distribution of Viacom's financial statements;

(vii) make the Company's books and records available to Viacom and Viacom's auditors, so that they may conduct reasonable audits relating to the Company's financial statements;

(viii) adhere to specified accounting standards;

(ix) agree with Viacom on any changes to the Company's accounting policies; and

(x) agree with Viacom regarding the Company's accounting estimates and principles.

Other Covenants. The IPO Agreement also provides that for so long as Viacom beneficially owns 50% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock, the Company may not take any action or enter into any commitment or agreement that may reasonably be anticipated to result, with or without notice and with or without lapse of time, or otherwise, in a contravention, or an event of default, by Viacom of:

- (i) any provision of applicable law or regulation, including but not limited to provisions pertaining to the Internal Revenue Code, or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended;
- (ii) any provision of Viacom's certificate of incorporation or bylaws;
- (iii) any credit agreement or other material instrument binding upon Viacom; or
- (iv) any judgment, order or decree of any governmental body, agency or court having jurisdiction over Viacom or any of its assets.

Assignment and Assumption. In October 1998, about 380 BLOCKBUSTER MUSIC(R) stores were sold to Warehouse Entertainment Inc. Some of the leases transferred in connection with this sale had previously been guaranteed either by Viacom or its affiliates. Under the IPO Agreement, Viacom International Inc. has assigned to the Company its rights and obligations under the agreement related to the sale of the BLOCKBUSTER MUSIC stores to Warehouse. The Company has agreed to accept this assignment. The Company estimates that, as of the time of the sale, the Company was contingently liable for approximately $84 million, on an undiscounted basis, with respect to base rent for the remaining initial terms of these leases if Warehouse were to default on all of these leases. The Company's contingent liability will vary over time depending on the lease terms remaining. Certain leases may be extended beyond the initial term and remain subject to the guarantee.

Options. The Company granted to Viacom International Inc. a continuing option, assignable to Viacom Inc. and any of its subsidiaries, to purchase, under specified circumstances, additional shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock or any shares of the Company's nonvoting capital stock. These options may be exercised immediately prior to the issuance of any of the Company's equity securities, (i) with respect to shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock, only to the extent necessary to maintain Viacom International Inc.'s then-existing percentage of equity value and combined voting power of the Company's two outstanding classes of Common Stock; and (ii) with respect to shares of nonvoting capital stock, to the extent necessary to own 80% of each outstanding class of such stock. The purchase price of the shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock purchased upon any exercise of the options, subject to specified exceptions, is based on the market price of the Company's Class A Common Stock. The purchase price of nonvoting capital stock is the price at which such stock may be purchased by third parties. This option terminates when Viacom or its affiliates own less than 45% of the equity of the Company.

Indemnification Procedures. The IPO Agreement sets forth the procedures that the Company and Viacom Inc. are to undertake if either of them demand to be indemnified by the other under any indemnification right given in any of the agreements between the Company and Viacom, other than the Tax Matters Agreement discussed below.

Release and Indemnification Agreement

The Company has entered into a Release and Indemnification Agreement with Viacom Inc., which will be referred to in this Proxy Statement as the

"Indemnification Agreement," under which the Company and Viacom have agreed to indemnify each other and to release each other with respect to certain matters.

Indemnification Relating to the Company's Assets, Businesses and Operations. The Company agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Viacom and certain of its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, heirs, executors, successors and assigns against any payments, losses, liabilities, damages, claims and expenses and costs arising out of or relating to:

(i) the Company's past, present and future assets, businesses and operations and other assets, businesses and operations managed by the Company or persons previously associated with the Company, except for assets, businesses and operations of Paramount Parks Inc., Spelling Entertainment Group Inc. and its subsidiaries, including Republic Entertainment Inc. and Worldvision Inc., Showtime Networks Inc., Virgin Interactive Entertainment Limited and Virgin Interactive Entertainment Inc.; and

(ii) payments, expenses and costs that Viacom paid to a third party associated with the transfer of the Company's assets, businesses and operations from certain Viacom entities to the Company and its subsidiaries.

Viacom similarly agreed to indemnify the Company and certain of its affiliates, and the Company's and such affiliates' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, heirs, executors, successors and assigns, for Viacom's past, present and future assets, businesses and operations, except for assets, businesses and operations for which the Company agreed to indemnify Viacom. In addition, the Transition Services Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Tax Matters Agreement discussed below provide for indemnification between Viacom and the Company relating to the substance of such agreements.

Indemnification Relating to the Company's Initial Public Offering and Other Offerings. The Company generally agreed to indemnify Viacom and certain of Viacom's affiliates against all liabilities arising out of any material untrue statements and omissions in any prospectus and any related registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to the Company's initial public offering or any other primary offering of the Company's securities while controlled by Viacom. However, the Company's indemnification of Viacom does not apply to information relating to Viacom, excluding information relating to the Company. Viacom agreed to indemnify the Company for this information.

Release Relating to Actions by Viacom Related to Viacom's and the Company's Assets, Businesses and Operations. Subject to certain exceptions, the Company released Viacom and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, heirs, executors, successors and assigns for all losses for any and all past actions and failures to take action relating to the Company's and Viacom's assets, businesses and operations. Viacom similarly released the Company.

Transition Services Agreement

The Company and Viacom Inc. have entered into a Transition Services Agreement under which Viacom provides the Company with agreed-upon accounting, legal, management information systems, financial and tax services and employee benefit plan and insurance administration. These services may be changed upon agreement between the Company and Viacom. The fee for these services could be subject to adjustment. Charges under the Transition Services Agreement were $1.8 million during fiscal 2001. The Company also agreed to pay or reimburse Viacom for any out-of-pocket payments, costs and expenses associated with these services.

Registration Rights Agreement

The Company and Viacom Inc. have entered into a Registration Rights Agreement, which requires the Company, upon Viacom's request, to use the Company's reasonable best efforts to register under the applicable federal and state securities laws any of the shares of the Company's equity securities held by Viacom for disposition in accordance with Viacom's intended method of disposition, and to take such other actions as may be necessary to permit the sale in other jurisdictions, subject to specified limitations. Viacom also has the right to include the shares of the Company's equity securities Viacom beneficially owns in other registrations of these equity securities that the Company initiates. Except for the Company's legal and accounting fees and expenses, the Registration Rights Agreement provides that Viacom generally pays all or its pro rata portion of out-of-pocket costs and expenses relating to each such registration that Viacom requests or in which it participates. Subject to specified limitations, the registration rights will be assignable by Viacom and its assigns. The Registration Rights Agreement contains indemnification and contribution provisions that are customary in transactions similar to those contemplated by this document.

Tax Matters Agreement

After the completion of the Company's initial public offering, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries continued to be included in Viacom Inc.'s consolidated group for U.S. federal income tax purposes and Viacom's combined, consolidated or unitary group for various state and local income tax purposes (the "consolidated group"). The Company and Viacom entered into a Tax Matters Agreement whereby for the taxable years and portions thereof prior to August 16, 1999, Viacom has and will pay all taxes for the consolidated group, including any liability resulting from adjustments to tax returns relating to such taxable years or portions thereof. The Company and its subsidiaries will continue to be liable for all taxes that are imposed on a separate return basis or on a combined, consolidated or unitary basis on a group of companies that includes only the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Tax Matters Agreement requires the Company and Viacom to make payments to each other equal to the amount of income taxes that would be paid by the Company, subject to certain adjustments, as if the Company and each of its subsidiaries included in the consolidated group were to file its own combined, consolidated or unitary, or, where only one of the Company's entities is included in the consolidated group, separate, federal, state and local income tax returns for any taxable year or portion thereof beginning after August 16, 1999 in which the Company is included in the consolidated group. This would include any amounts determined to be due as a result of a redetermination of the tax liability of the consolidated group arising from an audit or otherwise. With respect to some tax items attributable to periods following August 16, 1999 during which the Company is included in the consolidated group, such as foreign tax credits, alternative minimum tax credits, net operating losses and net capital losses, the Company has a right of reimbursement or offset, which is determined based on the extent to which, and the time at which, such credits or losses could have been used by the Company or its subsidiaries if it had not been included in the consolidated group. This right to reimbursement or offset continues regardless of whether the Company is a member of the consolidated group at the time the attributes could have been used. The Company is only entitled to reimbursement for carryback items that it could use on a stand alone basis to the extent that such items result in an actual tax savings for the consolidated group. The Tax Matters Agreement also requires the Company, if so requested by Viacom, to surrender some tax losses of the Company's subsidiaries that are resident in the United Kingdom for 1998 and earlier years to Viacom's U. K. subsidiaries without any right to compensation. The Company also agreed to pay Viacom an amount equal to any tax benefit the Company receives from the exercise of Viacom's stock options by the Company's employees, including in years that the Company is no longer included in Viacom's consolidated group. The Company will also pay Viacom the amount of any income taxes with respect to income tax returns that include only the Company, which returns, as described below, will be filed by Viacom.

Viacom continues to have all the rights of a parent of a consolidated group filing consolidated federal income tax returns. Viacom has similar rights provided for by applicable state and local law with respect to a parent of a combined, consolidated or unitary group. Viacom is the sole and exclusive agent for the Company in any and all matters relating to income taxes of the consolidated group. Viacom has sole and exclusive responsibility for the preparation and filing of all income tax returns or amended returns with respect to the consolidated group. Viacom has the sole right to contest or compromise any asserted tax adjustment or deficiency and to file, litigate or compromise any claim for refund on behalf of the consolidated group, except that Viacom is not entitled to compromise any such matter in a manner that would affect the Company's liability under the Tax Matters Agreement without the Company's consent, which may not be withheld unreasonably. Under the Tax Matters Agreement, Viacom has similar authority with regard to income tax returns that the Company files on a separate basis and related tax proceedings. This agreement may result in conflicts of interest between the Company and Viacom.

Provided that Viacom continues to beneficially own, directly or indirectly, at least 80% of the combined voting power and the value of the Company's outstanding capital stock, the Company will be included for federal income tax purposes in the consolidated group of which Viacom is the common parent. Viacom has stated that it is the current intention of Viacom and its subsidiaries to continue to file a single consolidated federal income tax return. In certain circumstances, some of the Company's subsidiaries also will be included with some of Viacom's subsidiaries, other than the Company's subsidiaries, in combined, consolidated or unitary income tax groups for state and local tax purposes. Each member of the consolidated group for federal income tax purposes will be liable for the federal income tax liability of each other member of the consolidated group. Similar principles will apply with respect to members of a combined group for state and local tax purposes. Accordingly, although the Tax Matters Agreement will allocate tax liabilities between the Company and Viacom during the period in which the Company is included in the consolidated group, the Company could be liable for the federal income tax liability of any other member of the consolidated group in the event any such liability is incurred, and not discharged, by such other member. The Tax Matters Agreement provides, however, that Viacom will indemnify the Company to the extent that, as a result of being a member of the consolidated group, the Company will become liable for the federal income tax liability of any other member of the consolidated group, other than the Company's subsidiaries.

Other Arrangements with Viacom and its Affiliates

Interest Rate Swaps

In March 2001, the Company entered into two interest rate swaps with Viacom

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Inc. in order to obtain a fixed interest rate with respect to $400 million of its outstanding floating rate debt under its credit facility. The swaps fixed $200 million of the Company's outstanding debt at an interest rate of 5.01% for two years and the other $200 million at an interest rate of 5.12% for two and one-half years. The Company's effective interest rates also include a LIBOR spread payable under its credit facility. Including the effect of the LIBOR spread, the effective interest rates of the swaps are currently 6.26% and 6.37%, respectively. The swaps are subject to termination in the event that (i) Viacom ceases to own greater than 80% of the Company's outstanding common stock or (ii) the Company no longer has any obligations under the term loan portion of its credit facility.

Paramount Pictures

The Company purchases certain videocassettes and DVDs for rental and sale directly from Paramount Pictures, a Viacom subsidiary. The Company's total purchases from Paramount were $127.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. In addition, Paramount allows the Company to direct a portion of Paramount's home video advertising expenditures. The Company received $8.8 million from Paramount in 2001 related to this arrangement.

Advertising with Viacom Affiliates

The Company uses a third-party agency to allocate its media placement and spending, based on specifications determined by the Company in accordance with independent market studies. The third-party agency conducts a competitive negotiation process with media outlets including Viacom affiliates, which are generally offered an opportunity of first refusal. During the year ended December 31, 2001, about $75.9 million of Blockbuster's aggregate advertising expenditures were spent with Viacom affiliates, which represented 34.4% of the Company's total advertising expenses during 2001.

Midway Games

Sumner M. Redstone and National Amusements, Inc. own an aggregate of about 30% of the common stock of Midway Games Inc. During the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company paid about $3.8 million for purchases of home video games from Midway. The Company believes that the terms of these purchases were no less favorable to the Company than would have been obtainable from parties in which there was no such ownership interest. The Company expects to purchase video games from Midway in the future.

Showtime Networks

The Company also has an agreement with Showtime Networks, Inc., a subsidiary of Viacom Inc., whereby the Company agreed to license from Showtime the exclusive domestic home video rights to up to 180 Showtime original motion pictures and other programs over the period from April 1, 2000 through March 31, 2005. The Company's total purchases from Showtime were $4.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Other

There are various other agreements between the Company and Viacom Inc. and its affiliates, which the Company believes are not material to the Company or Viacom. The Company believes the terms of these agreements approximate those that would be available from third parties.

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DEF 14A

Other Related Party Transactions

Loan to Executive

In connection with the Company's employment of Larry Zine, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Administrative Officer of the Company, the Company agreed to loan Mr. Zine an amount equal to all federal, state and local income taxes payable in connection with his sign-on bonus. The Company has loaned Mr. Zine $246,300, which loan bears interest at 5.25% compounded semi-annually. As of February 28, 2002, approximately $97,700 was outstanding under such loan. The Company also agreed to forgive the aggregate principal amount of the loan, together with any accrued interest thereon, on an income tax free basis in three installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of commencement of Mr. Zine's employment with the Company; provided that, if Mr. Zine terminates his employment without good reason (as defined in his employment agreement with Blockbuster Entertainment Group, a business unit of Viacom Inc.) or the Company terminates Mr. Zine's employment for cause, any outstanding aggregate principal amount of the loan, together with any accrued interest thereon, will accelerate and become immediately due and payable. As of February 28, 2002, the Company had forgiven approximately $169,600 in principal and interest on the loan, including approximately $103,700 since the beginning of fiscal 2001, and had paid approximately $118,100 of taxes, including approximately $72,200 since the beginning of fiscal 2001, on Mr. Zine's behalf. The largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding since January 1, 2001 was approximately $196,600.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors and officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such persons are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports that they file. To the Company's knowledge, based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by it with respect to fiscal 2001, or written representations from certain reporting persons, the Company believes that all filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities have been complied with, except that Richard J. Bressler's initial report on Form 3 was filed after the date set forth in Section 16(a). Mr. Bressler's Form 3, which reported no holdings of Company securities, was filed promptly after the omission was discovered.

In order for a proposal made outside of the requirements of Rule 14a-8 to be considered timely in connection with the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, such proposal must be received by the office of the Secretary of the Company at the address stated above no later than February 26, 2003. The persons named in the proxies solicited by the Company in connection with the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders will vote their proxies in their discretion with respect to any proposal with respect to which the Company has not received notification by such time.
