BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND, INC.

Annual Report
November 30, 2002

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

Fiscal 2002 was a tough year for the market and for the Boulder Growth & Income Fund ("BIF"). The Fund's total return on net asset value (NAV) for the 12 months ending 11/30/2002 (the Fund's new fiscal year) was -20%. The total return on market value was -34%. The reason for the disparity between the Fund's NAV and its market return is that the Fund was trading at a 3.7% discount a year ago and a 21% discount as of 11/30/02.

Obviously the Fund's loss for the year is very disappointing. The S&P 500 Index over the same period posted total return of -16.5%. Not only did the Fund lose money, it performed worse than an unmanaged index. Keep in mind that as Advisers, we didn't assume management until the end of January, and the Fund's change in objective wasn't approved until April. About 1/3 of the losses came from the bonds we inherited. But we can't sugarcoat our performance, and we won't try. Our goal is to make positive returns every year - that is - not to lose money. And over the long term we hope to do better than an unmanaged equity index fund. We picked the S&P 500 because it is well known and fairly representative of the overall market. Unlike investment advisors of most funds, we feel your pain in this loss. Our affiliates owned 1.2 million shares of BIF as of November 30, 2002, so our paper loss for the year was about $2.3 million.

Most of the bonds in the portfolio at the beginning of the year were junk bonds. We have sold nearly all of them, and we're glad we sold them when we did. We had a feeling it would be a tough year for the market, so as we sold bonds, we replaced them with what we thought at the time were relatively safe investments - utility stocks. Good old utilities - you know, the investment your mom and dad made. Safe and sound. No risk. Regular dividends. Regulated industry. Monopoly. Today, in hindsight (which is always 20/20) we can use one word to describe the performance of the utility sector - "lousy". From the beginning of this year, the Philadelphia Utility Index (comprising 20 utility companies) is down 26%. As of 11/30/02, 12% of the Fund's assets were in utilities.

Our objective in the utility sector was to earn a reasonable return through the dividend payout, with the perception that a 7% to 9% return would outperform the market. We were right that a 7% to 9% return would have beaten the market. However, three of the four utilities we purchased either reduced or entirely eliminated their dividend and the fourth likely will also. There is a perceived liquidity risk in the utility industry that the market sees as a reason to sell these companies. The utility industry is capital intensive and uses debt as a financing tool. We knew this going in. But it also has a "captured" customer base, which can't be infringed upon. Some utility companies ventured into unregulated businesses, and overpaid for assets. But we feel the market is over-reacting in some situations. Certainly, it's not unheard of for the market to over-react. Nevertheless, in retrospect, our decision to go into utilities was a bad one. The prices of the utilities we bought were at the low end of their prices for the last business cycle, but continued to get much lower after we bought them. We believe they will recover in price to give us decent returns from the current level, but they will never give us anywhere close to the total return that we expected when we bought them. We simply made a big mistake investing in the utility sector.

We became the investment advisors in January of 2002, but the change in the Fund's objective, which allowed us to invest in common stocks, didn't occur until April of 2002. Take a look at the graph of the S&P 500 Index for the 11 months ending 11/30/02:

We started investing in equities beginning in May, after approval of the new objective. The Index was above 1100 when we got started, and is about 15% below that level on 11/30/02.

Edgar Filing: BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND - Form N-30D

That brings us to our recent rights offering. The Fund issued 5,663,892 new shares at the end of December (after our fiscal year end) at a discounted price of $4.34 per share. This doubled the number of the Fund's outstanding shares. Because we issued new shares at a discount to the Fund's market price (which at the time of the offering was below the Fund's NAV), there was a decline in the Fund's NAV after the rights offering.

We believe that the money raised in the rights offering will be beneficial to the Fund's owners over time. Most funds that do rights offerings do them based only on the Board's decision. This rights offering not only required an affirmative vote from the Board, but also from the shareholders. The bulk of our fellow owners apparently agreed, because a majority of the shares outstanding and of the shareholders both approved the offering.

First, for any new shareholders who acquired Fund shares by purchasing rights, we want to welcome you as fellow shareholders. To learn more about the Fund, you should visit the Fund's website (www.boulderfunds.net) which has a lot of relevant information about the Fund. Second, looking at the graph above, we think this has been a better time to conduct a rights offering than if we had done one when the market was strong and peaking. Third, if you look at the Fund's expense ratio (see more below), spreading the Fund's fixed costs over a greater amount of assets should reduce the Fund's expense ratio.

The Fund shows an expense ratio of 4.40%. This is much higher than we would like. The reason for the higher expense ratio this year is three-fold: First, the Fund incurred significant fees for the proxy relating to the rights offering; second, it incurred significant legal fees related to both the rights offering proxy and the proxy relating to changing the Fund's objective; and third, these one-time expenses were jammed into a shortened 5-month period because we changed our year end which, when annualized, magnifies the effect of the higher expenses.

Now that the rights offering is complete, we are considering issuing leverage. Currently, short-term rates are at historic lows. If we can borrow and earn above the cost of the leverage, it goes into the pockets of the common shareholders. Of course, leverage works the other way too. Any losses incurred on the leverage come out of the pockets of the common shareholders. Issuing leverage will give us an opportunity to take further advantage of investment opportunities currently existing in the market.

We look forward to getting the proceeds of the rights offering invested, and the year ahead.

Sincerely,

/S/ SIGNATURE

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS REGARDING THE BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND

Q: How did the Rights Offering end up?

A: The Rights Offering was fully subscribed. The Fund issued 5,663,892 new shares at a price of $4.34. Total gross proceeds to the Fund were $24,581,291.

Q: Why did the Fund's net asset value drop so much after the Rights Offering?

A: As described in the Rights Offering Prospectus, when new shares are issued below the Fund's net asset value, the result is a decrease in the net asset value calculated after the shares are issued and the proceeds from the rights offering received. Since the Fund's shares were trading at a discount of about 25%, and the subscription price was 95% of the market value, the proceeds from the rights offering were $4.34 per share. The Fund's NAV on December 20, 2002, the expiration of the rights offering, was $6.35. When the new shares were issued on a one-for-one basis, the resulting NAV was the mean, or average, of the NAV of $6.35, and the subscription price of $4.34. Had there been no other changes to the value of the Fund's investments, the resulting NAV would have been $5.35 per share.

Q: At the April 26, 2002 shareholder meeting, shareholders approved a proposal permitting the Fund to leverage itself. Has it done so?

A: We put the idea of leveraging on the back burner for a while and, in hindsight, we're glad we did. We will pick up the idea again early in 2003.

Q: What happened to the dividend?

A: Prior to 2002, the Fund had been paying a quarterly dividend. When shareholders approved the change in objective from "Income" to "Total Return" in April, the Board changed the dividend policy to annual payouts. Typically we will pay any income dividend or capital gain dividend in the month of December. However, because the Rights Offering occurred in December 2002, we will pay any dividend we have in the first quarter of 2003. Any net investment income the Fund earns through November 30, 2003, will be paid out in December 2003. Because of the significant capital loss carry-forwards from losses that the Fund has already realized, it will probably be some time until the Fund will have a capital gain to pay out.

BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Boulder Growth & Income Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"), is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a closed-end, non-diversified management investment company. The policies described below are followed consistently by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

PORTFOLIO VALUATION: The net asset value of the Fund is determined by the Fund's administrator no less frequently than on the last business day of each week and month. It is determined by dividing the value of the Fund's net assets by the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding. The value of the Fund's net assets is deemed to equal the value of the Fund's total assets less the Fund's liabilities. Securities listed on a national securities exchange are valued on the basis of the last sale on such exchange on the day of valuation. In the absence of sales of listed securities and with respect to securities for which the most recent sale prices are not deemed to represent fair market value and unlisted securities (other than money market instruments), securities are valued at the mean between the closing bid and asked prices, or based on a matrix system which utilizes information (such as credit ratings, yields and maturities) from independent sources. Investments for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Board of Directors of the Fund, including reference to valuations of other securities which are considered comparable in quality, maturity and type. Investments in money market instruments, which mature in 60 days or less at the time of purchase, are valued at amortized cost.

SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS AND INVESTMENT INCOME: Securities transactions are recorded as of the trade date. Realized gains and losses from securities sold are recorded on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on ex-dividend dates. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis, with premiums and discounts being amortized or accreted, respectively.

Cash distributions received from the Fund's investment in real estate investment trust ("REITs") and registered investment companies ("RICs") are recorded as income. If the Fund is subsequently informed that such distributions received or a portion thereof are designated as returns of capital, the Fund will reclassify such amounts from income and reduce the cost basis of such securities.

REPURCHASE AGREEMENTS: The Fund may engage in repurchase agreement transactions. The Fund's Management reviews and approves periodically the eligibility of the banks and dealers with which the Fund enters into repurchase agreement transactions. The value of the collateral underlying such transactions is at least equal at all times to the total amount of the repurchase obligations, including interest. The Fund maintains possession of the collateral and, in the event of counterparty default, the Fund has the right to use the collateral to offset losses incurred. There is the possibility of loss to the Fund in the event the Fund is delayed or prevented from exercising its rights to dispose of the collateral securities.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS: Dividends from net investment income, if any, are expected to be declared and paid annually. The Fund had been declaring and paying dividends quarterly, however the Fund's Board of Directors changed this policy to an annual payout rather than quarterly at the April 2002 Board of Directors meeting. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Any net realized short-term capital gains will be distributed to shareholders at least annually. Any net realized long-term capital gains may be distributed to shareholders at least annually or may be retained by the Fund as determined by the Fund's Board of Directors. Capital gains retained by the Fund are subject to tax at the corporate tax rate. Subject to the Fund qualifying as a registered investment company, any taxes paid by the Fund on such net realized long-term gains may be used by the Fund's Shareholders as a credit against their own tax liabilities.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES: The Fund intends to qualify as a registered investment company by complying with the requirements under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to RICs and intends to distribute substantially all of its taxable net investment income to its shareholders. Therefore, no Federal income tax provision is required.

Income and capital gain distributions are determined and characterized in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. These differences are primarily due to (1) differing treatments of income and gains on various investment securities held by the Fund, including timing differences, (2) the attribution of expenses against certain components of taxable investment income, and (3) federal regulations requiring proportional allocation of income and gains to all classes of Shareholders. The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, imposes a 4% nondeductible excise tax on the Fund to the extent the Fund does not distribute by the end of any calendar year at least (1) 98% of the sum of its net investment income for that year and its capital gains (both long term and short term) for its fiscal year and (2) certain undistributed amounts from previous years.

OTHER: The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. INVESTMENT CO-ADVISORY FEES, DIRECTORS' FEES, ADMINISTRATION FEE, CUSTODY FEE AND TRANSFER AGENT FEE

Boulder Investment Advisers, L.L.C. ("BIA") and Stewart Investment Advisers ("SIA") serve as the Fund's Co-Investment Advisers (the "Advisers"). The Fund pays the Advisers a monthly fee at an annual rate of 1.25% of the value of the Fund's average monthly net assets. The equity owners of BIA are Evergreen Atlantic, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company ("EALLC"), and the Lola Brown Trust No. 1B (the "Lola Trust"), each of which is considered to be an "affiliated person" of the Fund as that term is defined in the 1940 Act. Stewart West Indies Trading Company, Ltd. is a Barbados international business company doing business as Stewart Investment Advisers. SIA receives a monthly fee equal to 75% of the fees earned by the Advisers, and BIA receives 25% of the fees earned by the Advisers. The equity owner of SIA is the Stewart West Indies Trust, considered to be an "affiliated person" of the Fund as that term is defined in the 1940 Act.

Fund Administrative Services, LLC ("FAS") serves as the Fund's Administrator. Under the Administration Agreement, FAS provides certain administrative and executive management services to the Fund including: providing the Fund's principal offices and executive officers, overseeing and administering all contracted service providers, making recommendations to the Board regarding policies of the Fund, conducting shareholder relations, authorizing expenses and other administrative tasks. Under the Administration Agreement, the Fund pays FAS a monthly fee, calculated at an annual rate of 0.30% of the value of the Fund's average monthly net assets out of which FAS is required to pay any fees for outsourcing any administrative, custodial or transfer agency services, which it has done. The equity owners of FAS are EALLC and the Lola Trust, each of which is considered to be an "affiliated person" of the Fund as that term is defined in the 1940 Act.

Effective January 28, 2002, the Fund pays each Director who is not a director, officer or employee of the Advisers or FAS a fee of $3,000 for each in-person meeting of the Board of Directors and $500 for each telephone meeting. In addition, the Fund will reimburse all Directors for travel and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such meetings.

FAS has hired PFPC Inc. ("PFPC"), an indirect, majority-owned subsidiary of The PNC Financial Services Group, to serve as a sub-administrator.

Mellon Investor Services, LLC ("Mellon"), serves as the Fund's Transfer Agent. FAS pays Mellon an annual Transfer Agent fee as well as certain expenses. The Fund may also pay for certain out-of-pocket expenses.

State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street"), serves as the Fund's Custodian. FAS pays State Street a monthly maintenance fee as well as certain expenses. The Fund may also pay for certain out-of-pocket expenses.

3. CHANGE IN THE FUND'S INVESTMENT POLICIES, INVESTMENT ADVISERS AND RISKS INVOLVED

CHANGE IN INVESTMENT POLICIES

At a meeting held January 23, 2002, the Board of Directors voted to eliminate the Fund's non-fundamental investment policy which prohibited the Fund from investing for purposes of control or management of any company. Removal of this restriction provides the Fund with flexibility to consider a full range of reasonable investment options when the Advisers consider a particular investment. The Advisers currently do not intend to pursue this type of investment in most circumstances.

The Board also voted to eliminate the Fund's non-fundamental investment policy which prohibited the Fund from investing in other registered investment companies. Under current law, the Fund is able to purchase up to 3% of the voting securities of any one RIC and invest up to an aggregate of 10% of the Fund's assets in RICs.

CHANGE IN PORTFOLIO MANAGER

On April 26, 2002, shareholders approved new advisory agreements with BIA and SIA, resulting in a change to the persons who are primarily responsible for the day-to-day management of the Fund's portfolio. Stewart R. Horejsi is the primary portfolio manager for SIA and is the Fund's primary portfolio manager. He is responsible for the day-to-day strategic management of the Fund's assets. Mr. Horejsi has full discretion regarding specific investment decisions and the Fund's asset allocation among cash, common stocks and fixed income investments. In addition to the Fund, Mr. Horejsi has also managed the Boulder Total Return Fund, Inc. ("BTF") since August 1999. BTF is a closed-end registered investment company traded on the NYSE. Mr. Horejsi was General Manager of Brown Welding Supply, LLC, from April 1994 until the company's sale in 1999; and the President or Manager of various subsidiaries associated with the Horejsi family since the early 1980's. Mr. Horejsi has been the investment adviser for the Horejsi family trusts (i.e., the Lola Brown Trust, the Ernest Horejsi Trust No. 1B, the Stewart R. Horejsi Trust No. 2 and certain other related trusts and affiliates) since the early 1980's. As of July 31, 2002, the size of these trusts' and affiliates' common stock portfolio was approximately $574 million. Mr. Horejsi has been the Director and President of the Horejsi Family Charitable Foundation, Inc. since 1997. Mr. Horejsi received a Masters Degree in Economics from Indiana University in 1961 and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Management from the University of Kansas in 1959.

Carl D. Johns, the Fund's Vice President and Treasurer, is responsible for managing the bonds in the Fund's portfolio. Mr. Johns has assisted in the management of BTF since August 1999. Prior to joining BIA, he worked at Flaherty & Crumrine Incorporated, an investment adviser, from 1992 to 1998. During that period he was an Assistant Treasurer for three NYSE-listed investment companies. Mr. Johns received a Bachelors Degree in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Colorado in 1985, and a Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Colorado in 1991.

CHANGES IN RISK

Risk is inherent in all investing. Investing in any investment company security involves risk, including the risk that you may receive little or no return on your investment or that you may lose part or all of your investment. Therefore, before investing you should consider carefully the following risks that you assume when you invest.

Edgar Filing: BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND - Form N-30D

On April 26, 2002, the Fund's shareholders approved changes to the Fund's investment objective and certain investment restrictions. As a result of the changes to the Fund, the primary risks of investing in the Fund have changed.

The Fund formerly held a substantial amount of non-investment grade bonds ("junk bonds"), many of which the Advisers believe are risky investments. The Fund has substantially transitioned away from these investments and has made substantial investment in common stocks, for capital appreciation, as well as common stocks that pay dividends, including real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and other closed-end investment companies ("RICs"). Investing in common stocks may subject shareholders to more risk than investing in bonds. While both bonds and common stocks are subject to market risk (i.e., the risk that the price of a security (a stock or bond) will rise or fall due to various unpredictable market conditions), common stock price variability has been historically greater than that of bonds.

The Fund is now a "non-diversified management company" as defined by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). This permits the Fund to buy significant positions in stocks of companies that the Advisers find attractive, resulting in the Fund holding larger positions in fewer companies. A more concentrated portfolio may cause the Fund's net asset value to be more volatile than it has been historically and thus may subject shareholders to more risk. The Fund may hold a substantial position (up to 25% of its assets) in the common stock of a single issuer. As of November 30, 2002, the Fund held a significant position in Berkshire Hathaway, Inc., and thus, the volatility of the Fund's common stock, and the Fund's net asset value and its performance in general, depends disproportionately more on the performance of this single issuer than that of a more diversified fund.

The Fund may now invest in real estate, REITs (real estate investment trusts) and other real estate securities. REITs are securities of companies whose primary objective is investment in real property or providing services to real property interests. The Fund may invest up to 25% of its assets in REIT securities. The Fund intends to invest in REIT securities primarily for income. Risks associated with investing in REITs include the potential for loss of value if there is an underlying decline in value of the properties in which the REIT invests. Property valuations may rise and fall with either local economic conditions or with the national economy. Furthermore, the dividend income paid by a REIT may be reduced or eliminated. In addition, the Fund bears its ratable share of REIT expenses while still paying management fees on the Fund assets so invested.

The Fund may now invest up to 10% of its assets in other investment companies registered under the 1940 Act. The Fund may invest in other closed-end RICs when they are trading at a discount, and when market conditions seem appropriate to the Advisers. The Fund intends to normally invest in RICs that pay dividends. The risks associated with investments in RICs include the risk that the dividend paid by the RIC could be reduced or eliminated. As a shareholder in another fund, the Fund will bear its ratable share of that fund's expenses, including management fees, and remains subject to the Fund's advisory and administrative fees with respect to the assets so invested.

4. PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

Cost of purchases and proceeds from sales of securities for the period ended November 30, 2002, excluding short-term investments, aggregated $8,270,142 and $7,449,875 respectively.

At November 30, 2002, aggregate gross unrealized appreciation for all securities in which there is an excess of value over tax cost was $1,250,635 and aggregate gross unrealized depreciation for all securities in which there is an excess of tax cost over value was $11,504,570.

BOULDER GROWTH & INCOME FUND, INC.

5. COMMON STOCK

At November 30, 2002, 250,000,000 of $0.01 par value Common Stock were authorized. There were no Common Stock transactions for the five month period November 30, 2002, or for the year ended June 30, 2002.

6. SIGNIFICANT SHAREHOLDERS

On November 30, 2002, trusts and other entities affiliated with the Horejsi family owned 1,171,400 shares of Common Stock of the Fund, representing approximately 20.68% of the total Fund shares.

7. SHARE REPURCHASE PROGRAM

In accordance with Section 23(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, the Fund hereby gives notice that it may from time to time repurchase shares of the Fund in the open market at the option of the Board of Directors and upon such terms as the Directors shall determine.

8. TAX BASIS DISTRIBUTIONS

Income distributions and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. The character of distributions paid on a tax basis during the period ending November 30, 2002 and the year ended June 30, 2002 is as follows:

	PERIOD ENDING NOVEMBER 2002 ----	YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2002 ----
Distributions paid from:
Ordinary Income .....	$ --	$3,351,050
Short-Term Capital Gain .....	--	--
Long-Term Capital Gain .....	--	--
	-----	-----
	$ --	$3,351,050
	=====	=====

As of November 30, 2002, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Ordinary Income .....	$ 734,464
Unrealized Depreciation .....	(10,253,935)
	-----
	$ (9,519,471)

The Fund had available for tax basis distributions purposes accumulated capital and other losses of $11,050,743, of which $1,114,468 will expire in 11/30/2008 and $9,936,275 will expire in 11/30/2010.

Net investment income and realized gain and loss for federal income tax purposes differ from that reported in the financial statements because of permanent and temporary book and tax differences. These differences are primarily related to differing treatment of long-term capital gains dividends and excess ordinary distributions received from Real Estate Investment Trusts and wash sales. Permanent book and tax basis differences of $(86,716) and $86,716 were reclassified at November 30, 2002 between undistributed net investment income and accumulated net realized loss on investments, respectively, for the Boulder Growth & Income Fund, Inc.

9. RIGHTS OFFERING

On October 15, 2002 the Fund's shareholders approved a transferable rights offering which would permit shareholders to acquire one new share for each share held. The rights were transferable, which allowed shareholders who did not wish to exercise their rights to sell them on the New York Stock Exchange.
