Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 21, 2006, Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a transition agreement with Daniel L. Stevens, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Stevens has announced he intends to retire from active employment with the Company, Home Federal MHC and Home Federal Bank (the "Bank") on September 30, 2008. The material terms of this agreement are summarized in Item 5.02(c) to this Form 8-K and a copy of the agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.13 and incorporated herein by reference.

On August 22, 2006, the Company entered into an agreement with Len E. Williams, who has been appointed President of the Company's subsidiary, Home Federal Bank. The material terms of this agreement are summarized in Item 5.02(c) to this Form 8-K and a copy of the agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.14 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officer; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

(b) Departure of Principal Officer

On August 21, 2006, the Company entered into a transition agreement with Daniel L. Stevens, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Stevens has announced he intends to retire from active employment with the Company, Home Federal MHC and the Bank on September 30, 2008.

The transition agreement identifies Mr. Stevens' transition schedule beginning September 2006 with an eventual retirement date of September 30, 2008. The agreement also defines Mr. Stevens' responsibilities and compensation during the transition period.

A copy of the Transition Agreement with Mr. Stevens is filed as Exhibit 10.13 to this Form 8-K.

(c) Appointment of Principal Officer

On August 22, 2006, the Company announced the appointment of Len E. Williams as President of the Company's subsidiary, Home Federal Bank. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Williams, age 47, previously served as Senior Vice President and Head of Business Banking with Fifth Third Bank and has more than 28 years of banking experience. From 1987 to 2005, he held several management positions with Key Bank, including President of Business Banking from 2003 to 2005. Mr. Williams holds an M.B.A. from the University of Washington and is a graduate of the Pacific Coast Banking School.

On August 22, 2006, the Company entered into an agreement with Mr. Williams that sets forth certain understandings and arrangements with respect to the employment relationship of Mr. Williams with the Bank. The agreement provides that the Bank and Mr. Williams will enter into a one-year employment agreement upon the commencement of his employment. Following the successful completion of the year of service, the Bank will provide a two-year employment agreement including a change of control agreement. Mr. Williams' initial base salary will be $200,000. The Bank shall pay a one-time signing bonus of $100,000, which shall be paid upon the start of employment. Mr. Williams will be eligible to participate in the Bank's year-end cash incentive plan, beginning October 1, 2006. The plan provides for a percentage of base pay to be earned based upon the Bank's adjusted net income before taxes.

The agreement provides that Mr. Williams is to be granted approximately 15,000 shares of the Company's restricted stock. Restricted stock awards vest over a five-year period with the first vesting date approximately one year from the date of employment. Mr. Williams will also be granted approximately 75,333 non-qualified options to purchase the Company's common stock. The stock options vest over a five-year period with the first vesting date approximately one year from the date of employment and expire 10 years from the date of grant.

Mr. Williams is also entitled to participate in the Bank's executive non-qualified deferred compensation plan and the executive automobile plan. Mr. Williams is also entitled to participate in all of the Company's benefit plans that are generally available to all employees, including vacation, 401(k) profit sharing, Employee Stock Ownership Plan, medical and health, life, accident and disability.

In the event of involuntary termination without cause during the first year of employment, Mr. Williams will be paid severance equal to one year's annual base salary.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Williams and any other persons pursuant to which he was selected as an officer. Mr. Williams is not a party to any transaction with the Company and the Bank that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K.

A copy of the employment agreement with Mr. Williams will be filed as an exhibit to Form 8-K upon execution of the agreement. The employment agreement is expected to be finalized within the next 90 days.

Transition Agreement

Effective August 21, 2006, Home Federal Bank, Home Federal Bancorp, Inc., and Home Federal

MHC (collectively "Home Federal") and Daniel L Stevens agree as follows:

Employee:	Daniel L. Stevens, President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO")
Company:	Home Federal Bank 500 12 th Avenue South Nampa, Idaho 83653 References to Home Federal include Home Federal Bank and its affiliated companies Home Federal Bancorp, Inc., and Home Federal MHC. Unless otherwise expressly stated, Home Federal Foundation, Inc. is not covered by this Transition Agreement.
Purpose:	Facilitate the executive succession at Home Federal with the transition of Mr. Stevens to retirement and employment of successor executive. Except as expressly noted, this Transition Agreement does not affect Mr. Stevens' role as a director.
Transition Schedule:	The target schedule for the transition is set forth below. The schedule will be modified to reflect actual developments. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • September 2006: target date for Home Federal to employ successor executive. • January 1, 2008: Mr. Stevens begins a more flexible schedule, with actual schedule coordinated with management and boards of directors of Home Federal ("Board"). • September 30, 2008: date for Mr. Stevens to retire from work from Home Federal.
Transition Responsibilities:	To facilitate the executive succession, Mr. Stevens shall have the following responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resignation as President. Mr. Stevens will continue as CEO of Home Federal and President of Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. and

Home Federal MHC but shall resign as President of Home Federal Bank and the Board of Home Federal Bank shall appoint the successor executive to the office of President of Home Federal Bank. As President of Home Federal Bank, the successor executive shall report to the CEO of Home Federal Bank, and will receive reports from all other functions of Home Federal Bank. The President of

- Home Federal Bank shall perform the duties relating to the day-to-day management of the Home Federal Bank.
 - Perform CEO Duties.
- At the time Mr. Stevens retires (which is contemplated to be September 30, 2008), Mr. Stevens shall offer to resign as CEO and, if accepted, the Board shall appoint the successor executive to the office of CEO of Home Federal. The CEO reports to the Board. At the time of his retirement, Mr. Stevens shall also offer to resign as President of Home Federal Bancorp and Home Federal MHC, if he still holds either of those offices and, if accepted, the Board shall appoint the successor executive to the office of President of those companies. As the successor executive assumes an increasing amount of the daily management of Home Federal, Mr. Stevens' duties will transition to a more strategic focus, including but not limited to strategic planning, franchise expansion, and acquisitions.
- Hire New Executive
- Assist the Board to identify, select, negotiate terms of employment, and employ a person intended to be the successor executive.
- Transition Plan
- In conjunction with the Board, Mr. Stevens will develop a plan to transition and integrate the successor executive into the leadership of Home Federal.
- Train New Executive
- Mentor and train the successor executive from the time the person is hired until Mr. Stevens' retirement from Home Federal. The mentoring and training will cover all aspects of the chief executive officer and president functions for a mid-size community bank. In conjunction with the Board, Mr. Stevens will develop a mentoring and training plan for the successor executive.
- Pace the Transition
- The mentoring and training will be paced according to circumstances and within the following guidelines: (i) the mentoring and training will start when the successor executive is hired, (ii) with increasing responsibility transferred to the successor executive during the mentoring and training period, so that (iii) the successor executive is fully capable of fulfilling the chief executive officer and president functions of Home Federal at the time of Mr. Stevens' target date for relinquishing the CEO responsibilities. The Board retains ultimate authority to adjust the pace or nature of the transition as it deems appropriate.

Transition Compensation:

Compensation shall be as follows:

- General Rule

: Except as set forth below, Mr. Stevens' compensation as an employee of Home Federal (including base and incentive pay and all benefits) shall continue in accord with the Home Federal policies for employees in the position of Mr. Stevens until September 30, 2008 as if Mr. Stevens were a full time employee.

- Vacation and Fringe Benefits:

Mr. Stevens shall not accrue vacation in 2008. Any previously accrued vacation shall be used by the retirement date, or shall be forfeited. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mr. Stevens shall be able to cash out his accrued vacation in accordance with Home Federal's compensation policies. The fringe benefit provisions of Mr. Stevens' employment agreements with Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. and Home Federal Bank shall remain in effect.

- Recognition and Retention Plan ("RRP")

: Mr. Stevens' rights and obligations under the RRP shall be determined by the terms and conditions of the RRP. In summary, Mr. Stevens' rights and obligations continue without interruption because Mr. Stevens will continue as a director.

- Stock Option Plan

: Mr. Stevens' rights and obligations under the "Incentive Stock Option Agreement" and related plan shall be determined by the terms and conditions of the Incentive Stock Option Agreement, except that Mr. Stevens shall immediately surrender the 32,790 incentive stock options exercisable on July 19, 2009 and 32,790 incentive stock options exercisable on July 19, 2010, which shall be replaced by a new grant of 32,790 nonqualified stock options exercisable on July 19, 2009 and 32,790 nonqualified stock options exercisable on July 19, 2010 at the exercise price equal to the market price at the time of the grant.

- Additional Incentive Compensation

: On July 19, 2009, Mr. Stevens shall receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the closing price of one share of Home Federal stock on the Nasdaq Global Market System on the date of this Transition Agreement less the exercise price per share of Mr. Stevens' Incentive Stock Options that would be exercisable on July 19, 2009, times 32,790 (the "2009 Incentive Payment").

	On July 19, 2010, Mr. Stevens shall receive a cash payment equal to the difference between the closing price of one share of Home Federal stock on the Nasdaq Global Market System on the date of this Transition Agreement less the exercise price per share of Mr. Stevens' Incentive Stock Options that would be exercisable on July 19, 2010, times 32,790 (the "2010 Incentive Payment"). The 2009 Incentive Payment and the 2010 Incentive Payment shall be forfeited if Mr. Stevens is not a director of Home Federal on July 19, 2009 and July 19, 2010, respectively because he has resigned as a director of Home Federal or has declined to stand for re-election as a director or if he voluntarily terminates his employment with Home Federal, or experiences a "Termination for Cause" (as that term is defined in Mr. Stevens' employment agreements), prior to the earlier of: (a) the effective time of a "Change in Control" involving Home Federal (as defined in Mr. Stevens' employment agreements), or (b) September 29, 2008 (each a "Vesting Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mr. Stevens shall be fully vested in his 2009 Incentive Payment and 2010 Incentive Payment if: (1) he experiences an "Involuntary Termination" other than a "Termination for Cause" (as those terms are defined in Mr. Stevens' employment agreements) prior to the earlier of the Vesting Dates or (2) he is no longer a director of Home Federal as a result of a "Change in Control" (as defined in Mr. Stevens' employment agreements), in which case he shall be paid those amounts on the dates specified above. • Deferred Compensation: Mr. Stevens participates in four deferred compensation plans. Two plans apply to Mr. Stevens as an employee, and two plans apply to Mr. Stevens as a director. Mr. Stevens' rights and obligations under each deferred compensation plan shall be determined by the terms and conditions of the respective plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly understood that if Mr. Stevens is employed (or on an authorized leave of absence) as of September 30, 2008, he shall receive his full normal retirement benefit under both his Home Federal Salary Continuation Agreement and his Home Federal Executive Deferred Incentive Agreement. In addition, the nonqualified deferred compensation plans in which Mr. Stevens participates shall be amended so that Code Section 409A applies to the minimum extent possible (including by

	maximizing the extent to which pre-2005 benefit accruals or deferred compensation are exempt from the application of Code Section 409A). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ESOP. Mr. Stevens' rights and obligations under the Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP") shall be determined by the terms and conditions of the ESOP. It is expressly understood that if Mr. Stevens is employed (or on an authorized leave of absence) as of September 30, 2008, he shall be considered to be actively employed on the last day of the ESOP plan year for purposes of determining whether he is eligible for a contribution (or share release) allocation under the ESOP. Reasonable efforts shall be made by Home Federal to provide Mr. Stevens with sufficient employment for him to be credited with a year of service under the ESOP for the plan year ending September 30, 2008.
Director:	Mr. Stevens shall continue as a director of, continue to serve as a chair of the Board of, and continue to receive compensation as a director of, Home Federal MHC, Home Federal Bancorp, Inc., Home Federal Bank, and Home Federal Foundation, Inc., in compliance with the procedures for electing and compensating directors and chairs of the boards of directors of those companies.
Termination:	This Transition Agreement may be terminated (i) by consent of both parties, (ii) upon the death of Mr. Stevens, (iii) upon the disability of Mr. Stevens that gives Home Federal the right to terminate Mr. Stevens' employment pursuant to Home Federal's then current employment policies, (iv) by Home Federal to comply with any law, rule or instruction of any governmental authority, including but not limited to any governmental authority regulating Home Federal, (v) by Home Federal if Mr. Stevens ceases to be an employee of Home Federal for any reason prior to September 30, 2008, and (vi) by either party if the other party violates any provision of this Transition Agreement and the violation is not cured within 30 days of notice.
Employment Contract:	Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. and Home Federal Bank have previously entered into employment agreements with Mr. Stevens. The terms and conditions of Mr. Stevens' employment agreements are modified by this Transition Agreement only if and to the minimum extent that the express terms of this

	Transition Agreement directly contradict the terms and conditions of the employment agreements. It is expressly understood that the compensation and benefits provisions of the employment agreements shall remain in effect, except as provided in the "Transition Compensation" section of this Transition Agreement (and then only if not detrimental to Mr. Stevens). This Transition Agreement applies only if Mr. Stevens is an employee of Home Federal.
Regulatory Restrictions:	This Transition Agreement shall be subject to regulatory provisions as set forth in Sections 7(g), (h), (i), (j) and (l) of Mr. Stevens' employment agreements, and the requirements set fourth in Office of Thrift Supervision Regulatory Bulletin RB27b.

Disputes:	Disputes under the Transition Agreement shall be first resolved by discussions, then by mediation, then by arbitration pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association.

PRESS RELEASE - For Immediate Release

HOME FEDERAL BANCORP, INC. ANNOUNCES NEW PRESIDENT

Nampa, ID (August 22, 2006)

- Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") (Nasdaq GSM: HOME), today announced it has appointed Len E. Williams as President of the Company's subsidiary, Home Federal Bank (the "Bank"). Mr. Williams will take over responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the Bank and will report to Daniel L. Stevens who continues as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board.

We are looking forward to the experience Len Williams will bring to the Bank and will look to his leadership skills as he helps us continue to move forward with our established strategic plan," said Mr. Stevens.

Mr. Williams, a 47-year old banking executive from Ohio, expects to begin work at Home Federal Bank on September 11, 2006. "I am excited to be joining a strong company like Home Federal," said Mr. Williams. "The Bank is positioned in an excellent market and I look forward to working with the leadership, employees, and the local community."

In an earlier statement, Mr. Stevens announced that he intends to retire from active employment with the Company, the Home Federal MHC and the Bank on September 30, 2008. Upon Mr. Stevens' retirement, Mr. Williams is expected to assume the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Bank. Following his retirement from employment, Mr. Stevens will remain as Chairman of the Boards of Directors of Home Federal MHC, the Company, and the Bank.

Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. is a savings and loan holding company headquartered in Nampa, Idaho. It is the subsidiary of Home Federal MHC, a federally chartered mutual holding company, and the parent company of Home Federal Bank, a federal savings bank that was originally organized as a building and loan association in 1920. The Company serves the Treasure Valley region of southwestern Idaho, that includes Ada, Canyon, Elmore and Gem Counties, through 14 full-service banking offices and two mortgage loan centers. The Company's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "HOME." The Company's stock is also included in the America's Community Bankers NASDAQ Index.
