CHINA NATURAL RESOURCES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

(Amounts in thousands, except share, per share and per tonne data)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Management has prepared the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2012, and these operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2012.

The condensed consolidated balance sheets at December 31, 2011 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements at that date but does not include all the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2011.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of China Natural Resources, Inc. and those subsidiaries in which the Company has direct or indirect controlling interests (collectively referred to as the Company). The Company's subsidiaries as of December 31, 2011, are as described in the Company's Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2011.

As of June 30, 2012, the Company has a working capital deficiency of CNY431,251 (US$67,807). As of June 30, 2012, Feishang Group Limited, the Company's controlling shareholder (the Shareholder) has confirmed to the Company continuous financial support to the Company. The Company is undertaking renewal negotiations with its financial institutions to seek renewal of its loan facilities in due course and has not, at this stage, sought written commitments for renewal of the loan facilities. However, the Company has discussed its future borrowing needs with its lenders and no matters have been drawn to management's attention indicating that renewals may not be forthcoming on acceptable terms. Subsequent to June 30, 2012, the Company drew down additional bank loans amounting to CNY145,000 (US$22,799) to fund mine improvement projects and working capital. The Company's internal forecasts and projections, taking into account reasonably foreseeable changes in operating performance, as well as capital expenditure, additional borrowing capacity, continued Shareholder support and availability of bank facilities, support the Company's ability to operate within the level of its current capacity.

In view of the foregoing, the Company expects it will have sufficient liquidity to finance its operations for the next twelve months. Therefore, the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The going concern basis assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business.

For the convenience of readers, amounts in Renminbi, the Chinese currency (CNY), have been translated into United States dollars (US$) at the applicable rate of US$1.00 = CNY6.3600 as quoted by Bloomberg Finance L.P. as of June 30, 2012, except as disclosed otherwise. No representation is made that the CNY amounts could have been, or could be, converted into US$ at that rate, or at all.

FIRST-TIME ADOPTION OF IFRS

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS applicable for periods ending on or after December 31, 2011. Accordingly, the financial statements included in this report are prepared to comply with IFRS applicable for the period ending June 30, 2012, together with the comparative period data for the period ended June 30, 2011, as described in the applicable accounting policies.

Notes to reconciliation of condensed consolidated statements of operation for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011:

Incidental income from coal produced during construction stage

Edgar Filing: CHINA NATURAL RESOURCES INC - Form 6-K

Under US GAAP, sales of coal produced during construction stage and the related cost of sales prior to the commercial production start date were recognized as revenue and cost of sales. Under IAS 16, proceeds received prior to the commercial production date is considered as incidental income, and the net incidental income is netted against the deferred exploration and development costs under property, plant and equipment.

The transition from US GAAP to IFRS has not had a material impact on the statement of cash flows except the reclassification of the net cash provided by operating activities of CNY167 (US$26), generated from the sales of coal produced during construction stage prior to the commercial production date, to investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2011.

2. LOSS PER SHARE

Basic loss per share amounts are calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted loss per share assumes the conversion, exercise or issuance of all potential common stock instruments, such as options or warrants, unless the effect is to reduce a loss or increase earnings per share and is calculated using the treasury stock method. With respect to outstanding warrants, the weighted average number of shares of 373,772 and 441,869 shares for the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2011 were not included in the dilutive calculation for those respective periods, as the effect would be anti-dilutive.

SALES AND GROSS PROFIT

Sales for the six months ended June 30, 2012 totaled CNY66.90 million (US$10.52 million), a 1.71% decrease over the same period of 2011. The slight decrease was mainly comprised of: (i) a decrease in the sales volume of iron concentrates by 51.67%, to 6,918 tonnes during the period from 14,315 tonnes for the same period of 2011, due to a Wuhu municipal government's production suspension order of all mines in Wuhu city in the first quarter of 2012 as a result of a mining accident that occurred in Wuhu city (the suspension order was lifted in March 2012); and (ii) a decrease of CNY23.11 million (US$3.63 million) in sales from incidental anthracite trading business during the period from CNY24.22 million (US$3.81 million) for the same period of 2011, partly offset by the approximately 75.83% higher production volume of anthracite during the period, compared to the same period of 2011.

Sales for the second quarter of 2012 totaled CNY37.84 million (US$5.95 million), a 36.91% decrease over the same period last year. This decline was mainly due to: (i) the CNY24.22 million (US$3.81 million) decrease of anthracite trading business; and (ii) an approximately 72.80% decrease in the sales volume of iron concentrates, partly offset by the 64.47% higher production volume of anthracite during the period.

The overall gross profit margin increased from 35.58% for the six months ended June 30, 2011 to 42.17% for the same period of 2012. This increase is mainly contributed by the decreased anthracite trading activities of Guizhou Puxin, which have a relatively lower gross profit margin.

The rise in gross profit margin for the second quarter of 2012, from 35.33% to 40.95% was attributed to the same factors.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Administrative expenses increased by CNY5.33 million (US$0.84 million) or 15.75% to CNY39.17 million (US$6.16 million) for the six months ended June 30, 2012 from CNY33.84 million (US$5.32 million) for the same period of 2011. This was mainly caused by: (i) the rise in entertainment expense of CNY1.63 million (US$0.26 million); and (ii) the increase in payroll expense amounting to CNY3.83 million (US$0.60 million) due to the increase of administrative staff.

Administrative expenses increased by CNY3.82 million (US$0.60 million) or 21.98% to CNY21.20 million (US$3.33 million) for the second quarter of 2012 from CNY17.38 million (US$2.73 million) for the same quarter of 2011. The increase was mainly due to the same reasons cited above.

OTHER OPERATING PROFIT (LOSS)

The increase of other operating loss mainly represented the charging of fixed production overhead such as payroll, electricity, and maintenance fee amounting to CNY2.95 million (US$0.46 million) of Gouchang Coal and CNY1.11 million (US$0.17 million) of Wuhu Feishang Mining Development Co. Limited (Wuhu Feishang), respectively. Operating losses were impacted by suspension orders affecting Gouchang Coal for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 and Wuhu Feishang for the six months ended June 30, 2012. The suspension order affecting Gouchang Coal resulted from a mine gas control inspection conducted in compliance with the circular issued by the State Administration of Coal Mine Safety. The suspension order affecting Wuhu Feishang resulted from a mining accident occurring in a third party mining company in Wuhu city, Anhui Province. The suspension orders have since been lifted.

FINANCE COST

Finance cost increased to CNY11.37 million (US$1.79 million) and CNY20.82 million (US$3.27million) for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, respectively, from CNY6.56 million (US$1.03 million) and CNY11.83 million (US$1.86 million) for the same periods in 2011. This increase was mainly caused by: (i) the rise in the effective interest rate of bank borrowing from 7.49% for the same period of 2011 to 8.60% for the six months ended June 30, 2012; and (ii) the increase in bank borrowing for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, as compared to the same periods of 2011.

INTEREST INCOME

Interest income increased to CNY0.91 million (US$0.14 million) and CNY1.70 million (US$0.27 million) for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, respectively, from CNY0.25 million (US$0.04 million) and CNY0.37 million (US$0.06 million) for the same period in 2011. This increase was caused by the rise in average bank balance.

INCOME TAX EXPENSE

Management believes that the Company is not subject to US taxes.

Under the current laws of the BVI, dividends and capital gains arising from the Company's investments in the BVI are not subject to income taxes and no withholding tax is imposed on payments of dividends to the Company.

All PRC subsidiaries of the Company are subject to income tax at the customary rate of 25% of taxable income, except that Baiping Mining, Gouchang Coal, Linjiaao Coal, Xinsong Coal and Dayuan Coal, subsidiaries of Guizhou Puxin, paid income tax at a rate of CNY9.50 to CNY32 (US$1.49 to US$5.03) per tonne of sales or of 7.5% of sales amount (i.e. deemed basis), as required by the appropriate local tax bureau prior to 2012. In the second half of 2012, the Company received written confirmation from the respective local tax bureaus that those five subsidiaries are subject to income tax at the customary rate of 25% from 2011 and thereafter. The respective local tax bureaus also acknowledged that there was an overpayment of income tax expenses for 2011 made on the deemed basis of sales rather than under the normal filing basis using the customary income tax rate of 25%. In addition, the Company received the oral commitment from the local tax bureaus that the overpayment of income taxes can be used to offset future tax liabilities over the following five consecutive years. Prior to obtaining the confirmation from the local tax bureaus, certain of the five subsidiaries continued to pay monthly income taxes provisionally in 2012 on a deemed basis. These subsidiaries will file their 2012 annual income tax returns at the customary rate of 25% of taxable income subsequent to 2012.

LOSS ATTRIBUTABLE TO OWNERS OF THE COMPANY

The loss attributable to owners of the Company increased by CNY19.47 million (US$3.06 million) from a loss of CNY28.24 million (US$4.44million) for the six months ended June 30, 2011 to a loss of CNY47.71 million (US$7.50million) for the six months ended June 30, 2012. The increase was mainly caused by: (i) the increase in interest expense associated with bank loans amounting to CNY8.99 million (US$1.41 million) in 2012; (ii) the increase in administrative expenses amounting to CNY5.33 million (US$0.84 million) in 2012 and other operating expenses of CNY4.70 million (US$0.74 million); (iii) the increase in profit attributable to non-controlling interests amounting to CNY2.49 million (US$0.39 million); (iv) the drop in gross profit of the metal segment amounting to CNY7.11 million (US$1.12 million) due to the drop in production of iron concentrates; and (v) the increase in income tax expenses amounting to CNY2.54 million (US$0.40 million), partly offset by the gross profit increase of the coal segment amounting to CNY11.11 million (US$1.75 million) due to the increase of anthracite coal mined.

The loss attributable to owners of the Company increased by CNY20.98 million (US$3.30 million) from CNY7.57 million (US$1.19 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2011 to CNY28.55 million (US$4.49 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2012. The increase in loss was mainly due to: (i) the increase in interest expense associated with bank loans amounting to CNY4.81 million (US$0.76 million) in 2012; (ii) the increase in administrative expenses amounting to CNY3.82 million (US$0.60 million) in 2012 and other operating expenses of CNY3.59 million (US$0.56 million); (iii) the drop in gross profit of the metal segment amounting to CNY6.77 million (US$1.06 million) due to the production decrease of iron concentrates; (iv) the gross profit decrease of trading anthracite coal amounting to CNY4.74 million (US$0.74 million); and (v) the increase in income tax expenses of CNY2.63 million (US$0.41 million), partly offset by the gross profit increase of mining anthracite coal amounting to CNY5.82 million (US$0.92 million).

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's primary liquidity needs are to fund operating expenses, capital expenditures and acquisitions. To date, the Company has financed its working capital requirements primarily through internally generated cash, loans from the Shareholder and bank borrowings.

Net cash used for operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2012 was approximately CNY47.82 million (US$7.52 million) as compared to net cash used for operating activities of CNY56.19 million (US$8.83 million) for the corresponding period in 2011. The decrease in net cash outflow was mainly caused by the decrease in trade receivable of the coal business.

The following summarizes the Company's financial condition and liquidity at the dates indicated:

Edgar Filing: CHINA NATURAL RESOURCES INC - Form 6-K

Working capital	(329,313,000)	(431,251,000)

Net cash used in investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2012 was CNY173.09 million (US$27.22 million), as compared with CNY250.70 million (US$39.42 million) in the corresponding period of 2011. The net cash used in investing activities is primarily comprised of the payment for the acquisition of property and equipment amounting to CNY173.98 million (US$27.36 million).

Net cash provided in financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2012 was CNY373.51 million (US$58.73 million), as compared with CNY285.36 million (US$44.87 million) net cash used in the corresponding period of 2011. This was primarily contributed by (i) the loan proceeds of CNY330 million (US$51.89 million) comprised of: CNY130 million (US$20.44 million) by Guizhou Dayun on long-term bank loan drawdown; CNY50 million (US$7.86 million) by Dayuan Coal on long-term bank loan drawdown; and CNY150 million (US$23.59 million) by Guizhou Puxin on short-term bank loan drawdown; (ii) net advances of CNY158.30 million (US$24.89 million) from affiliates; and (iii) the net decrease of restricted bank deposit amounting to CNY10.21 million (US$1.61 million), partly offset by bank loan repayment of CNY120.00 million (US$18.86 million) and CNY5.00 million (US$0.78 million) by Guizhou Puxin and Guizhou Yongfu, respectively.

Our liquidity, including our working capital, has been affected by many factors including:

Ø

Funding of our on-going mining activities through internally generated funds;

Ø

Our ability to secure bank financing as and when required, on acceptable terms;

Ø

Our difficulty in accessing US capital markets to fund PRC operations, in part because investment strategies of institutional investors may be negatively affected by companies that engage in both metal ore and coal mining operations;

Ø

A lack of development of US trading markets for our securities, which has hampered our ability to use our securities as currency to fund acquisitions, business combinations and similar transactions; and

Ø

Differing liquidity needs of the metals segment and the coal segment.

As a result of the foregoing, management continues to evaluate the most effective ways in which to grow our operations, provide for liquidity and maximize shareholder values. Management has engaged investment bankers to advise management with respect to strategic transactions and maximizing shareholder values.

Capital commitments in respect of coal mine development and others as at June 30, 2012 amounted to CNY115.59 million (US$18.17 million).

As of June 30, 2012, the Company has a working capital deficiency of CNY431.25 million (US$67.81 million). The Shareholder has confirmed to the Company continuous financial support to the Company. The Company is undertaking renewal negotiations with the banks in due course and has not, at this stage, sought written commitments for renewal of the loan facilities. However, the Company has discussed its future borrowing needs with its lenders and no matters have been drawn to management's attention indicating that renewals may not be forthcoming on acceptable terms. Subsequent to June 30, 2012, the Company secured additional bank loans amounting to CNY475 million (US$74.69 million), of which CNY145 million (US$22.80 million) has been drawn down up to December 21, 2012 for the purpose of mine improvement projects and working capital. The Company's internal forecasts and projections, taking into account reasonably foreseeable changes in operating performance as well as capital expenditure, additional borrowing capacity, continued Shareholder support and availability of bank facilities, support the Company's ability to operate within the level of its current capacity.

Except as disclosed above, there have been no significant changes in financial condition and liquidity for the period subsequent to June 30, 2012 until December 21, 2012. The Company believes that internally generated funds, bank borrowings and/ or equity/ debt financing from the Shareholder will be sufficient to satisfy its anticipated working capital needs for at least the next twelve months.

In the event that our operating plans change due to changes in our strategic plans, lower-than-expected revenues, unanticipated expenses, increased competition, unfavorable economic conditions or other unforeseen circumstances, including the continued uncertainty surrounding the credit markets, and further weakening of consumer confidence and spending, our liquidity may be negatively impacted. If so, we could be required to adjust our expenditures for the remainder of 2012 and for 2013 to conserve working capital, or raise additional capital, possibly including debt or equity financing, to fund operations and our growth strategy.

OFF BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors.
