Dear Sirs

We have acted as solicitors in Scotland for The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc (the Company) in connection with the Company's offering of US$1,500,000,000 6.40% Senior Notes due 21 October 2019 (the Notes) in an underwritten public offering pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated 14 October 2009 (the Underwriting Agreement) between the Company and RBS Securities Inc. (the Representatives), as representatives of the several underwriters listed in Schedule I of the Pricing Agreement annexed thereto (the Underwriters). The Notes are to be issued pursuant to an Indenture dated as of 21 October 2009 (the Indenture) between the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon, acting through its London branch, as trustee.

We, as your solicitors, have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records, certificates of public officials and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purposes of rendering this opinion.

On the basis of the foregoing, we advise you that, in our opinion, the Notes have been duly authorized in accordance with the Indenture, and, when executed and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and delivered to and paid for by the Underwriters in accordance with the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally (including the Banking Act 2009 and any secondary legislation, instruments or orders made, or which may be made, under it) and equitable principles of general applicability.

The foregoing opinion is limited to the laws of Scotland. We have made no investigation of the laws of any jurisdiction other than Scotland and neither express nor imply any opinion as to any other laws and in particular the laws of the laws of the State of New York and the laws of the United States of America and our opinion is subject to such laws including the matters stated in the opinion of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to a report on Form 6-K to be filed by the Company on the date hereof. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This opinion is rendered solely to you in connection with the above matter. This opinion may not be relied upon by you for any other purpose or relied upon by or furnished to any other person without our prior written consent.

Yours faithfully

/s/ Dundas & Wilson CS LLP

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special United States counsel to The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc, a public limited company organized under the laws of Scotland (the “Company”), in connection with the Company’s offering of $1,500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 6.40% Senior Notes due October 21, 2019 (the “Senior Notes”) in an underwritten public offering pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated October 14, 2009 (the “Base Underwriting Agreement”) and a pricing agreement dated October 14, 2009 (the “Pricing Agreement” and, together with the Base Underwriting Agreement, the “Underwriting Agreement”). The Senior Notes are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of the senior debt securities indenture dated October 21, 2009 (the “Indenture”) between the Company and the Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch, as trustee (the “Trustee”).

We, as your counsel, have examined the originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction of such corporate records of the Company and such other documents and certificates as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter expressed.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, assuming that the Senior Notes have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company insofar as Scots law is concerned, the Senior Notes, when authenticated in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and delivered and paid for in accordance with the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, will be valid and binding obligations of the Company entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms.

Our opinion is subject to the effects of applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally, concepts of reasonableness and equitable principles of general applicability.

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York, and we express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States. Insofar as the foregoing opinion involves matters governed by Scots law, we have relied, without independent investigation, on the opinion of Dundas & Wilson CS LLP, special legal counsel in Scotland for the Company and the Bank, dated October 21, 2009, to be filed on Form 6-K concurrently with this opinion.

A New York limited liability partnership. The principal place of business of the partnership in Great Britain is the address set forth above at which a list of the partners' names is open for inspection.
