NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)
(Thousands)

1. The statements for the three months ended April 27, 2002 and April 28, 2001 are unaudited; in the opinion of the Company such unaudited statements include all adjustments (which comprise only normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of the results of such periods. The results of operations for the three months ended April 27, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for the year ending January 25, 2003. The consolidated financial statements and notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes for the years ended in January 2002 and 2001 included in the Company's January 26, 2002 Annual Report to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K/A.

Restatement

In November, 2002 the company announced that it would restate financial results for its accounting for the August 2000 acquisition of Delco International Ltd. The company concluded that adjustments were needed to its initial purchase price allocation to record compensation related to employment agreements, and inventory and repacking, moving and temporary warehousing related to inventory and other period costs previously recorded as goodwill, and to appropriately recognize the deferred tax effects of the acquisition. In addition, reclassifications were made between various balance sheet accounts, including inventory, receivables, fixed assets, goodwill, other assets, and accrued liabilities to properly classify fair value and other adjustments associated with the acquisition. The cumulative effect of these restatements results in the recognition from August 2000 through July 2002 of additional compensation expense, integration expenses, and tax expense totaling $3.4 million as compared to what was previously reported. On December 5, 2002, the Company announced in a press release that it intended to file the restatement, and by letter dated December 13, 2002, the SEC notified the Company that it was conducting an informal inquiry regarding the restatement. The Company is fully cooperating with the SEC in the informal inquiry.

The consolidated balance sheet as of April 2002 has been restated to reflect the effects of the adjustments described above. Retained earnings has been decreased $3.3 million from $65.2 million as previously reported to $61.9 million as restated to recognize the cumulative effect of increased compensation expense of $1.0 million, increased cost of sales of $1.2 million, increased integration costs of $500, reduced goodwill amortization of $640, and increased income tax expense of $1.2 million. Goodwill has been restated downward from $133.5 million as previously reported to $131.2 million as restated principally to reflect the reversal of compensation and integration costs included in the purchase price allocation approximating $3.2 million, reclassify $2.2 million of fair value adjustments and exit costs from accrued liabilities into goodwill, to increase net deferred tax assets related to the acquisition of $1.9 million, and to reduce accumulated amortization of goodwill by $640. The remaining changes to other current assets, property, plant and equipment, deferred income taxes, accrued liabilities and accrued income taxes were the result of balance sheet reclassifications as part of the restatement process.

Retained earnings	63,918	(3,280)	60,638

The consolidated balance sheet as of January 2002 has been restated to reflect the effects of the adjustments described above. Retained earnings has been decreased $3.3 million from $63.9 million as previously reported to $60.6 million as restated to recognize the cumulative effect of increased compensation expense of $1.0 million, increased cost of sales of $1.2 million, increased integration costs of $500, reduced goodwill amortization of $640, and increased income tax expense of $1.2 million. Goodwill has been restated downward from $134.1 million as previously reported to $131.8 million as restated principally to reflect the reversal of compensation and integration costs included in the purchase price allocation approximating $3.2 million, reclassify $2.2 million of fair value adjustments and exit costs from accrued liabilities into goodwill, to increase net deferred tax assets related to the acquisition of $1.9 million, and to reduce accumulated amortization of goodwill by $640. The remaining changes to other current assets, property, plant and equipment, deferred income taxes, accrued liabilities and accrued income taxes were the result of balance sheet reclassifications as part of the restatement process.

Due to the restated financial results for the 2001 fiscal year, the company was not in compliance with certain of its loan covenants with respect to its senior notes and revolving credit agreement. Waivers for the non-compliance have been obtained from the company's lenders.

2. The provision for income taxes is based on pre-tax income for financial statement purposes with an appropriate deferred tax provision to give effect to changes in temporary differences between the financial statements and tax bases of assets and liabilities. The temporary differences arise principally from restructuring charges, postretirement benefits, depreciation and other employee benefits.

3. Basic and diluted earnings per share are presented for each period in which a statement of operations is presented. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income less preferred stock dividends by the weighted average shares actually outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share includes the potentially dilutive effect of shares issuable under the employee stock purchase and incentive stock option plans.

The following is a reconciliation of basic earnings per share to diluted earnings per share for the three months ended April 27, 2002 and April 28, 2001:

	Net Income	Preferred Stock Dividends	Adjusted Net Income	Average Shares	Earnings Per Share

4. Included in the long-term debt caption on the balance sheet are various senior notes. The note agreements relating thereto contain provisions which, among other things, require maintenance of certain financial ratios related to levels of indebtedness, minimum net worth and interest coverage levels. The covenants limit certain types of payments including dividends, capital expenditures, intercompany indebtedness and letters of credit. Under the provisions of the amended note agreements, at April 27, 2002, the Company was able to declare dividends of up to $375 per quarter.

5. The Company's operations and assets are in one principal industry; tableware products. The Company's reportable segments are grouped around the manufacture and distribution of three major product categories: metal tableware, china dinnerware and glass tabletop products. The Company also distributes a variety of other tabletop accessories. These products are sold directly to a broad base of retail outlets including department stores, mass merchandisers, Oneida Home stores and chain stores. Additionally, these products are sold to special sales markets, which include customers who use them as premiums, incentives and business gifts. The Company also sells directly or through distributors to foodservice operations worldwide, including hotels, restaurants, airlines, cruise lines, schools and healthcare facilities. The Company's operations are located in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Italy, Australia, The United Kingdom, Hong Kong and China.

Sales by reportable segment for the first quarter of 2002 and 2001 were as follows:

2002 Net Sales	$69,600	$36,200	$7,100	$2,106	$115,006
2001 Net Sales	$83,500	$33,900	$7,900	$1,506	$126,806

6. In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board approved Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 "goodwill and other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142"). We adopted SFAS 142 effective January 27, 2002. Under this standard, amortization of goodwill and certain intangible assets, including certain intangibles recorded as a result of past business combinations, is to be discontinued upon adoption of SFAS 142. The new standard requires that goodwill and intangible assets be tested for impairment on an annual basis. The Company will be performing the tests of goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets in the second fiscal quarter of 2002. No material impact on the earnings or financial position of the Company is expected due to the adoption of SFAS 142.

The following is a reconciliation assuming goodwill and other intangible assets had been accounted for in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 142 in the quarter ended April 28, 2001. The net income is restated as discussed in Note 1.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS Quarter ended April 27, 2002 compared with the quarter ended April 28, 2001
(In Thousands)

The Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations presented below reflects the impact of the restatements to the Company's previously reported Consolidated Financial Statements as further discussed below.

Restatement

In November, 2002 the company announced that it would restate financial results for its accounting for the August 2000 acquisition of Delco International Ltd. The company concluded that adjustments were needed to its initial purchase price allocation to record compensation related to employment agreements, and inventory and repacking, moving and temporary warehousing related to inventory and other period costs previously recorded as goodwill, and to appropriately recognize the deferred tax effects of the acquisition. In addition, reclassifications were made between various balance sheet accounts, including inventory, receivables, fixed assets, goodwill, other assets, and accrued liabilities to properly classify fair value and other adjustments associated with the acquisition. The cumulative effect of these restatements results in the recognition from August 2000 through July 2002 of additional compensation expense, integration expenses, and tax expense totaling $3.4 million as compared to what was previously reported. On December 5, 2002, the Company announced in a press release that it intended to file the restatement, and by letter dated December 13, 2002, the SEC notified the Company that it was conducting an informal inquiry regarding the restatement. The Company is fully cooperating with the SEC in the informal inquiry.

Net income for the quarter ended April, 2002 decreased from $1,702 as previously reported to $1,648 as restated while earnings per share remained unchanged at $.10. This reduction results from recognition of additional compensation expense of $86, net of an associated income tax benefit of $32.

Net income (loss) for the three month period ended April 2001 decreased from $444 and $.02 per share as previously reported to ($418) and ($.03) per share as restated as a result of the recognition of additional compensation expense of $339, cost of sales of $956, integration costs of $73, less an income tax benefit of $506.

The consolidated balance sheet as of April 2002 has been restated to reflect the effects of the adjustments described above. Retained earnings has been decreased $3.3 million from $65.2 million as previously reported to $61.9 million as restated to recognize the cumulative effect of increased compensation expense of $1.0 million, increased cost of sales of $1.2 million, increased integration costs of $500, reduced goodwill amortization of $640, and increased income tax expense of $1.2 million. Goodwill has been restated downward from $133.4 million as previously reported to $131.2 million as restated principally to reflect the reversal of compensation and integration costs included in the purchase price allocation approximating $3.2 million, reclassify $2.2 million of fair value adjustments and exit costs from accrued liabilities into goodwill, to increase net deferred tax assets related to the acquisition of $1.9 million, and to reduce accumulated amortization of goodwill by $640. The remaining changes to other current assets, property, plant and equipment, deferred income taxes, accrued liabilities and accrued income taxes were the result of balance sheet reclassifications as part of the restatement process.

Quarterly Review

Consolidated net sales for the quarter ended April 27, 2002 were $11,800 lower than in the first quarter of the prior year, reflecting continuing softness in the overall economy. In spite of slowdowns in consumer and foodservice sales levels, sales of dinnerware products increased in both markets.

Gross margin as a percentage of net sales was 32.6% in the first quarter of 2002, comparable to the 32.0% realized for the same period of 2001. As was done through most of 2001, the Company ran its manufacturing facilities at lower volumes to better match incoming order levels. This resulted in overhead variances and plant utilization inefficiencies.

Total operating expenses decreased by $2,850, or 8.3%, from the same quarter last year. This decrease is attributable to the reduction of goodwill amortization of $918, in accordance with the adoption of FAS # 142 and continued efforts to reduce operating costs. As a percentage of sales, operating expenses were slightly higher than the same quarter last year at 27.4% compared to 27.1%

Interest expense, prior to capitalized interest, was $4,112 for the quarter ended April 27, 2002, a decrease of $3,100 from the first quarter of 2001. This decrease is due to significantly lower average borrowings and lower prevailing interest rates incurred throughout the current quarter.

Liquidity & Financial Resources

A prime objective of the Company since mid-2000 has been to strengthen its balance sheet and reduce debt. During the first quarter of 2002, continued significant progress was made toward these goals. Inventories were decreased by an additional $9,000 during the quarter and debt was reduced by approximately $15,000 in the same period. Cash flow generated from operations for the first quarter was $7,684, as compared to a net operating usage of cash of $1,648 in the prior year's first quarter. During the first quarter of 2002, the Company received approximately $3,100 from the sale of marketable equity securities. These proceeds were directly applied to pay down debt. The Company spent approximately $1,900 in the first quarter on capital projects focused primarily on its manufacturing facilities. Capital spending for the remainder of 2002 is anticipated to be approximately $8,100.

Included in the long-term debt caption on the balance sheet are various senior notes. The note agreements relating thereto contain provisions which, among other things require maintenance of certain financial ratios related to levels of indebtedness, minimum net worth and interest coverage levels. The covenants limit certain types of payments including dividends, capital expenditures, intercompany indebtedness and letters of credit. Under the provisions of the amended note agreements, at April 27, 2002, the Company was able to declare dividends of $375 per quarter.

Management believes there is sufficient liquidity to support the Company's ongoing funding requirements from future operations as well as the availability of bank lines of credit. Working capital was $182,874 as of April 27, 2002 as compared to $194,325 at January 26, 2002.

Due to the restated financial results for the 2001 fiscal year, the company was not in compliance with certain of its loan covenants with respect to its senior notes and revolving credit agreement. Waivers for the non-compliance have been obtained from the company's lenders.

Critical Accounting Policies

The company's accounting policies are more fully described in Footnote 1 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in its Annual Report for the years ended January 2002 and 2001 included in the January 26, 2002 Annual Report to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K filed in April, 2002. As disclosed in Note 1, the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying footnotes. Future events and their effects cannot be determined with absolute certainty. Therefore, the determination of estimates requires the exercise of judgment. Actual results occasionally will differ from those estimates, and such differences may be material to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The most significant accounting estimates inherent on the preparation of the company's financial statements includes estimates as to the recovery of accounts receivable, inventory, goodwill, other long-lived assets and deferred tax assets. Various assumptions and other factors underlie the determination of these significant estimates. The process of determining significant estimates is fact specific and takes into account factors such as historical experience, current and expected economic conditions, product mix and actuarial determinations. The Company re-evaluates these significant factors as facts and circumstances dictate. Historically, actual results have not differed significantly from those determined using the estimates described above.

The valuation of the company's pension, other post-retirement plans and self insured workers compensation plan require the use of assumptions and estimates that are used to develop actuarial valuations of expenses and assets/liabilities. These assumptions include discount rates, investment returns, projected salary increases and benefits, and mortality rates. The actuarial assumptions used in the company's pension reporting are reviewed annually and compared with external benchmarks to help assure that they actuarially account for the company's future pension and other post-retirement obligations. Changes in assumptions and future investment returns could potentially have a material impact on pension expense and related funding requirements.

The company offers various sales discounts and co-op advertising incentives to a broad base of customers. These discounts and incentives, along with net freight costs, are recorded as a reduction of sales. The company records accruals for these discounts and incentives as sales occur. Management regularly reviews the adequacy of the accruals based on current customer purchases. The amounts due to customers are paid or deducted from accounts receivable balances throughout the year.

Forward Looking Information

With the exception of historical data, the information contained in this Form 10-Q, as well as those other documents incorporated by reference herein, is forward-looking. For the purposes of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Company cautions readers that changes in certain factors could affect the Company's future results and could cause the Company's future consolidated results to differ materially from those expressed herein. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic conditions in the Company's markets; difficulties or delays in the development, production and marketing of new products; the impact of competitive products and pricing; certain assumptions related to consumer purchasing patterns; significant increases in interest rates or the level of the Company's indebtedness; major slowdowns in the retail, travel or entertainment industries; the loss of several of the Company's major customers; under utilization of the Company's plants and factories; the amount and rate of growth of the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

The company's market risk is impacted by changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. Pursuant to the company's policies, the company does not hold or issue any significant derivative financial instruments.

The company's primary market risk is interest rate exposure in the United States. Historically, the company manages interest rate exposure through a mix of fixed and floating rate debt. The majority of the company's debt is currently at floating rates. Based on floating rate borrowings outstanding at October 2002, a 1% change in the rate would result in a corresponding change in interest expense of $2.3 million.

There have been no other material changes to the Company's disclosures related to certain market risks as reported under Part II, Item 7A, "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk," in the Annual Report of the Company to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K for the year ended January 26, 2002.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer have carried out an evaluation, with the participation of the company's management, of the design and operation of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures" (as defined in Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) within 90 days of the date of this report. That evaluation included consideration of those controls in light of the just completed review of the Company's financial statements for the prior 8 quarters. Based upon that evaluation, each has concluded that the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures" are effective to insure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that we file under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations.

Changes in Internal Controls

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls, nor any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in such controls requiring corrective actions, subsequent to the date of their evaluation.
