In addition, management will report on the Company's performance and respond to questions from stockholders.

Who can attend the Meeting?

All holders of Common Stock as of the Record Date, or their duly appointed proxy, may attend the Meeting. If you plan to attend the Meeting, please check the appropriate box on your proxy card. The Company will then place your name on an admission list held at the entrance to the Meeting.

Instead of submitting proxies by mail on the enclosed proxy card, stockholders have the option to submit their proxies or voting instructions electronically through the Internet or by telephone. Please note that there may be separate arrangements for using the Internet and telephone depending on whether your shares are registered in the Company's stock records in your name or in the name of a brokerage firm or bank. Stockholders should check their proxy card or voting instructions forwarded by their broker, bank or other holder of record to see which voting options are available.

The Internet and telephone procedures described above for submitting your proxy are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to have their shares voted and to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded. Stockholders submitting proxies or voting instructions via the Internet should understand that there might be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, that would be borne by the stockholder.

May I revoke my proxy?

A stockholder signing and returning a proxy on the enclosed form has the power to revoke it at any time before the shares subject to it are voted, by notifying the Corporate Secretary in writing of such revocation, by filing a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Properly executed proxies, not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained thereon.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for the oversight of the quality and integrity of the financial reporting process and internal and financial controls. The Committee's function is fully described in its charter, which the Board has adopted and which can be viewed on the Company's web site. The Audit Committee reviews the charter on an annual basis.

The Audit Committee is composed entirely of independent Directors who have no relationship to the Company that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company. The Audit Committee meets independence standards established by the NYSE and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Board has determined that Mr. Mahoney, Chairman of the Audit Committee, as defined by SEC rules, is both independent and an audit committee financial expert.

The Board has designated the Audit Committee to also serve as the Company's Qualified Legal Compliance Committee (QLCC) in accordance with SEC rules and regulations. The QLCC is responsible for handling reports of a material violation of the securities laws or a breach of a fiduciary duty by the Company, its officers, directors, employees, or agents. The QLCC has the authority and responsibility to inform the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Legal Officer of any violations. It can determine whether an investigation is necessary and can take appropriate action to address these reports. If an investigation is deemed necessary or appropriate, the QLCC has the authority to notify the Board, initiate an investigation and retain outside experts. The charter of the QLCC can be viewed on the Company's web site.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the Company's independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The Company has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including matters in such written disclosures, and has considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed and reviewed with the Company's independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communications with Audit Committees. These communications were with and without management present, and discussed and reviewed, the overall scope and plans for the audit, the results of their examination of the financial statements, their evaluation of the Company's internal controls within the context of the audit performed, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee meets quarterly with independent auditors, internal auditors and senior management to review the Company's interim financial results before the quarterly earnings press release is published. The Audit Committee also discussed audit plans and results of the internal audit examinations with the internal auditors.

The Audit Committee reviewed with management and the independent auditors the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended September 25, 2004. Management has the primary responsibility for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, and applicable laws and regulations. The independent auditors have a responsibility to express an opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the Company's consolidated financial position and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

In reliance on reviews and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 25, 2004 for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee and the Board have also appointed the Company's independent auditors.

Principal Accounting Fees and Services

The Audit Committee has reviewed and approved the fees paid to the independent auditors during fiscal 2004 for the categories listed below. The Audit Committee has determined that the provision for non-audit services is compatible with Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

The following table represents fees for professional audit services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the years ended September 25, 2004 and September 27, 2003, and fees billed for other services performed by Ernst & Young LLP during these periods.

COMPENSATION AND NOMINATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation and Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors (Committee) is responsible for establishing corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer, evaluating the Chief Executive Officer's performance and determining and approving the Chief Executive Officer's compensation. In addition, the Committee makes recommendations to the Board with respect to ADVO's non-CEO compensation, incentive plans and equity plans (which it administers) and provides oversight for ADVO's executive compensation policy and philosophy. The Committee's nomination-related responsibilities include identifying individuals qualified to be Board members, recommending to the Board director nominees to fill vacancies or to be presented to the stockholders for approval, periodically reviewing the membership of Board committees and making recommendations to the Board on committee assignments, and evaluating director candidates proposed by stockholders and making recommendations to the Board on such candidates.

While discharging its duties, the Committee strives to align the interests of stockholders with the needs of management. The Committee believes that preserving full compensation deductibility as permitted under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code), as amended, is one of many factors to be considered in making compensation decisions. The Company recognizes, however, that flexibility is necessary and must be maintained for situations in which the interests of the Company are better served by foregoing full deductibility. The Committee is composed entirely of independent directors.

Compensation Philosophy

ADVO's compensation programs are designed to:

- provide a fair, competitive and dynamic compensation program;
- attract, retain, and develop a highly skilled and motivated workforce;
- tie compensation directly to ADVO's financial and operational performance;
- foster long-term stockholder value and the attainment of specific strategic initiatives by emphasizing variable rather than fixed compensation; and
- align stockholders' and management's interests.

To accomplish these objectives, ADVO's executive compensation program is composed of base salary and short-term and long-term incentives, which taken together, provide a competitive compensation package that is highly leveraged toward the attainment of superior Company performance. The Committee determines, reviews and approves the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, and approves the compensation of the other executive officers. The compensation package of all executive officers has three main parts: (1) base salary (cash compensation), which is reviewed annually; (2) annual incentive payments; and (3) equity compensation.

Table of Contents

Base Cash Compensation

ADVO's philosophy is to pay competitive base cash compensation as compared with a broad spectrum of organizations. To assess its competitive position, ADVO participates in and reviews salary surveys that include companies from multiple industry segments. The participating companies represent a cross section of organizations in various industries and are of similar size and scope to ADVO. Such participating companies may or may not be included in the peer group analysis found in this Proxy Statement under Company Financial Performance, because many of ADVO's competitors for executive talent fall outside of ADVO's business competitor peer group or are privately held. The surveys utilized are professionally administered by third parties and provide data concerning each of the different functional areas of ADVO's organization. In general, ADVO's level of cash compensation is within the third quartile of the marketplace (better than the bottom 50%, but less remunerative than the top 25%). ADVO periodically avails itself of such salary surveys, annually reviews its base compensation and incentive structure and adjusts each as necessary to reflect market conditions.

Base Pay

Individual base pay is determined by considering:

the individual's background, competencies, experience and current salary in relation to the market;

accomplishments as determined by the individual's performance appraisal; and the financial spending guidelines of the Company.

Short-Term Incentive

ADVO is committed to tie associate performance with overall corporate financial performance. With that in mind, ADVO strives to provide significant financial incentives to its associates who attain and exceed established financial objectives that are aligned with ADVO's overall goals. Such incentives are made pursuant to ADVO's 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan (the 1998 Plan), which was approved by stockholders in 1999, and the ADVO Incentive Plan. These plans provide a strong link between the associate's accountabilities and impact and business performance through the use of operationally tailored measurement criteria focusing on margin improvement and/or operating income goals. These plans provide a competitively benchmarked target award based on the individual's job grade level. The target awards range from 5% to 100% of salary. As described more fully below, for superior performance, payouts may exceed 100%. To realize the target award, certain company-wide financial performance objectives must be attained. These objectives include corporate and subsidiary targets and are measured in terms of achievement versus the annually established ADVO financial and operating plan. Beginning in fiscal 2005, the corporate measure is based on revenues in addition to consolidated operating income.

The mix and weighting of the measurement criteria is dependent on the organizational role of each individual. All individuals eligible for incentive compensation have at least a portion of their target award based on ADVO's attainment of planned consolidated operating income. Incentives are subject to a capped individual payout. Specific plan targets are not disclosed herein because they are considered confidential and their disclosure could injure ADVO's competitive position. The performance attainment and resulting payout for each objective is evaluated and calculated independently. Performance below plan results in ratably lower payouts, and performance above plan results in ratably higher payouts. For superior performance, the aggregate incentive payout as a result of the attainment of the established objectives can be as high as 200% of the target award for senior executives. In order to receive any incentive payout, certain minimum levels of plan attainment must be achieved. Therefore, no incentive payments are made when operating income is below the established threshold. Under the ADVO Incentive Plan, the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer make all final decisions concerning plan participation and payouts. Awards for certain positions may be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. ADVO reserves the right to alter, suspend or terminate the ADVO Incentive Plan at any time without notice and without any liability for making any payments under that plan. The payout percentage in fiscal 2004 was 25% of the eligible associates target award.

Long-Term Incentive

In order to focus management on the long-term interests of shareholders and to align the interests of the executive officers with ADVO's long-term goals, a significant portion of overall executive compensation is based on at-risk equity compensation. Accordingly, in determining or approving the compensation of ADVO's executive officers, the Committee generally places less emphasis on base salary and employee benefits than on annual incentives and equity-based compensation. The 1998 Plan is ADVO's primary vehicle for providing long-term incentives. The 1998 Plan is intended to:

link compensation opportunities to ADVO's achievements;

balance annual results with ADVO's long-term performance; and strengthen the partnership between ADVO's executives and its stockholders.

Participation in the 1998 Plan is limited to key management and executives in the Company. Long-term compensation targets vary by the level of the individual's position and are based on market analysis provided from independent consultants. Periodically, these targets are reviewed. These targets are expressed as a fixed share amount, based on the grade level of the executive's position. Stock options granted in fiscal 2004 were granted with exercise prices equal to the fair market value of ADVO's Common Stock as of the date of grant and with 10-year terms.

Restricted stock may also be granted under the 1998 Plan. Restricted stock grants have primarily been made to non-employee directors as part of their annual compensation and for hiring, promotion and retention of key personnel. When utilized in connection with hiring, promotion and retention, the number of restricted shares granted is based upon the grade level of the position being filled. During fiscal 2004, ADVO granted 27,000 shares of restricted stock to six non-employee directors. ADVO also granted 28,826 shares of restricted stock and 26,000 restricted stock units to a limited number of key individuals in connection with hiring and retention.

To foster greater alignment of the interests of executives and stockholders, ADVO expects those executives who receive stock options or other stock rights to also make a personal financial commitment to acquire and hold significant amounts of ADVO stock. Persons receiving stock options or other stock rights are asked to acquire ADVO stock over a five-year period in an amount expressed as a portion of their annual base salary. The guidelines range from 300% of base salary for the Chief Executive Officer to 25% of base salary for entry-level stock option recipients. These guidelines affect approximately 120 persons.

CEO Compensation and Company Performance

The Committee determines the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and annually reviews his performance and salary. The Committee, at its discretion, may increase, but not decrease, his salary. Independent executive compensation consultants are typically engaged to assist in this review process.

The employment agreement of the Company's former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Gary Mulloy, was scheduled to expire on December 31, 2004. As a result, the Committee conducted a comprehensive analysis of Mr. Mulloy's performance and compensation. Mr. Mulloy left ADVO in June 2004.

Pursuant to his severance agreement, Mr. Mulloy is entitled to receive monthly payments in an amount equal to his base salary and target bonus until June 14, 2006. During fiscal year 2004, those payments totaled $201,000. In addition, upon execution of his severance agreement, Mr. Mulloy received a one-time payment of $50,000 for administrative services in consideration of his office and administrative needs. While receiving payments under his severance agreement, Mr. Mulloy also continues to participate in ADVO's medical and certain other benefit plans and to receive his housing allowance. Mr. Mulloy received one year's base salary in lieu of a short-term incentive payment for fiscal 2004. Mr. Mulloy is no longer eligible to receive grants of options or other stock rights, but those already granted continue to vest while he is receiving payments under his severance agreement.

Table of Contents

Upon Mr. Mulloy's departure, the Board appointed Bobbie Gaunt, an independent director, as Interim Chief Executive Officer. In such capacity, Ms. Gaunt accepted the responsibilities of not only chief executive, but also the tasks of recruiting and hiring a new CEO and assisting in his or her transition. As provided in her employment agreement, Ms. Gaunt received cash compensation in an amount equal to $90,000 per month. Her employment agreement also provided for the grant of 4,500 shares of restricted stock in January 2005, as if she had remained an independent director throughout all of 2004, and certain other benefits, such as state tax equalization payments, automobile and housing allowance. Ms. Gaunt was paid an aggregate of $288,000 of cash compensation as Interim Chief Executive Officer in fiscal 2004.

The Committee engaged a professional executive search firm to identify candidates for a new CEO. After the Committee interviewed and evaluated a number of candidates, ADVO hired a new Chief Executive Officer, S. Scott Harding. As a result, effective October 14, 2004, Ms. Gaunt resigned her position as Interim Chief Executive Officer, terminating her contract prior to its stated expiration date, December 31, 2004. In consideration of her service, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors approved the issuance of 10,000 shares of restricted stock to Ms. Gaunt, which cliff vest two years from the date of grant.

Effective October 15, 2004, S. Scott Harding became ADVO's Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Harding's employment agreement is for a three-year term with automatic one-year renewals, absent contrary notice at least 90 days in advance. The agreement provides for cash compensation of $775,000 per year and various benefits and eligibility to receive short-term incentive compensation under the 1998 Incentive Compensation Plan. Mr. Harding is eligible for a target annual bonus equal to 100% of his salary, determined in a manner consistent with ADVO's bonus program applicable to senior executives, and like those of other senior executives is based solely upon ADVO's attainment of its corporate financial goals. (See Executive Agreements on page 19 of this Proxy Statement for a more detailed description of Mr. Harding's employment agreement). In connection with his employment, the Board approved an initial grant, effective November 1, 2004, of (i) an option to purchase 100,000 shares of ADVO's stock, which vests in four equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant; and (ii) a restricted stock award for 60,000 shares of ADVO stock, 10,000 of which each vest on the first three anniversaries of the date of grant with the remaining 30,000 cliff vesting on the third anniversary of the date of grant. Mr. Harding was paid a signing bonus of $250,000, which he must repay if he resigns without Good Reason or is terminated for Cause (as defined in the agreement) before May 1, 2005. Mr. Harding's compensation package was determined by the Committee in accordance with ADVO's compensation policy and philosophy and after a detailed analysis of chief executive compensation packages of companies of similar size and complexity to ADVO, taking into consideration the importance of linking a significant part of the Chief Executive Officer's total compensation to the future performance of the Company.

Benefits

ADVO offers benefits to its key executives that are substantially similar to those offered to all ADVO associates. These benefits provide a level of security against financial misfortune that may result from illness, disability or death. The differences generally promote tax efficiency and replacement of benefit opportunities afforded other employees that are lost to executives due to regulatory limits.

Options

Set forth below is certain information concerning stock options granted during fiscal 2004 by the Company to the named executive officers.

The hypothetical present values on the date of grant of stock options granted in fiscal 2004 shown below are presented pursuant to the SEC proxy rules and are calculated under the modified Black-Scholes model for pricing options (See footnote 2). The actual before-tax amount, if any, realized upon the exercise of stock options, will depend upon the excess of the market price of the Common Stock over the exercise price per share of the stock option. There is no assurance that the hypothetical present values of the stock options reflected in this table will be realized.

- (1) Stock options granted in fiscal 2004 will become exercisable in 25% increments at one-year intervals from the date of grant.
- (2) The present values on grant date are calculated under the Black-Scholes model, which is a mathematical formula used to value options traded on stock exchanges, modified for pricing employee stock options. This formula considers a number of factors in order to estimate the option's present value, including the stock's historical volatility (24%), the exercise period of the option, and the risk-free rate of return (5.4% was the weighted average rate for fiscal 2004 grants).

Set forth below is certain information concerning the number of shares acquired, the amounts realized on the exercise of stock options by the named executive officers during fiscal 2004 and the number and value of options held by the named executive officers at September 25, 2004. The value of exercised and unexercised in-the-money stock options at September 25, 2004 shown below is presented pursuant to SEC rules. The actual before-tax amount, if any, realized upon exercise of stock options will depend upon the excess, if any, of the market price of the Common Stock over the exercise price per share of the stock option at the time the stock option is exercised. There is no assurance that the values of unexercised in-the-money stock options reflected in this table will actually be realized.

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENTS

Employment Agreement Bobbie Gaunt

On June 14, 2004, the Board named independent director Bobbie Gaunt, as Interim Chief Executive Officer, effective immediately after the departure of Gary Mulloy, the Company's former Chief Executive Officer. Ms. Gaunt received cash compensation in an amount equal to $90,000 per month. Her employment agreement also provided for the grant of 4,500 shares of restricted stock in January 2005, as if she had remained an independent director throughout all of 2004, and certain other benefits, such as state tax equalization payments, automobile, and housing allowance. Ms. Gaunt was also entitled to use the Company's aircraft for non-business use, including but not limited to, commuting back and forth between Michigan and Connecticut on the weekends.

On October 11, 2004, ADVO hired a new Chief Executive Officer, S. Scott Harding, who commenced employment with the Company on October 15, 2004. As a result, effective October 14, 2004, Ms. Gaunt resigned her position as Interim Chief Executive Officer, terminating her contract prior to its stated expiration date, December 31, 2004. In consideration of her service, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors approved the issuance to Ms. Gaunt of 10,000 shares of restricted stock, which cliff vest two years from the date of grant.

Employment Agreement S. Scott Harding

On October 11, 2004, the Company's Board of Directors announced the election of S. Scott Harding as Chief Executive Officer effective October 15, 2004.

Mr. Harding's employment agreement (Agreement) with the Company began on October 15, 2004 and has a term of three years with automatic one-year renewals, absent contrary notice 90 days in advance. The salary under the Agreement is $775,000 per year, subject to increases as determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. Harding is eligible for a target annual bonus equal to 100% of his salary, determined in a manner consistent with the Company's bonus program applicable to senior executives. Mr. Harding will receive a $600 per month auto allowance throughout the Agreement and the personal use of the Company aircraft subject to a maximum annual value of $150,000 for such use during this Agreement, determined on the basis of the incremental cost to the Company. Mr. Harding will also receive a bonus payment of $250,000 as consideration for execution of the Agreement. Mr. Harding will repay this bonus amount if he resigns without Good Reason or is terminated for Cause (as such terms are defined in the Agreement) before May 1, 2005.

In accordance with the Agreement, on November 1, 2004, Mr. Harding received options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company common stock that will vest in four equal annual installments beginning on November 1, 2005. Mr. Harding also received a restricted stock grant for 60,000 shares of common stock, 10,000 of which will vest on each of November 1, 2005, 2006 and 2007, and the remaining 30,000 shares will cliff vest on November 1, 2007. If the Company or Mr. Harding fail to renew this Agreement, the unvested portion of the initial stock option and restricted stock grants become fully vested and exercisable.

The agreement provides that if the Company terminates Mr. Harding's employment for any reason other than for Cause, it will continue to pay his salary, as then in effect, for 24 months. In lieu of any bonus for the year of termination, the Company would pay an additional year's salary. Under such circumstances, the initial stock option and restricted stock grants would become fully vested and exercisable.

Table of ContentsExecutive Severance Agreements

The Board of Directors authorized the Company to enter into individual Executive Severance Agreements (the Agreements) with Messrs. Lubin, McCombs, and Harless and Ms. Molnar. These Agreements were dated as follows:

Mr. Lubin	October 17, 1995
Mr. McCombs	January 4, 1999
Mr. Harless	August 14, 2000
Ms. Molnar	July 10, 2000

The structure of the Agreements is substantially similar, but the terms of the individual Agreements differ in some important respects as noted below.

The Agreements provisions become effective upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in the Agreements) and continue for the duration of the severance period. With regard to Messrs. McCombs and Harless, the severance period is two years following a Change of Control. With regard to Mr. Lubin and Ms. Molnar, the severance period is one and one-half years following a Change of Control. In all cases, the severance period ends with the death of the executive.

If, during the severance period, an executive s employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than death, disability or Cause (as defined in the Agreements), or if the executive terminates his employment for Good reason (as defined in the Agreements), the Company must pay to the executive a lump sum severance payment. With regard to Mr. Harless, the severance payment due upon such a termination of employment is equal to two times the sum of (i) the executive s annual base pay at the highest rate in effect at any time within the 90-day period preceding the date a notice of termination of employment is given or, if higher, at the highest rate of base pay in effect within the 90-day period immediately preceding the Change of Control and (ii) the greatest amount of incentive (bonus) pay received by the executive for any calendar year or portion thereof from and including the third year prior to the first occurrence of a Change of Control. With regard to Messrs. Lubin, and McCombs and Ms. Molnar, the severance payment is equal to one and one-half times the foregoing sum.

Additionally, upon termination, Messrs. McCombs and Harless will be entitled to receive medical and life insurance benefits for the period of two years from the date of the termination or cash in lieu thereof. Mr. Lubin and Ms. Molnar will be entitled to receive medical and life insurance benefits for the period of one and one-half years from the date of termination or cash in lieu thereof.
