PROXY SOLICITATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Cambrex Corporation (the Company) for use at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on April 26, 2007, and at any adjournment of the meeting. The address of the Company's principal executive office is One Meadowlands Plaza, East Rutherford, New Jersey 07073. This Proxy Statement and the form of proxy are being mailed to stockholders commencing on or about March 30, 2007.

The costs of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Brokerage houses, banks, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries are being requested to forward the proxy material to beneficial owners, and their reasonable expenses therefore will be reimbursed by the Company. Solicitation will be made by mail and also may be made personally, by telephone or electronic mail by the Company's officers, directors and employees without special compensation for such activities.

REVOCABILITY AND VOTING OF PROXY

A proxy given by a stockholder may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by giving another proxy bearing a later date or by notifying the Company in writing of such revocation or by a vote in person at the Annual Meeting. The execution of a proxy will not affect a stockholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person, but attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy. Properly executed proxies received by the Company will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon and if no instructions are indicated, will be voted for the election of the four (4) nominees for director named herein; for the selection of BDO Seidman as independent accountants for the Company; and for the amendments to our Restated Certificate of Incorporation to declassify the Board of Directors and authorize (a) the annual election of all members of the Board of Directors; (b) stockholders to remove a director with or without cause by a majority vote of the then outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; and (c) the removal of provisions requiring a supermajority vote of our common stock to effect certain amendments to our Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws. The Company knows of no reason why any of the nominees named herein would be unable to serve for the terms indicated. In the event, however, that any such nominee should, prior to the election, become unable to serve as a director, unless the Board of Directors decides to decrease the size of the Board, the proxy will be voted for such substitute nominee as the Board of Directors shall propose.

The Board of Directors knows of no matters to be presented at the meeting other than those set forth in the foregoing Notice of Annual Meeting. The Proxy Card conveys discretionary authority to vote on any other matter not presently known by management that may properly come before the Annual Meeting. If other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy intend to vote the shares subject to such proxies in accordance with their best judgment.

Transactions with Related Persons

One of the members of our Board of Directors, Mr. Ilan Kaufthal, is a Vice Chairman of Bear Stearns & Co. Inc. (Bear Stearns). Pursuant to an engagement letter dated September 19, 2005, as amended October 22, 2006 (the Engagement Letter), Cambrex, upon authorization of the Board of Directors, retained Bear Stearns to act as its exclusive financial advisor in connection with the consideration by the Board of Directors of the Company s strategic alternatives, including the process leading to the signing of the Stock Purchase Agreement with Lonza Group Limited announced on October 24, 2006 with respect to the Company s Bio Companies Businesses, which transaction closed on February 6, 2007 (the Transaction). The Engagement Letter provided for the payment of a customary fee for Bear Stearns services, a substantial portion of which was contingent on successful consummation of the Transaction. In addition, Cambrex agreed to indemnify Bear Stearns against certain liabilities arising out of the engagement. Bear Stearns received $4,156,336.74 (including $231,336.74 of out of pocket expenses) in connection with its services in relation to the Transaction.

In selecting Bear Stearns, our Board of Directors considered, among other things, the fact that Bear Stearns is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience advising companies in the health care products and services industry and companies in the chemicals and industrial products and services industry, as well as substantial experience providing strategic advisory services. Although Mr. Kaufthal is a Vice Chairman of Bear Stearns, the Board of Directors concluded that Bear Stearns familiarity with the Company and its business segments and the industries in which the Company conducts business made Bear Stearns the logical and appropriate choice as financial advisor. In light of Mr. Kaufthal s dual roles, the Board of Directors also authorized the Company to retain a second bank to render, in addition to Bear Stearns, an opinion to the Board of Directors with respect to the consideration to be received by the Company in any transaction for which Bear Stearns served as the Company s financial advisor. Mr. Kaufthal abstained from the Board of Directors vote related to the approval of the Transaction.

As previously announced, the Company will continue to evaluate strategic opportunities for the Human Health business as they arise and the Company will continue using Bear Stearns as financial advisor to Cambrex with respect to the evaluation of any such opportunities.

Company Policies and Procedures related to Review, Approval and Ratification of Transactions with Related Persons

Pursuant to the Company s Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Board expects Cambrex directors, officers and employees to act ethically at all times and to adhere to the Company s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, including the company s policies on Business Ethics Conflicts of Interest. A conflict of interest occurs when an individual s personal interests interfere in any way (or even appear to interfere) with the interests of the Company. A conflict situation can arise when a director takes actions or has interests that may make it difficult to perform his or her work objectively and effectively. Conflicts of interest also arise when a director, or a member of his or her family, receives improper personal benefits as a result of his or her position in the Company.

A potential conflict of interest with respect to a proposed transaction is required to be reported to the Company s General Counsel, Chief Executive Officer and the Board s Governance Committee. The Governance Committee will evaluate the circumstances surrounding the potential conflict of interest and recommend action to the full Board, which will consider any such recommendation. The Board is responsible for the ultimate determination as to whether the transaction giving rise to the potential conflict of interest can proceed.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's securities, to file reports of ownership and transactions in the Company's securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Such directors, executive officers and ten percent stockholders are also required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms received by it, and on written representation from certain of the Company's directors and executive officers that no other reports were required, the Company believes that during 2006 all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, executive officers and ten percent stockholders were complied with during the 2006 fiscal year except that Mr. Mossman filed one Form 4 late, reporting a transaction in Company stock.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors is responsible for directing the management of the business and affairs of the Company. The Board holds regular meetings five times each year and holds additional special meetings as required. During 2006 the Board held 17 meetings. Directors are expected to attend board meetings and meetings of committees on which they serve, and to spend the time needed and meet as frequently as necessary to properly discharge their responsibilities. The Board recognizes that occasional meetings may need to be scheduled on short notice when the participation of a director is not possible and that conflicts may arise that may prevent a director from attending a regularly scheduled meeting. The Board expects, however, that each director will make every reasonable effort to keep absences to a minimum. Although participation by conference telephone or other communications equipment is allowed, personal attendance is encouraged. Nine directors attended the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in July of 2006.

Our Board has affirmatively determined, after considering all of the relevant facts and circumstances, that all of the directors, other than James A. Mack and Ilan Kaufthal, are independent from our management under the standards set forth in the Company's Independence Standards for Directors, which was adopted by the Board in January 2004 and is attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit 1. This means that none of the independent directors have any direct or indirect material relationship with the Company, either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company. As a result, the Company has a majority of independent directors on our Board as required by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has also adopted the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is applicable to all directors, officers and employees of the Company, including the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the principal accounting officer.

Under the retirement policy for non-employee directors established by the Board of Directors in 1989, a non-employee director (other than incumbent directors when the policy was adopted) must not have attained age 72 at the time of election and may not serve as a director beyond the Annual Meeting next following such person's 72nd birthday.

Non-management directors have regularly scheduled executive sessions in which they meet without the presence of members of management. These executive sessions occur before or after each regularly scheduled meeting of our Board and may also occur in conjunction with special meetings. The Lead Director of these executive sessions is John R. Miller.

Shareholder Communications with our Board. The Company is committed to providing stockholders and other interested persons with an open line of communication for bringing issues of concern to the Company's non-management directors. In January 2004, the Board approved the following process by which such communications may be made and for handling any such communications received by the Company:

Any stockholder or interested person may communicate with the Company's non-management directors as a group by sending a communication to the Board of Directors, c/o Corporate Secretary, Cambrex Corporation, One Meadowlands Plaza, 15th Floor, East Rutherford, New Jersey 07073. All communications will be reviewed by the Company's Corporate Secretary who will send such communications to the non-management directors unless the Corporate Secretary determines that the communication does not relate to the business or affairs of the Company, or the function of the Board or its Committees, or relates to insignificant matters that do not warrant the non-management directors' attention or is not otherwise appropriate for delivery to the non-management directors.

The non-management directors who receive such communication will have discretion to determine the handling of such communication, and if appropriate, respond to the person sending the communication, and disclosure, which shall be consistent with the Company's policies and procedures and applicable law regarding the disclosure of information.

The Board has established four standing committees: the Regulatory Affairs Committee, the Governance Committee, the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee. Printable versions of the charters of such Committees as well as the Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are available on our website (www.cambrex.com), under the Governance link of the Investors section. The Company will also provide any of the foregoing information in print without charge upon written request to the Corporate Secretary, Cambrex Corporation, One Meadowlands Plaza, 15th Floor, East Rutherford, New Jersey 07073.

Regulatory Affairs Committee

The Regulatory Affairs Committee, comprised of three non-management directors, oversees the Company's compliance with Food and Drug Regulations and environmental and safety affairs. The Regulatory Affairs Committee held four meetings during 2006.

Governance Committee

The Governance Committee, comprised of four independent directors, is responsible for reporting to the Board of Directors concerning its evaluation of the performance of the Chief Executive Officer, individual directors and the Board as a whole. The Governance Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning nominees for election to the Board at Annual Stockholder Meetings and candidates for newly created directorships and vacancies on the Board. The Charter of the Governance Committee has been adopted by the Committee and approved by the Board. All of the members of the Governance Committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the Company's Independence Standards for Directors. The Governance Committee held two meetings in 2006.

Consideration of Director Nominees

Director Qualifications

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines set forth Board membership criteria. Under these criteria, members of the Board should possess the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values, and be committed to representing the long-term interests of the stockholders. Their skills and backgrounds should include, among other things, experience in making decisions, a track record of competent judgment, the ability to function rationally and objectively, and experience in different businesses and professions. Directors must be willing to devote sufficient time to carrying out their duties and responsibilities effectively, and should be committed to serve on the Board for an extended period of time. Directors should not serve on more than four other boards of public companies in addition to the Cambrex Board. Current positions in excess of these limits may be maintained unless the Board determines that doing so would impair the director's service on the Cambrex Board.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors

The Governance Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Governance Committee regularly assesses the appropriate size of the Board, and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event that vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Governance Committee considers various candidates for director. Candidates may come to the attention of the Governance Committee through current Board members, professional search firms, stockholders or other persons. These candidates are evaluated at regular or special meetings of the Governance Committee, and may be considered at any point during the year. The Governance Committee also considers properly submitted stockholder nominations for candidates for the Board. In addition to the standards and qualifications set out in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Governance Committee also considers such other relevant factors as it deems appropriate, including the current composition of the Board, the balance of management and independent directors, the need for Audit Committee or other expertise and the evaluations of other prospective nominees. There are no differences in the manner in which the Governance Committee evaluates nominees for director based on whether or not the nominee is recommended by a stockholder.

Stockholder Nominees

The Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders. Such recommendations for the 2008 Annual Meeting should be sent to the Corporate Secretary of the Company not later than January 26, 2008, and should include such information as specified in the Company's By-Laws.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of four independent directors. The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is (i) independent within the meaning of the Securities and Exchange Commission Rules and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) listing standards and the Company's Independence Standards for Directors, and (ii) satisfies the financial literacy requirements of the NYSE listing standards. Further, the Board has determined that at least one member of the Audit Committee satisfies the financial expertise requirements of the NYSE listing standards. The Board has also determined that Mr. Roy Haley, Audit Committee Chairperson is an Audit Committee Financial Expert, as that term is defined by current SEC rules.

The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee (i) the integrity of the Company's financial reporting process; (ii) the Company's systems of internal accounting and financial controls; (iii) the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements; (iv) the independent auditors' qualifications and independence; and (v) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee's role is one of oversight and it recognizes that the Company's Management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and that the Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee acts under a written charter adopted by the Committee and approved by the Board.

The Audit Committee met 12 times in 2006. The Audit Committee met individually with Management, with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC), the Company's independent public accountants, and with the Company's internal auditors, as appropriate. The Audit Committee also reviewed and had discussions with Company Management and PwC regarding the audited financial statements, including a discussion of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. Further, the Audit Committee has been updated quarterly on management's process to assess the adequacy of the Company's system of internal control over financial reporting, the framework used to make the assessment, and management's conclusions on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee has also discussed with the independent auditor the Company's internal control assessment process, management's assessment with respect thereto and the independent auditor's evaluation of the Company's system of internal control over financial reporting.

The Audit Committee also reviewed and had discussions with PwC regarding the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61. Further, the Audit Committee received the letter from PwC required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and has discussed with representatives of PwC their independence.

The Committee also received PwC's Report dated March 15, 2007 concerning the Company's financial statements and PwC's assessment of the Company's internal controls (the PwC Opinion), which is included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. Based on the reviews and discussions with PwC and Management, and the PwC Opinion, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee as set forth in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board approved, that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 be included in Cambrex's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee, comprised of four independent directors, conducts reviews of the Company's general and executive compensation policies and strategies and oversees and evaluates the Company's overall compensation structure and programs. Each member of the Committee meets the independence requirements specified by the New York Stock Exchange, by Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and within the meaning of the Company's Independence Standards for Directors. Each year the Committee develops a calendar-year annual schedule for the coming year. The Chair reports the Committee's actions and recommendations to the full Board following each Committee meeting. The Committee held six meetings during 2006.

The Charter of the Compensation Committee has been adopted by the Committee and approved by the Board. The Committee's charter is to work with executive management in developing a compensation philosophy; to evaluate and approve compensation and bonus programs for the Chief Executive Officer, other officers, subsidiary general managers and those employees, whose salary is greater than $175,000 per year. The Committee also oversees the Company's general employee benefit programs, including the Company's employee equity plans. At its July 2006 meeting the Committee reviewed and discussed its own performance for the prior year in order to benefit from self-evaluation and encourage continuous improvement. For its self-evaluation the Committee referred to materials provided by the Governance Committee. The Committee conducts these reviews annually.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Compensation Committee during 2006 were Rosina B. Dixon, David R. Bethune, Leon J. Hendrix, Jr. and John R. Miller, each of whom is a non-employee independent director.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) has reviewed and discussed the following Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management and, based on such review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following discussion and analysis contains statements regarding future individual and company performance targets and goals. These targets and goals are disclosed in the limited context of Cambrex's compensation programs and should not be understood to be statements of management's expectations or estimates of results or other guidance. Cambrex specifically cautions investors not to apply these statements to other contexts.

Cambrex's Executive Compensation Program Philosophy

Cambrex seeks to be a leading supplier of products and services to the pharmaceutical industry, providing superior return to its owners. To meet these objectives, Cambrex strives to attract, motivate and retain high-quality executives with the requisite skills and abilities to enable the Company to achieve superior results. Accordingly, the Company's compensation programs are designed to provide compensation commensurate with performance and to reward above average performance and provide incentive opportunity to be competitive for talent in the labor markets in which the Company participates. In furtherance of these goals, the Committee obtained independent advice and assistance from Steven Hall & Partners and Frederic W. Cook & Co., Inc. as well as internal assistance from the Company's Human Resources department and internal legal counsel. Compensation recommendations are initiated by the President and Chief Executive Officer for recommendation, discussion and decision by the Committee. Overall, the Company has designed its compensation program to:

support the corporate businesses by communicating what is expected of executives with regard to goals and results and by rewarding achievement;

recruit, motivate and retain executive talent; and create a strong performance alignment with the interests of stockholders.

The Company seeks to fulfill these objectives through three key compensation elements:

base salary;

performance based annual incentive awards, with two-thirds of the annual target payable in cash when corporate financial objectives are met and one-third of the annual target payable in restricted stock units with a three-year holding period when individual, strategic objectives are met. The Committee may, in its discretion, increase or decrease awards and may alter the balance between the cash and restricted stock portions of the award. In early February 2007 the Compensation Committee approved a revised annual bonus plan under which an award is based 60% on an improvement in EBITDA and 40% on the achievement of individual objectives;

grants of long-term equity compensation in the form of stock options and restricted stock units with multi-year vesting periods;

retirement and other benefits; and perquisites.

Elements of Executive Compensation

Base Salary. In setting annual salaries the Committee's objective is to reflect individual job responsibilities, value to the Company, individual performance as contributing to improved financial results of the Company and the competitive nature of the labor market in which the Company competes. Salaries are generally reviewed annually. The Company uses independent salary surveys of its Peer Group (identified as the Pharmaceutical and Biotechnology Index) as well as national compensation surveys prepared by Watson Wyatt Data Services, to assist in determining appropriate levels of compensation for each executive position. The Company targets annual executive salaries at the median levels in companies surveyed.

Annual Incentive Awards. Each year the Committee, in consultation with the President and Chief Executive Officer, set goals and objectives for the Company's executives. At year end the attainment of results, measured against the executives' goals and objectives, is reviewed by the Compensation Committee subsequent to review and recommendation from the President and Chief Executive Officer. Executives are rewarded for accomplishments that contribute to desired results, including sales, net income, earnings per share, return on capital employed and other assigned goals including service and quality improvement, product and marketing development, technology development, and personnel development.

The Company's annual executive incentive compensation award program is designed to provide a better than average (as compared to the Peer Group) individual award when the Company's financial performance is improved and its long-range prospects are enhanced. This program currently includes individual measurements against agreed upon annual operating and financial goals and longer-term strategic growth objectives. Under this program two-thirds of the award pool is based on annual operating and financial goals for the Company and is generally paid in cash, while the remaining one-third is based on individual strategic, longer-term growth objectives and is generally awarded in the form of restricted stock units vesting in equal portions over three years and having a three-year holding period. The Committee may in its discretion apportion the aggregate award pool between cash and stock and may increase or reduce individual awards. Financial and individual performance is assessed by the Committee and awards are approved at its regular meeting in January.

Long-Term Incentive Awards. Long-term compensation for executives includes Company stock option grants and the award of restricted stock units with a multi-year holding period. Eligibility for awards is based on an individual's position in the Company and the executive's performance. These awards are generally granted annually at the Committee's July meeting. The exercise price is set based on the mean between the highest and lowest publicly traded share price on the date of the award by the Committee. Options granted to the Company's key employees in 2006, including those individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table (below), are typically exercisable based on the passage of time. During 2005, all unvested stock options, including those granted in 2005, were fully vested by the Committee as of December 31, 2005, resulting in an acceleration of proforma compensation expense. The Company imposed holding periods that required executives to refrain from selling shares acquired upon the exercise of these options. In November 2006 these holding periods were removed for all officers and employees.

Retirement Benefits. Retirement benefits for US employees are based on an employee's years of service and compensation for such years. Compensation for the purposes of the computation of these retirement benefits, includes regular compensation, bonuses and overtime, but excludes income attributable to fringe benefits and perquisites. The retirement benefit earned for a given year of service is calculated by multiplying the participant's compensation for the year by 1% and adding to that amount 0.6% of such compensation in excess of the participant's social security covered compensation. Similar amounts are calculated for each year of service and are aggregated to obtain the annual retirement benefit, subject to the limitations imposed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and related regulations (ERISA). For this purpose social security covered compensation is the 35-year average of the social security wage bases ending with the wage base for the year in which the participant reaches age 65.

Although compensation includes the items mentioned above, the Company's qualified non-contributory pension plan (the Qualified Plan) limits the maximum amount of compensation which may be taken into account for the purposes of calculating benefits to the ERISA limit, which was $220,000 during 2006. Because of such limitation any compensation received by any of the Named Executive Officers which exceeds this amount will not be taken into account in the calculation of their benefits under the Qualified Plan. As a result the Company established a Supplemental Non-Qualified Pension Plan (Supplemental Plan), which became effective on January 1, 1994. The Supplemental Plan provides benefits based on compensation levels above the ERISA maximum compensation level. Employees hired after December 31, 2002 are not eligible to participate in the Qualified Plan or the Supplemental Plan.

Savings Plan. The Savings Plan is a tax-qualified retirement savings plan pursuant to which all Cambrex's U.S. based employees are able to contribute the lesser of up to 50% of their annual salary or the limit prescribed by the Internal Revenue Service to the Savings Plan on a before tax basis. The Company will match 100% of the first 3% of pay that is contributed to the Savings Plan and 50% of the next 3% of pay contributed. All employee contributions to the Savings Plan are fully vested on contribution; the Company match vests in 20% increments over a five year period of employment.

Deferred Compensation Plan. The Company has established a Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan for Key Executives, including the Named Executive Officers (the Deferred Plan). Under the Deferred Plan, officers and key employees may elect to defer all or any portion of their pre-tax annual bonus and/or annual base salary (other than the minimum required Social Security contributions plus $10,000). The deferred amount is invested in Fidelity Mutual Funds available under the Cambrex Savings Plan. The Deferred Plan is not funded by the Company, but the Company has established a Deferred Compensation Trust Fund to protect the account balance in the case of a change of control of the Company. The Plan is administered in compliance with the new rules and guidance under IRC Section 409A.

Perquisites and Other Benefits. The Committee provides benefits to the Company's executive officers, including an automobile allowance, a supplemental retirement benefit and the eligibility to participate in the non-qualified deferred compensation plan.

Retention Awards. In early 2006 the Company announced that the Board of Directors had decided that the Company would consider all available strategic alternatives. In connection with such decision in February 2006, the Board approved a number of measures designed to enhance the retention of certain employees and executive officers, including each Named Executive Officer. With respect to the Named Executive Officers, the Board approved a special retention pool, in the total amount of up to $2.5 million, to retain the services of each Named Executive Officer and certain other Executive Officers. Payment under such retention pool was to be apportioned in the President and Chief Executive Officer's discretion and dependent on the achievement of certain strategic objectives. Under this retention pool, Mr. Mossman received an aggregate award of $600,000, Messrs. Beshar and Klosk each received an award of $600,000, and Dr. Russolo received an award of $200,000. Mr. Mossman's entire award was paid in 2006. $100,000 of Messrs. Beshar's and Klosk's award was paid in 2006. The balance of Messrs. Beshar's and Klosk's awards and Dr. Russolo's entire award was paid upon the completion of the sale of the Company's Bioproducts and Biopharma businesses to the Lonza Group Limited.

On December 19, 2006, the Committee approved new retention programs designed to enhance executive and employee retention following the completion of the sale of the Company's Bioproducts and Biopharma businesses to the Lonza Group Limited. The retention program applicable to executive officers of the Company, including each Named Executive Officer consists of a pool of $1.5 million, subject to a 15% increase or decrease in the size of such pool as determined by the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. Under this retention program Mr. Beshar will receive a retention award of $200,000 provided he remains with the Company until March 30, 2007, and an additional award thereafter of $33,333 per month he remains with the Company until September 30, 2007. Mr. Klosk will receive an award of $400,000 if he remains with the Company until September 30, 2007, and Dr. Russolo will receive an award of $400,000 if he remains with the Company until December 31, 2007.

Management Contracts and Programs. At a meeting held on January 26, 1995, the Board of Directors authorized an agreement with Mr. Mack pursuant to which he entered into a consulting arrangement with the Company upon his resignation or retirement as an employee at an annual rate of $100,000. The Company later restated this arrangement and entered into two agreements with Mr. Mack at the prior rate, the first providing for consulting services while he is able to provide such services and the second providing an additional retirement benefit for the remainder of his lifetime following his incapacity.

At its July 27th, 2000 meeting and based on the Compensation Committee's recommendation, the Board adopted the 2000 Succession Planning Incentive Program to ensure effective succession planning and transition. Under the Program Mr. Mack was awarded 175,000 Incentive Appreciation Units at the traded closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of the award. With the departure of the Company's Chief Operating Officer early in 2003, Mr. Mack agreed to remain with the Company for an additional two year period. At its May 21, 2003 meeting and considering Mr. Mack's commitment to continue for a two year period, and based on the Compensation Committee's recommendation, the Board adopted a new Incentive Appreciation Unit Plan for Mr. Mack replacing the Plan adopted in 2000. Under the new plan, 150,000 stock appreciation rights were awarded to Mr. Mack valued initially at the closing price of the Company's traded share price on the date of the award which was $19.30. Upon a finding by the Board that a successful management transition has occurred, the vested award would be exercisable on and after December 31, 2004, if the Company's common stock traded at or above an average price of $25 per share for twenty consecutive days prior to December 31, 2004, representing an increase of more than 29% over the grant price. During 2004 the stock traded above $25 per share for more than twenty consecutive days and the award vested. At a meeting held on January 27, 2005 the Company's Board of Directors, based on the hiring of John R. Leone as President and Chief Executive Officer and his performance during his first five months with the Company, determined that a successful management transition had occurred. Thereafter, Mr. Mack was entitled to exercise the award in whole or in part and receive in cash from the Company the difference between the grant price and the traded share price on the date of exercise times the number of units exercised. The award was due to expire on the earlier of (i) December 31, 2007, or (ii) a date one year after Mr. Mack's retirement from active service, which occurred on April 27, 2005. On February 1, 2006, the Board of Directors extended the expiration date of Mr. Mack's award to December 31, 2006, due to his election as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Effective November 10, 2006, the Company entered into a one year Consulting Agreement with Mr. Gary L. Mossman, former Chief Operating Officer, under which Mr. Mossman will be paid $10,000 per month plus expenses and will perform the services related to development projects for the Company's Human Health segment. Mr. Mossman received $40,000 in 2006 pursuant to such agreement.

Tax Considerations (Policy Regarding Section 162(m))

The Company's policy on the tax deductibility of compensation is to maximize deductibility to the extent possible without negating all of its discretionary power. To this end the Company has submitted complying plans for stockholder approval. Nevertheless, the Committee has occasionally taken actions that result in non-deductible compensation and it may do so again in the future when the Committee determines that such actions are in the Company's best interests.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERSSummary Compensation Table

The following table shows for the fiscal year 2006 the compensation awarded or paid to, or earned by the Named Executive Officers. When setting total compensation for each of the Named Executive Officers, the Committee reviews the executives' current compensation, including equity and non-equity based compensation.

The amounts listed under Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation, and a portion of the amounts listed under Stock Awards, were reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee at its meeting on January 25, 2007. These amounts were paid out in cash shortly thereafter. At that time, The Committee also approved awards in the form of Restricted Stock Units vesting in equal portions over a three year period and also having a three year holding period. The Restricted Stock Units granted on January 25, 2007 are not listed on the table as the expense associated with these grants was not recognized in 2006.

The bonus amounts listed below for Messrs. Beshar, Mossman, and Klosk reflect retention amounts linked to the Company's Strategic Alternatives Initiative described above. The bonus amount for Mr. Bird is based on his efforts in divesting the Company's subsidiaries located in Cork, Ireland and Landen, Belgium.

Executive Employment Agreements; Change of Control

As previously disclosed in the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Cambrex Corporation the Board of Directors agreed to award Mr. James A. Mack (President and Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors) an incentive payment or payments totaling up to four times his annual salary of $500,000 upon achievement of certain strategic objectives in connection with the Board of Directors' decision to change the Company's strategic focus and to consider all available strategic alternatives. Under this arrangement, Mr. Mack received an incentive payment of $1,000,000, equal to twice his annual salary, upon completion of the sale of the Bio Companies Business to the Lonza Group. On February 5, 2007 the Board of Directors agreed to pay Mr. Mack an incentive payment of $1,500,000 upon the achievement of certain further strategic alternatives; this award replaces the earlier remaining potential award of $1,000,000.

The Company has entered into agreements with a number of executive officers, including each of the Named Executive Officers (except Mr. Mack, and on his retirement, Mr. Mossman's agreement terminated), with the objective of preserving management stability in the event of a threatened or actual change of control of the Company. These agreements become effective upon a change of control of the Company (the Effective Date), which is defined as

- (i) the acquisition by one person or a group of persons of 15% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock or combined voting power;
- (ii) a change in a majority of the incumbent Board of Directors unless approved by the incumbent Board of Directors;
- (iii) a transaction which results in the stockholders of the Company immediately before the transaction not owning at least 50% of the Company's common stock following the transaction;

(iv) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or

(v) any other event or series of events determined by the Board of Directors to constitute a change of control.

The phrase "sale of all or substantially all" is defined in the agreements as a sale or other disposition transaction involving assets of the Company, including stock of any of the Company's subsidiaries, in which the value of the assets or stock being sold or otherwise disposed of (as measured by the purchase price being paid) constitutes 35% or more of the enterprise value of the Company, defined as the aggregate market value of the Company's then outstanding stock (on a fully diluted basis) plus aggregate debt minus cash.

Following a change of control, the Company has agreed to employ the covered employees for a period of three years from the Effective Date (the "Employment Period") in a commensurate position at a location not more the 35 miles from the location at the time of such change of control at a monthly base salary equivalent to the employee's highest monthly base salary in the 12 months preceding such change of control. During the employment period, the employee may be terminated for cause, which is defined as:

- (i) personal dishonesty or breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit;
- (ii) the commission of a criminal act related to the performance of duties, or the disclosure of confidential information of the Company to a competitor;
- (iii) habitual intoxication by alcohol or drugs during working hours; or
- (iv) conviction of a felony.

During the employment period, the covered employees may terminate employment for good reason, which is defined as:

- (i) an office relocation of more than 35 miles;
- (ii) a substantial reduction in base salary, benefits or perquisites;
- (iii) a substantial reduction in responsibilities, authorities or functions;
- (iv) a substantial change in work conditions; or
- (v) failure to require a successor to assume the Company's obligations under the agreement.

A good faith determination of good reason made by a covered employee will be conclusive. In addition, the employee may make a unilateral determination of termination for good reason with or without any change in employment conditions during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the Effective Date.

If a covered employee is terminated other than for death, disability or cause, or if a covered employee terminates for good reason, the Company shall pay to the employee within 30 days the following:

- (i) the employee's highest unpaid base salary through the date of termination; and
- (ii) a prorated bonus based on the employee's highest bonus earned during the prior three years; and
- (iii) the product of a fraction, the numerator of which is thirty-six less the number of months worked following the first anniversary of the Effective Date and the denominator of which is twelve, multiplied by the employee's highest annualized base salary; and
- (iv) the product of a fraction, the numerator of which is thirty-six less the number of months worked following the first anniversary of the Effective Date and the denominator of which is twelve, multiplied by the highest annual bonus earned by the employee during the prior three years; and
