Danahy Severance Agreement

On August 4, 2010, PHH Corporation (PHH , the Company , we , our or us) entered into a Separation Agreement (Agreement) with Mark R. Danahy, the former Executive Vice President, Mortgage of the Company and the former President and Chief Executive Officer of PHH Mortgage Corporation (PHH Mortgage), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. As previously disclosed, Mr. Danahy left the Company and PHH Mortgage on May 14, 2010 (the Termination Date) to pursue other opportunities.

The Agreement provides that during the period following the termination of his employment with the Company through June 30, 2011 (the Severance Period), Mr. Danahy will be eligible to receive severance payments totaling $424,039 in bi-weekly installments. Payments that would have been made after the Termination Date and prior to the effective date of the Agreement will be paid with the first bi-weekly installment after the Agreement becomes effective. Mr. Danahy will also receive a lump sum payment of $187,500 on July 1, 2011, provided that Mr. Danahy has complied with the terms of the Agreement through such date. During the Severance Period, Mr. Danahy will be entitled to continued vesting of his outstanding Company stock options and restricted stock units on the same basis and at the same time as such awards would have vested if Mr. Danahy had remained employed with the Company throughout the Severance Period. Vested stock options as of the Termination Date and those that continue to vest during the Severance Period may be exercisable until the earlier of one year following the Termination Date or the expiration date of the applicable option agreement.

In addition, Mr. Danahy will (i) be eligible for an annual cash bonus based on actual Company performance for 2010 under our 2010 Management Incentive Plan, which bonus will be payable at the time such bonuses are payable to active employees, but no later than March 15, 2011, (ii) be eligible for reimbursement for COBRA health care continuation premiums during the Severance Period, (iii) have the title to the Company-owned car we were providing him at the time of his termination transferred to him, and (iv) be eligible for outplacement services for thirteen months following the Termination Date and financial planning services (not to exceed $5,000) for six months following the Termination Date provided by providers selected and paid for by us.

These severance benefits are being paid or provided in exchange for Mr. Danahy executing a release of claims against the Company. Mr. Danahy will continue to receive these benefits only if he complies with certain restrictive covenants, including a covenant not to compete with the Company during the Severance Period, covenants not to solicit the Company's customers, clients, or employees during the Severance Period, a covenant protecting the Company's confidential information and a covenant not to disparage or defame the Company (which covenant is reciprocated by the Company by a covenant to direct its officers not to disparage or defame Mr. Danahy). If Mr. Danahy fails to comply with these restrictive covenants, the Company is entitled to suspend making further payments or benefits under the Agreement, and if there is a finding pursuant to arbitration that Mr. Danahy has in fact breached these restrictive covenants, no further payments or benefits under the Agreement will be due to him and he will be obligated to repay to the Company the amounts paid to him in cash under the Agreement and the cash or stock he receives upon payment or exercise of equity awards that would have terminated or not become vested without the operation of the provisions of the Agreement providing for continued vesting during the Severance Period. Mr. Danahy has the unilateral right to terminate and revoke the Agreement within seven days of the signing date upon notice to the Company, which termination would render the Agreement unenforceable, null and void.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits

Exhibit 10.1 Separation Agreement between PHH Corporation and Mark R. Danahy, dated as of August 4, 2010.
