Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Emdeon Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), announced on August 4, 2011, that the Company has entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 3, 2011 (the Merger Agreement), with Beagle Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Beagle Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub and, together with Parent, the Acquiring Parties).

The Merger Agreement provides for, upon the terms and subject to the conditions in the Merger Agreement, the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company with the Company being the surviving corporation as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Class A common stock of the Company (including each share of Class A common stock resulting from an exchange of membership units of EBS Master LLC, a subsidiary of the Company (EBS Master), together with corresponding shares of Class B common stock of the Company, which shall be effected prior to the Merger (as described below)) (other than (i) any shares owned by the Company, the Acquiring Parties or any of their respective subsidiaries or any stockholders who are entitled to and who properly exercise appraisal rights under Delaware law and (ii) any shares of Class A common stock contributed to Parent prior to the effective time of the Merger by the Rollover Investors (as defined below) in accordance with the Rollover Commitments (as defined below)), will be cancelled and will be converted automatically into the right to receive $19.00 per share in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration).

Stockholders of the Company will be asked to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement at a special meeting that will be held on a date to be announced. Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including without limitation: (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote on the Merger, voting as a single class, at a duly called stockholders meeting (the Company Stockholder Approval), (ii) the expiration or early termination of the waiting period applicable to the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and (iii) the absence of any order enjoining or prohibiting the Merger. Moreover, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including without limitation: (x) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to certain materiality qualifiers) and (y) the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement in all material respects. In addition, the obligation of the Acquiring Parties to consummate the Merger is subject to the non-occurrence of any Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) from the date of the Merger Agreement to the effective time of the Merger. As described below, the Acquiring Parties also are not required to consummate the Merger until after completion of an 18 consecutive business days marketing period for the debt financing they are using to fund a portion of the Merger Consideration. However, availability of financing for the Merger is not a condition to the Acquiring Parties' obligations to consummate the Merger.

The Company has made customary representations and warranties to the Acquiring Parties in the Merger Agreement. The Company has also entered into certain customary covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement, including, without limitation, covenants regarding: (i) the conduct of the business of the Company prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the calling and holding of a meeting of the Company's stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval and (iii) the use of its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be consummated. The Merger Agreement also provides for all of the membership units of EBS Master, together with each corresponding share of Class B common stock of the Company, held by members of the Company's management, to be exchanged, immediately prior to the Merger, for shares of Class A common stock of the Company (unless otherwise agreed after the date of the Merger Agreement). Any remaining shares of Class B common stock as of the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled for no consideration.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company is subject to a restriction on its ability to solicit offers or proposals relating to a takeover proposal or to provide information to or engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties regarding a takeover proposal. The no-shop provision is subject to certain exceptions that allow the Company to provide information and participate in discussions with respect to unsolicited written takeover proposals if the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) has determined, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel, that not doing so would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and the Acquiring Parties. The Board may cause the Merger Agreement to be terminated in response to a Superior Proposal only under certain circumstances. A Superior Proposal is a takeover proposal that the Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, (i) is on terms and conditions more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of the Company (excluding the Rollover Investors) than those contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (ii) is reasonably capable of being completed, taking into account all material financial (including whether such takeover proposal is reasonably capable of being financed), regulatory, legal and other aspects of such proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon termination under specified circumstances, the Company would be required to pay Parent a termination fee in an amount equal to $65 million and/or reimburse the Acquiring Parties reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement up to a maximum amount of $10 million (which would be credited against the amount of the termination fee, if any, subsequently payable by the Company pursuant to the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement also provides that Parent will be required to pay to the Company a reverse termination fee of $80 million upon termination under certain specified circumstances. Under certain other specified circumstances, including in the case of the Company's termination due to a material breach by Parent, Parent will be required to pay a reverse termination fee of $153 million.

The Acquiring Parties have obtained equity and debt financing commitments for the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which, together with the rollover investment described below, will be sufficient to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the payment by the Acquiring Parties of the aggregate Merger Consideration. Blackstone Capital Partners VI L.P. (the Sponsor) has committed to capitalize Parent, at or prior to the Closing, with an aggregate cash equity contribution in an amount of $870 million on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the equity commitment letter entered into by the Sponsor in connection with the Merger. In addition, certain stockholders of the Company affiliated with Hellman & Friedman LLC (the Rollover Investors) have entered into a rollover equity commitment letter and an interim investors agreement (the Rollover Commitments) pursuant to which the Rollover Investors have committed to roll-over approximately $330 million of equity on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Rollover Commitments.

Bank of America, N.A., Barclays Bank PLC and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (the Lenders) have each committed to provide 33 1/3% of each of the following debt facilities: a $1,325 million senior secured credit facilities, consisting of a $125 million senior secured revolving credit facility and $1,200 million in aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured term loans and a $750 million senior unsecured credit facility (the Senior Bridge Facility), in each case, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the debt commitment letter entered into by the Lenders in connection with the Merger (the Debt Commitment Letter). The Company also will either (i) issue an aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes of up to $750 million in gross proceeds in a Rule 144A or other private placement, or (ii) to the extent the Company does not receive such amount of gross proceeds of senior unsecured notes on the closing date, borrow up to $750 million (minus the amount of gross proceeds from any senior notes issuance) of senior unsecured increasing rate loans under the Senior Bridge Facility. The obligations of the Lenders to provide debt financing under the Debt Commitment Letter is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, without limitation, a marketing period condition of 15 consecutive business days in respect of the Senior Bridge Facility, subject to certain black out dates, and a minimum equity contribution condition.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Sponsor has provided the Company with a limited guarantee in favor of the Company guaranteeing the payment of certain monetary obligations that may be owed by Parent pursuant to the Merger Agreement, including any reverse termination fee that may become payable by Parent.

In addition, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain principal stockholders of the Company (the Principal Stockholders) that are affiliated with Hellman & Friedman LLC and General Atlantic LLC, and which collectively own a majority of the Company's outstanding common stock, have entered into a voting agreement with Parent pursuant to which the Principal Stockholders agreed to vote in favor of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement and against any competing takeover proposals, subject to the limitations set forth in the voting agreement between the Principal Stockholders and Parent. The Principal Stockholders' obligations under the voting agreement will terminate if (i) the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason, (ii) the Board changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent or (iii) the Merger Agreement is amended in a manner that (x) reduces the amount or changes the form of the Merger Consideration or (y) is otherwise adverse to such stockholders.

Further, under the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed to enter into certain amendments to its existing tax receivable agreements with affiliates of the Principal Stockholders as of the closing of the Merger.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement were approved unanimously by the Company's entire board of directors. In addition, the Merger and the Merger Agreement were approved unanimously by a separate vote of all of the directors of the Company other than those directors affiliated with the Rollover Investors. Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC (Morgan Stanley) and UBS Securities LLC (UBS) serve as the financial advisors to the Company in connection with the Merger and the Merger Agreement. On August 3, 2011, each of Morgan Stanley and UBS delivered written opinions to the Board that, as of the date of each opinion and subject to the limitations contained in each opinion, stated that the consideration to be offered to the stockholders of the Company (other than certain excluded stockholders, including the Rollover Investors) in the Merger is fair from a financial point of view to such stockholders.

The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, the Acquiring Parties or any of their respective affiliates or businesses. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for the purposes of such agreement and as of specified dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors and security holders are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, the Acquiring Parties or any of their respective affiliates or businesses. Moreover, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in disclosure letters that the parties have exchanged. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts of the Company, the Acquiring Parties or any of their respective affiliates or businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.
