David W. Han, Satish Lulla, Raj K. Sachdev and Digital Support Corporation 401(K) Plan ("Selling Shareholders"). DSC is a Virginia corporation that provides information technology services to the Federal Government of the United States, state and local governments, and commercial customers. The services provided by DSC include mission-critical network infrastructure support, information assurance services, and design, development and implementation of enterprise information systems.

As set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, attached as Exhibit 2.1, the initial consideration paid by Company was $6.3 million dollars, or $68.13 per share. Of the initial consideration, $3,485,000 was paid to the Selling Shareholders of DSC, and the remaining $2,815,000 was placed in a holdback escrow for a working capital true-up ($315,000), representation and warranties holdback ($472,500), and a holdback to be returned to the Company should DSC not obtain the renewal of its major contract ($2,027,500). If DSC renews the major contract, the Selling Shareholders and key employees of DSC can earn up to an additional $2.5 million, depending upon the performance of DSC during calendar years 2004 and 2005. If DSC is unable to obtain the renewal of the major contract, the Selling Shareholders and key employees of DSC can earn up to an additional $1,350,000, depending upon the performance during calendar years 2004 and 2005. The funds used to consummate the acquisition were from the Company's cash reserves.
