TECHTEAM GLOBAL BOARD WILL CONTEST HEDGE FUND'S NOMINEES

SOUTHFIELD, MICHIGAN, February 27, 2006...The Chairman of the Board of Directors of TechTeam Global Inc. (Nasdaq: TEAM) today issued a statement vowing to "vigorously contest" the election of a slate of directors that hedge fund investor Costa Brava Partnership III, LLC said it will nominate to replace TechTeam's current Board.

TechTeam Chairman Kim A. Cooper said that the Board is confident that stockholders will reject Costa Brava's attempt to gain control of the company.

"Long-term investors are well acquainted with the short-term financial horizons that motivate certain activist investors," Cooper said. "We are concerned that Costa Brava's recent history of litigation and disruptive tactics appear to be intended to produce quick returns in lieu of the longer term interests of other stockholders."

"In stark contrast," Cooper said, "our Board faithfully represents stockholders, employees and customers with a longer view. We believe that TechTeam's value is best maximized through implementation of well-considered, sustainable business strategies, and we will vigorously contest the Costa Brava directors' slate on that basis.

"Our Board has been a diligent overseer of TechTeam's impressive growth," Cooper continued, "and we believe that our record offers compelling evidence that this Board is interested, first and foremost, in producing value for our stockholders."

Cooper cited the Board's action earlier this month to replace the company's founder with a new chief executive officer -- Mr. Chris Brown from IBM -- as a demonstration of the Board's willingness to make value-enhancing decisions on behalf of investors.

"The Board recognized and championed the steps needed to help the company evolve from its entrepreneurial origins," he asserted. "The Board conducted a thorough search and found a CEO with the business development and leadership skills to advance TechTeam's revenue and profit growth."
