Tyson Foods, Inc. Announces Final Results of Tender Offer for IBP, inc.

SPRINGDALE, Ark., Aug. 10 -- Tyson Foods, Inc. (NYSE: TSN)

today announced the final results of the successful completion of its tender offer, made through its wholly-owned subsidiary Lasso Acquisition Corporation, to purchase up to 50.1% of the outstanding shares of IBP, inc. (NYSE: IBP) for $30.00 per share. The cash tender offer, which was oversubscribed, expired at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on Friday, August 3, 2001.

105,341,969 shares of IBP common stock, representing approximately 97.4% of the total outstanding shares, had been tendered and not withdrawn by the expiration date. Pursuant to the terms of the offer, Tyson will purchase 53,612,799 of the tendered shares. The final results of proration indicate that Tyson will purchase approximately 50.9% of the IBP shares tendered by each IBP shareholder. The IBP shares which were tendered, but are not purchased, will be returned to the stockholders promptly.

The depository for the tender offer, Wilmington Trust Company, will be issuing payment promptly for the IBP shares accepted under the tender offer. After the purchase of the IBP shares, Tyson and Lasso Acquisition Corporation will own approximately 50.1% of the outstanding shares of IBP.

As previously announced, the tender offer will be followed by the merger of IBP with and into Lasso Acquisition Corporation. As a result of the merger, the IBP business will continue as a wholly owned subsidiary of Tyson. In the merger, each IBP share (other than shares owned by Tyson or any of its subsidiaries or by IBP as treasury stock, all of which will be canceled) will be converted into $30.00 of Tyson Class A common stock if, during the 15 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day preceding the effective time of the merger, the average closing price per share of Tyson Class A common stock is between $12.60 and $15.40. If the average price is above $15.40, each IBP share will be converted into 1.948 Tyson Class A common shares. If the average price is below $12.60, each IBP share will be converted into 2.381 shares of Tyson Class A common stock. The merger is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the approval of IBP stockholders. After purchasing the IBP shares in the offer, Tyson will have enough IBP shares to approve the merger without any other stockholder's approval. Tyson and IBP expect to file their joint proxy statement/prospectus for the merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission
