NOTE 1: ARGENTINE ECONOMIC SITUATION

Argentina is immersed in a critical economic situation. The main features of the current economic context are a major external debt burden, a financial system in crisis, country risk indicators far above normal average and an economic recession that has already lasted more than four years. This situation has led to a significant decrease in the demand for goods and services and a large rise in the level of unemployment. The Government's ability to comply with its commitments has been impaired, which led it to default in the payment of external debt services at the beginning of 2002.

To overcome the crisis the country is undergoing, as from December 2001 the government issued measures to restrict the free availability and circulation of cash and the transfer of foreign currency abroad. Subsequently, as from January 2002, laws, decrees and regulations were enacted that involved profound changes to the prevailing economic model and the amendment of the Convertibility Law in force until then. Among the measures adopted was the establishment of a single free exchange market system, that led to a significant devaluation of the Argentine peso during the first months of 2002; the pesification of certain assets and liabilities in foreign currency held abroad and the resulting increase in local prices.

Impact on the Company's financial position

As mentioned in Note 13 to the basic financial statements, during November 2002, the Company successfully completed the restructuring of its financial debt. Along these lines, the current cash position will enable the Company to take advantage of the opportunities available on the real estate market, as it did over the previous decade.

The future development of the economic crisis might require the Government to modify some measures adopted or issue additional regulations. Therefore, the Company's financial statements should be considered in the light of these circumstances.

NOTE 2: BASIS OF CONSOLIDATION CORPORATE CONTROL

a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared following the guidelines of Technical Resolution No. 4 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences (F.A.C.P.C.E.), pursuant to which the Balance Sheets as of March 31, 2003 and 2002 of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima, the Statements of Income and the Statements of Cash Flows for the three month then ended were consolidated with the financial statements of those companies in which has the necessary votes to exercise control over the corporate decisions.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The following table shows the data concerning the corporate control:

COMPANIES	March 31, 2003	March 31, 2002
	DIRECT OR INDIRECT % OF VOTING SHARES
IRSA International Ltd(1)		100,00

- (1) In accordance with mentioned in Note 18 to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements, as of June 30, 2002 the Company decided the liquidation anticipated of IRSA International Ltd.
- (2) As from the quarter ended on 30 September 2002 and as a result of the Company's acquisition of the convertible negotiable bonds (CNB) referred to in Note 23 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company is consolidating its financial statements with those of its subsidiary Alto Palermo S.A. Furthermore, during January 2003, we purchased an additional 3.4 million shares in Alto Palermo, for a total of US$ 2.4 million, taking our equity interest to 54.86%. We also purchased 2.6 million CNB, for a value of US$ 2.9 million, which, together with the 27.3 million underwritten at the time of the issue, has taken our position to 59.9% of the overall CNB issued by our subsidiary.

- (3) On August 16, 2002, the Company and RAGHSA S.A. agreed: i) the redistribution of the block 5M, of the Old Puerto Madero of the City of Buenos Aires, ii) the division and distribution of the charge and commitment to build on those plots of land, previously undertaken before Corporación Antigo Puerto Madero S.A.(CAPM), iii) the renegotiation of the other commitments and obligations also assumed before CAPM and iv) the exchange of the shares issued by ARSA, BARSÁ and BAT&FCSA, respectively, which own the plots of land included in block 5M. As a result of the share exchange, the Company now owns 100% of the shares in BAT&FCSA, and transferred its 50% interest in ARSA and BARSÁ respectively, to RAGHSA S.A.

As a result of the consolidation of the related company Alto Palermo S.A., mentioned above, since the beginning of this fiscal year the Company has discontinued the application of the proportional consolidation method in the preparation of the income statements. Accordingly, the financial statement figures originally issued as of March 31, 2002 have been reclassified to conform them to the presentation as of March 31, 2003.

b) Consideration of the effects of inflation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared according to Pronouncement M.D. 3/02 of the Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, which establishes the applicability of Technical Pronouncement No. 6, with the modifications introduced by Technical Pronouncement No. 19 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Council in Economic Sciences as from financial years or non-annual periods ending March 31, 2002.

In line with Pronouncement 441/03 of the National Securities Commission, dated April 8, 2003, as from March 1, 2003 the Company stopped applying the method of restatement of financial statement in uniform currency as established by Technical Pronouncement No. 6 with the modifications introduced by Technical Pronouncement No. 19, both pronouncements issued by the Argentine Federation of Professional Council in Economic Sciences (F.A.C.P.C.E.).

Therefore, the Company's financial statements are disclosed in uniform currency at February 28, 2003 and any items of a non-monetary nature existing prior to December 31, 2001 have been considered at their recorded values at that date.

The effect of not applying the adjustment for inflation during March 2003 does not imply significant adjustments to the Company's financial statements at March 31, 2003.

The above restatement was made applying the coefficients prepared based on the domestic wholesale price index.

c. Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications of prior period information have been made to conform with the current period presentation.

d. Acquisition of related companies

During the quarter ended March 31, 2002, the Company acquired 30.955% of the capital stock and registered, non-endorsable, convertible negotiable obligations issued by Valle de Las Leñas S.A., falling due on October 31, 2005, with a face value of US$ 3.7 million, for approximately US$ 2.4 million.

On March 4, 2003, the Company sold all its shareholding and negotiable obligations in Valle de las Leñas S.A. for US$ 6.5 million.

e. Sales in jointly controlled affiliated companies incorporated abroad

Notes to the unaudited consolidated financial statements (Contd.)

NOTE 3: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the subsidiaries mentioned in Note 2 a., have been prepared on a consistent basis with those applied by IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima.

a. Jointly controlled affiliated companies incorporated abroad

The financial statements of the related companies under joint control set up abroad, used for application of the equity method of accounting to value the investment in those companies, were converted into Argentine pesos at the year-end rate of exchange based on the financial statements of those companies stated in the currency of the country of origin. The conversion method envisages the conversion of monetary assets and liabilities at the exchange rate in force at the end of each period and the non-monetary assets and liabilities and equity accounts based on amounts adjusted for inflation, if applicable, at the exchange rate in force at the end of each period. Average exchange rates were used for the conversion of financial statements that reflect the results for the periods. The net gain/loss for monetary conversion is included in the Financial results, net.

Since March 31, 1999, as a consequence of changes in the variables to measure fluctuations in domestic prices, and the performance of the Brazilian currency compared to the Argentine peso, IRSA International Limited has decided to value its investments in fixed assets and other intangible assets that cannot be disposed of by its subsidiary, Brazil Realty S.A. Empreendimentos e Participações, at their original cost in pesos, less applicable accumulated depreciation, following the calculation method laid down by Technical Resolution No. 13, which was approved by the March 1999 Resolution of the Administrative Board of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences.

b. Shares and options of Banco Hipotecario S.A.

The shares in Banco Hipotecario S.A. held by Ritelco S.A. (a wholly-owned subsidiary) have been valued at their quotation at the end of the period, less estimated selling expenses, while options were valued at restated cost as mentioned in Note 1.b) to the individual unaudited financial statements or estimated net realizable value, whichever is lower.

c. Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues mainly stem from office rental, shopping center operations, development and sale of real estate, hotel operations and, to a lesser extent, from e-commerce activities.

See Note 4 for details on the Company's business segments. As discussed in Note 2.a., the consolidated statements of income were prepared following the guidelines of Technical Resolution No. 4 of the F.A.C.P.C.E.

Leases and services from shopping center operations

Leases with tenants are accounted for as operating leases. Tenants are generally charged a rent, which consists of the higher of (i) a monthly base rent (the Base Rent) and (ii) a specified percentage of the tenant's monthly gross retail sales (the Percentage Rent) (which generally ranges between 4% and 8% of tenant's gross sales).

Furthermore, pursuant to the rent escalation clause in most leases, a tenant's Base Rent generally increases between 4% and 7% each year during the term of the lease. Minimum rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Certain lease agreements contain provisions, which provide for rents based on a percentage of sales or based on a percentage of sales volume above a specified threshold. The Company determines the compliance with specific targets and calculates the additional rent on a monthly basis as provided for in the contracts. Thus, these contingent rents are not recognized until the required thresholds are exceeded.

Generally, the Company's lease agreements vary from 36 to 120 months. Law No. 24,808 provides that tenants may rescind commercial lease agreements after the initial six months, upon not less than 60 days' written notice, subject to penalties which vary from one to one and a half months rent if the tenant rescinds during the first year of its lease, and one month of rent if the tenant rescinds after the first year of its lease. The Company also charges its tenants a monthly administration fee, prorated among the tenants according to their leases, which varies from shopping center to shopping center, relating to the administration and maintenance of the common area and the administration of contributions made by tenants to finance promotional efforts for the overall shopping centers operations. Administration fees are recognized monthly when earned. In addition to rent, tenants are generally charged admission rights, a non-refundable admission fee that tenants may be required to pay upon entering into a lease and upon lease renewal. Admission right is normally paid in one lump sum or in a small number of monthly installments. Admission rights are recognized using the straight-line method over the life of the respective lease agreements. Furthermore, the lease agreements generally provide for the reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, advertising and certain common area maintenance costs. These additional rents and tenant reimbursements are accounted for on the accrual basis.

Credit card operations

Revenues derived from credit card transactions consist of commissions and financing income. Commissions are recognized at the time the merchants' transactions are processed, while financing income is recognized when earned.

Hotel operations

The Company recognizes revenues from its rooms, catering, and restaurant facilities as earned on the close of business each day.

NOTE 16: RESTRICTED ASSETS

Puerto Retiro S.A.: extension of the bankruptcy

On April 18, 2000, Puerto Retiro S.A. was notified of a filing made by the National Government, through the Ministry of Defense, to extend the petition in bankruptcy of Inversora Dársena Norte S.A. (Indarsa) to Puerto Retiro S.A. Concurrently with the complaint, at the request of plaintiff, the bankruptcy court granted an order restraining the ability of Puerto Retiro to sell or dispose in any manner the real estate property purchased from Tandanor S.A. (Tandanor).

Indarsa had purchased 90% of the capital stock of Tandanor, a formerly state owned company privatized in 1991, engaged in the shipyard industry.

In June 1993, Tandanor sold the plot of land near Puerto Madero denominated Planta 1 to Puerto Retiro S.A.

Indarsa did not comply with the payment of the outstanding price for the purchase of the stock of Tandanor, and therefore the Ministry of Defense requested the bankruptcy of Indarsa. Since the only asset of Indarsa were the shareholdings in Tandanor, the Ministry of Defense is pursuing to extend the bankruptcy to other companies or individuals which, according to its view, acted as an economic group, and therefore, requested the extension of the bankruptcy to Puerto Retiro which acquired Planta 1 from Tandanor. The lawsuit is at its first stages. Puerto Retiro S.A. answered the claim and appealed the preventive measures ordered. This appeal was overruled on December 14, 2000.

Puerto Retiro S.A. believes, pursuant to the advice of its legal advisors, that the plaintiff's claim shall be rejected by the courts.

Hoteles Argentinos S.A.: mortgage loan

The Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting of Hoteles Argentinos S.A. held on January 5, 2001, approved taking a long-term mortgage loan from Bank Boston N.A. Buenos Aires for a total of US$ 12,000,000 to be used to refinance existing debts. The term of the loan was agreed at 60 months payable in 19 equal and quarterly installments of US$ 300,000 and one final payment of US$ 6,300,000. The agreement was signed on January 26, 2001.

Interest is paid quarterly in arrears at an annual interest rate equivalent to LIBOR for nine-month loans plus the applicable mark-up per the contract, which consists in a variable interest rate applicable during the interest bearing periods, which ranges from 6.56% to 8.46% per year.

The guarantee granted was a senior mortgage on a Company property, which houses the Hotel Sheraton Libertador Buenos Aires.

At the date of issue of these financial statements, as a result of the current economic situation, the lack of credit and the crisis of the Argentine financial system, principal installments of US$ 300 thousand falling due on January 26, April 29, July 29, October 26, 2002, January 26 2003 and April 29, 2003 respectively and the interest installment amounting to US$ 672 thousand falling due on July 29, October 26, 2002, January 26, 2003 and April 29, 2003 were not paid. Although Hoteles Argentinos Management is renegotiating the debt with its creditors, as failure to pay the installments when due entitles the bank to require acceleration of principal and interest maturities, the loan has been classified and is shown under current financial loans in these financial statements.

NOTE 17: TARSHOP CREDIT CARD RECEIVABLE SECURITIZACION

Alto Palermo S.A. has ongoing revolving period securitization programs through which Tarshop, a majority-owned subsidiary of APSA, transfers a portion of its customer credit card receivable balances to a master trust (the Trust) that issues certificates to public and private investors.

To the extent the certificates are sold to third parties, the receivables transferred qualify as sales for financial statement purposes and are removed from the APSA balance sheet. The remaining receivables in the Trust which have not been sold to third parties are reflected on the APSA balance sheet as a retained interest in transferred credit card receivables. Under these programs, APSA acts as the servicer on the accounts and receives a fee for its services.

Under the securitization programs, the Trust may issue two types of certificates representing undivided interests in the Trust: Títulos de Deuda Fiduciaria (TDF) and Certificados de Participación (CP), which represent debt, and equity certificates, respectively. Interest and principal services are paid periodically to the TDF holders throughout the life of the security. CPs are subordinated securities which entitle the CP holders to share pro rata in the cash flows of the securitized credit card receivables, after principal and interest on the TDFs and other fees and expenses have been paid. During the revolving period no payments are made to TDF and CP holders. Principal collections of the underlying financial assets are used by the Trust to acquire additional credit card receivables throughout the revolving period. Once the revolving period ends, a period of liquidation occurs during which: (i) no further assets are purchased and (ii) all cash collections are used to fulfill the TDF service requirements and (iii) the remaining proceeds are used to fulfill the CPs service requirements.

Alto Palermo S.A. entered into two-year revolving-period securitization programs, through which Tarshop sold an aggregate amount of Ps. 83.1 million of its customer credit card receivable. Under the securitization programs, the Trusts issued Ps. 12.4 million nominal value subordinated CPs, Ps. 23.8 million 12% fixed-rate interest TDFs and Ps. 20.0 million 18% fixed-rate interest TDFs, and Ps. 6.9 million variable rate interest TDFs. Tarshop acquired all the CPs at an amount equal to their nominal value while the TDFs were sold to other investors through a public offering in Argentina. As a credit protection for investors, Tarshop has established cash reserves for losses amounting to Ps. 0.2 million.

NOTE 22: DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The Company uses various financial derivatives, mainly term exchange purchase-sale contracts, to hedge its net investment in foreign operations and as a complement to reduce its global financial costs.

The counterparties to these instruments generally are major financial institutions. The Company does not hold or issue derivative instruments for trading purposes. In entering into these contracts, the Company has assumed the risk that might arise from the possible inability of counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts. The Company does not expect any losses as a result of counterparty defaults.

(i) Foreign currency forward-exchange contracts

The Company uses foreign currency forward-exchange contracts as a supplement to reduce its overall financing costs. Premiums on foreign currency forward-exchange contracts are amortized over the life of the respective contract. The market value of the foreign currency forward contracts has not been recognized in the accompanying financial statements. As of March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company did not have any foreign currency forward contracts in force.

(ii) Interest rate swap

In order to minimize its financing costs and to manage interest rate exposure, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement to effectively convert a portion of its peso-denominated fixed-rate debt to peso-denominated floating rate debt.

As of March 31, 2001, the Company had an interest rate swap agreement outstanding with an aggregate notional amount of Ps. 85.0 million with maturities through March 2005. This swap agreement initially allowed the Company to reduce the net cost of its debt. However, subsequent to June 30, 2001, the Company modified the swap agreement due to an increase in interest rates as a result of the economic situation. Under the terms of the revised agreement, the Company converted its peso-denominated fixed rate debt to U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate debt for a notional amount of US$ 69.1 million with maturities through March 2005. Any differential to be paid or received under this agreement is accrued and is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense in the statement of operations. The related accrued receivable or payable is included as an adjustment to interest payable. The fair value of the swap agreement is not recognized in the financial statements. During the period ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company recognized a gain of Ps. 3.7 million and Ps. 2.1 million, respectively.

These contracts have been valued at their market price. The premiums for option contracts are amortized over the life of the corresponding contracts.

NOTE 1: BASIS FOR THE PRESENTATION

a) Disclosure criteria

In compliance with the provisions of Resolution No. 368/01, 372/01 and 398/02 of the Argentine Securities Commission, these financial statements are stated in thousands of Argentine pesos and have been prepared in line with the valuation and disclosure criteria contained in Technical Resolutions No. 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12 and 13 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences (the FACPCE), and according to the provisions of the aforementioned Resolutions.

The financial statements for the nine-month periods ending 31 March 2003 and 2002 have not been audited. The Company's management considers that they include all the necessary adjustments to reasonably present the financial result for the periods referred to.

The financial result for the period ended 31 March 2003 does not necessarily reflect the net income for the year.

The present financial statements must be readen considering the circumstances mentioned in Note 1 to the unaudited consolidated financial statements.

b) Recognition of the effects of inflation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared according to Pronouncement M.D. 3/02 of the Professional Council in Economic Sciences of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, which establishes the applicability of Technical Pronouncement No. 6, with the modifications introduced by Technical Pronouncement No. 19 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Council in Economic Sciences as from financial years or non-annual periods ending March 31, 2002.

In line with Pronouncement 441/03 of the National Securities Commission, dated April 8, 2003, as from March 1, 2003 the Company stopped applying the method of restatement of financial statement in uniform currency as established by Technical Pronouncement No. 6 with the modifications introduced by Technical Pronouncement No. 19, both pronouncements issued by the Argentine Federation of Professional Council in Economic Sciences (F.A.C.P.C.E.).

Therefore, the Company's financial statements are disclosed in uniform currency at February 28, 2003 and any items of a non-monetary nature existing prior to December 31, 2001 have been considered at their recorded values at that date.

The effect of not applying the adjustment for inflation during March 2003 does not imply significant adjustments to the Company's financial statements at March 31, 2003.

The above restatement was made applying the coefficients prepared based on the domestic wholesale price index.

The National Securities Commission, through Resolution 434/03, has adopted the Technical Resolutions referred to with certain exceptions and modifications, which shall apply to the financial years commencing on 1 January 2003. Consequently, the Company has prepared these financial statements in accordance with Resolution 415/02 which do not envisage these changes and differ with the provisions contained in the accounting standards currently in force.

The main modifications introduced by the new Technical Pronouncements involving significant adjustments to the Company's financial statements are related to the recording of income tax by the method of deferred tax, the recording of derivatives and the valuation of credits and debts without an express rate at their current value.

h. Asset tax

During the period ended June 30, 1999, Law 25,063 set out the asset tax for four fiscal periods. This tax supplements the income tax, because while the latter is levied on the taxable income for the period, the asset tax is levied on the potential yield of certain assets at a 1% rate, and the Company's tax liability is the higher of both taxes.

Law 25,360 modified Law 25,063 by extending the term of application to ten fiscal periods.

Any excess of the asset tax over and above the income tax in a given fiscal period may be considered as a payment on account of the income tax to be generated in the next ten periods (in excess of the asset tax).

As of March 31, 2003 the Company has estimated the applicable asset tax and has reflected the portion it estimates it will be able to offset in future periods in line with the rules in force under other (current and non-current) receivables, charging the remaining portion to income currently.

i. Customer advances

Customer advances represent payments received in advance in connection with the sale and rent of properties.

j. Provisions for allowances and contingencies

The Company provides for losses relating to mortgage, lease and other accounts receivable. The allowance for losses is recognized when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the terms of the agreements. The allowance is determined on a one-by-one basis considering the present value of expected future cash flow. While management uses the information available to make evaluations, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if future economic conditions differ substantially from the assumptions used in making the evaluations. Management has considered all events and/or transactions that are subject to reasonable and normal methods of estimations, and the consolidated financial statements reflect that consideration.

j. Provisions for allowances and contingencies (Continued)

The Company has certain contingent liabilities with respect to existing or potential claims, lawsuits and other proceedings, including those involving labor and other matters. The Company accrues liabilities when it is probable that future costs will be incurred and such costs can be reasonably estimated. Such accruals are based on developments to date, the Company's estimates of the outcomes of these matters and the Company's lawyers' experience in contesting, litigating and settling other matters. As the scope of the liabilities becomes better defined, there may be changes in the estimates of future costs, which could have a material effect on the Company's future results of operations and financial condition or liquidity.

k. Advertising expenses

The Company generally charges the advertising and publicity expenses to results when they are incurred, except for the advertising and publicity expenses related to the sale of real estate projects. Advertising and promotion expenses were approximately Ps. 119 and Ps. 931 thousand for the period ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

l. Pension information

The Company does not maintain any pension plans. Argentine laws provide for pension benefits to be paid to retired employees from government pension plans and/or privately managed funds plan to which employees may elect to contribute.

m. Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company regularly evaluates its non-current assets for recoverability. The Company considers that impairment losses arise when the recoverable value is lower than book value. Impairment losses must be appropriated to the result for the period. The recoverable value is mainly determined using independent estimates or projections of future cash flows. At the end of the previous fiscal year, due to the progressive deterioration of the Argentine economy and the impact on the Company's revenue of the measures adopted by the National Government mentioned in Note 1 to the unaudited consolidated financial statements, the Company has reevaluated the recoverable value of its non-current assets, recording an impairment loss as the valuation of certain assets has exceeded the estimated recoverable value.

n. Financial derivatives

The Company uses various financial derivatives to hedge its net investment in foreign operations and as a complement to reduce its global financial costs.

n. Financial derivatives (Continued)

The Company does not engage in trading or other speculative use of these financial instruments. Additionally, the Company has not used financial instruments to hedge transactions foreseen or firm commitments. To be eligible for hedging, the Company must be exposed to currency or interest rate risk, and the financial instrument must reduce the exposure and be designated as such. In addition, for hedging purposes, the significant characteristics and expected terms of the planned transaction must be identified and the expected transaction must be probable. Financial instruments that can be recorded as hedging instruments must maintain a high correlation between the hedging instrument and the item being hedged at the beginning and during the entire hedging period.

The Company formally documents all the relationships between hedging instruments and hedged items, as well as its risk management objective and strategy before embarking on hedging transactions. This process includes detailing all the derivatives designated for hedging of specific assets and liabilities in the balance sheet or specific firm commitments or planned transactions. The Company also evaluates both at the beginning of the hedging transaction and on an ongoing basis whether the derivatives used in hedging transactions are very effective to offset fluctuations in the market values or cash flows of the items hedged. If it is determined that a derivative is not very effective for hedging or that it has stopped being an effective cover, the Company would discontinue the recording of such hedging instrument in the future.

Foreign currency forward-exchange contracts

In accordance with the Company's risk management policies, it uses long-term foreign currency purchase and sale contracts as a supplement to reduce its overall financial costs as well as to administer its exposure regarding net investments in financial transactions.

Foreign currency forward-exchange contracts entered into by the Company generally mature within one period. Premiums on foreign currency forward-exchange contracts are amortized over the life of the respective contracts.

Interest rate swaps

Interest rate swaps are used to hedge interest rate exposure. Interest rate swaps are recognized on an accrual basis, recording the net amount receivable or payable as an adjustment to the interest rate expense. The accrued amount receivable or payable is included as an adjustment to the interest expense. Upon expiry or termination of a swap, the net income or loss realized or pending realization is recognized over the remaining original term if the hedged item remains unpaid, or immediately if the underlying hedged item is not unpaid. If the swap has not expired, or if it expires before maturity, but the underlying hedged item is no longer unpaid, the unrealized income or loss on the interest swap is immediately recognized.

Options contracts

The Company signs options contracts by which, through the payment or collection of a sum of money (premium) it acquires or grants the right to the other party to buy or sell certain underlying assets (shares, metals, etc.) at a predetermined fixed price during a period previously established. These contracts have been valued at their market price. The premiums for option contracts are amortized over the life of the corresponding contracts.

o. Shareholders equity

Opening balances and account movements are stated in the currency of the month to which they correspond, restated as mentioned in Note 1.b).

p. Results for the period

The results for the period are shown as follows:

Income accounts are shown in currency of the month to which they correspond, and have been restated as mentioned in Note 1.b).

Charges for assets consumed (fixed asset depreciation, intangible asset amortization and cost of sales) were determined based on the values recorded for such assets.

Financial gains and losses are included in Note 8, broken down to show those generated by assets and by liabilities.

Income (loss) from investments in controlled and affiliated companies was calculated under the equity method, by applying the percentage of the Company's equity interest to the income (loss) of such companies.

q. Estimations

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the period. Estimates are used when accounting for the depreciation, amortization, impairment of long-lived assets, income taxes and contingencies. Future actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions prepared at the date of these financial statements.

r. Revenue recognition

r.1. Sales of properties

The Company records revenue from the sale of properties classified as inventory when all of the following criteria are met:

the sale has been consummated;

there is sufficient evidence to demonstrate the buyer's ability and commitment to pay for the property;

the Company's receivable is not subject to future subordination; and the Company has transferred the property to the buyer.

The Company uses the percentage-of-completion method of accounting with respect to sales of development properties under construction effected under fixed-price contracts. Under this method, revenue is recognized based on the ratio of costs incurred to total estimated costs applied to the total contract price. The Company does not commence revenue and cost recognition until such time as the decision to proceed with the project is made and construction activities have begun. The percentage-of-completion method of accounting requires the Company's management to prepare budgeted costs in connection with sales of properties/units. All changes to estimated costs of completion are incorporated into revised estimates during the contract period.

r.2. Leases

Revenues from leases are recognized over the life of the related lease contracts. All revenues are presented net of taxes levied on sales.

s. Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, consisting primarily in mutual funds.

t. Result from operations and holding of real estate

The results from operations and holding of real estate assets include the results provided by the valuation and sale of shares in real estate investment companies.

d. Noncontributory Management Stock Ownership Plan

On October 30, 1997, the shareholders authorized the Company to enter into a Noncontributory Management Stock Ownership Plan (NMSOP) with eight executive officers of the Company (the Beneficiaries), pursuant to which the Beneficiaries were granted the right to purchase up to 24 million shares of common stock (the Participation Shares), at a purchase price equal to Ps. 1.0 per share, subject to the implementation of an Equity Participation Agreement (EPA). Under Argentine law, the Company established a special purpose trust in this connection (the Trust).

Independent Accountant's Report

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of

IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima

1. We have reviewed the balance sheets of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima at March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of income, of changes in shareholders' equity and of cash flows for the nine-month periods then ended, and the complementary notes 1 to 13 and exhibits A to I. In addition, we have reviewed the consolidated financial statements of IRSA Inversiones y Representaciones Sociedad Anónima and subsidiaries for the nine-month periods then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.
2. We conducted our review in accordance with standards established by Technical Resolution No. 7 of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences for limited reviews of financial statements. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.
3. The Company has prepared the financial statements applying the criteria of valuation, restatement and disclosure established by the Comisión Nacional de Valores, which as explained in Note 1 c) differ from certain aspect of prevailing accounting standards in Argentina. The effect on the financial statements arising from the different valuation criteria have not been quantified by the Company and we have not been able, through the performance of other auditing procedures, to estimate the impact on the financial statements of this divergence from professional accounting standards in Argentina.
4. As detailed in note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, as result of the economic crisis in Argentina, the Government issued a series of measures that mostly affect the financial year 2002. The future evolution of the crisis may require that the Government modify some of the measures adopted or issue additional regulations. Consequently, the Company's financial statements must be read in the light of these circumstances.
5. Our report dated September 9, 2002 on the financial statements at June 30, 2002 and 2001 included a qualification referred to the uncertainty as to whether the Company would be in a position to continue to operate as going concern. As mentioned in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the restructuring of the Company's debt was satisfactorily completed in November 2002. Consequently, our report on the financial statements at March 31, 2003 does not longer contain the mentioned observation.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Comment on the quarter's operations ended March 31, 2003.

After a historic GDP fall of 10.9% the second worst in the world during 2002 accompanied by a severe political, social and institutional crisis, the first quarter of 2003 did not surrender to the uncertainty generated by presidential elections and kept the path of economic recovery started a few months ago.

The economic pace of the country definitively reverted a four-year recession trend, led by a recovery of the industrial activity, mainly in sectors related to exports and to imports substitution. This sector accumulates a 20.2% rise for the first three months, compared to the same period last year, according to the monthly industrial indicator provided by the INDEC.

The decline in the demand for dollars, explained by a lower capital outflow from the country, and the collapse of imports that generated a strong trade surplus, strengthened the exchange rate appreciation in 12% during the quarter 24% from its peak in June 2002 although an active policy in the foreign exchange market, aiming to raise foreign reserves, was carried out by the Central Bank of the Argentine Republic (BCRA). This evolution of the exchange rate positively affected our financial position, given the high exposure of our dollar-denominated financial structure.

Alternatively, the achievement of fiscal goals exceeding the amount agreed with the International Monetary Fund, which reached a Ps.1,790 primary surplus 19% over the agreed amount contributed to strengthen the insipient economic stability.

In this context of investors' confidence recovery, in which was also possible the definite opening of the corralón (frozen deposits), the time deposits for the first quarter of 2003 increased by Ps.6,162 million at the same time the economic future of the country began to revive.

For our Company, the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003 evidenced a Ps.197.6 million profit. This profit is primarily due to the Ps.216.6 million positive result of the Financing Effects item. Such income statement item during the present consecutive nine months, has accumulated a net result of Ps.199.3 million, due to the 22% appreciation of the Peso (30% in real terms), from June 30, 2002 till the end of the present quarter. Another variables generated a positive result of Ps.17.6 million.

The sales for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003, amounted to Ps.164.1 million, a 51.9% increase as compared to Ps.108.0 million during the previous fiscal year. This increase is primarily due to the consolidation, as from this fiscal year, of 100% of APSA revenues as from the current financial year.

In line with our strategy of taking advantage of market opportunities, on March 19, 2003, we sold Piscis Hotel and our stake in Valle de Las Leñas S.A., assets acquired during the second half of last year. Valle de Las Leñas S.A. is the operator of one of the most important ski resorts of the country and Hotel Piscis is a five-star hotel located in the aforementioned ski center. The transaction yielded a gain of US$ 5.9 million in a short period of less than 8 months.

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

Our hotels continue to benefit from increased tourism, experiencing a constant improvement in their occupation levels. The gap between the low costs in Pesos and dollar-denominated rates are generating an unusual operating margin for the hotel business. In March, the Gross Operating Profit (GOP) was above international average, being 38.6% for the Sheraton hotel, 42.7% for the InterContinental hotel and 44.6% for the Llao Llao hotel.

Total assets increased by 31.0% as compared to the previous fiscal year, reaching Ps.2,023.9 million. Financial debt was reduced in 8.0%, totaling Ps.757.6 million as of March 31, 2003. For a better comprehension of the evolution of our financial debt, we would like to make clear that the amount corresponding to the current period was increased by the consolidation of our controlled company, APSA. However, the effects of inflation on 2002 financial debt and our efforts to its restructuring have been reflected in a decrease as compared to the preceding period. Furthermore, it is important to note that as of the end of the present quarter, 92% of total financial debt corresponded to long term debt, while in the same period of last year it accounted for only 6% of total debt.

Third quarter of fiscal year 2003 highlights, including significant operations occurred after the end of the quarter.

I. Offices and Other Rental Properties

During the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003, revenues from the Company's rental portfolio reached Ps.14.1 million, as compared to Ps.37.3 million in the same period for fiscal year 2002. The average occupancy rate has maintained stable with respect to the previous quarter at 72%. Undoubtedly, this segment was the worst hit by the crisis. Although the economy is reactivating, the persistent political uncertainty continues negatively affecting this sector.

The chart below presents information on the Company's offices and other rental properties as of March 31, 2003.

II. Shopping Centers Alto Palermo S.A (APSA)

During the quarter ended March 31, 2003, we acquired 3.4 million additional shares of APSA, increasing our ownership in our subsidiary operator of shopping centers to 54.9%.

The net income of APSA for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003 grew to Ps.82.3 million, which considerably contrasts with the negative Ps.49.0 million for the same period of the previous year. The net income for the present period, it is mainly explained by a Net Financial Result of Ps.65.0 million, mostly originated by positive exchange rate differences due to its financial exposure in foreign currency and its depreciation against the Argentine Peso during the last months. Furthermore, the debt buyback at discount during these nine months yielded a gain of Ps.19.7 million.

As of March 31, 2003, APSA's total revenues amounted to Ps.81.1 million, being 48.6% lower than total revenues for the same period of the previous year. This drop is attributable to the reduction in real terms of collected leases, which indicates that revenues grew at a lower pace than wholesale inflation.

In spite of the appreciation of the real exchange rate, Argentina continued to be one of the preferred tourist destinations of South America for shopping. The country not only has substantial exchange advantages over its neighbors, but also offers an increasing wide range of tourist destinations, very complete and attractive to different kind of public. During the quarter, the inflow of people through Ezeiza International Airport considerably increased by 45.4%, as compared to the same period of the previous year.

In line with this, APSA's tenant's sales kept showing the sustained increase which is being evidenced as from the second half of 2002. During the three months ended March 31, 2003, sales reached Ps.218.2 million; 61.6% higher than those for the same period last year. In real terms, this was a 19.4% improvement.

On the other hand, the upsurge in commercial activity was reflected in the increase of APSA's occupancy levels, the sort of high rates seen only prior to the economic crisis. The evolution of this variable, not only refers to an improvement of its business, but also shows the excellent quality of APSA's shopping center portfolio, which have a better performance regarding to their demand by potential tenants.

Tenants' average monthly sales per square meter for the nine-month period totaled approximately Ps.430.

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

Ours shopping centers have received approximately 68.9 million visitors during the last twelve months. Furthermore, during the first three months of 2003, shopping centers visitors reached its historic peak of approximately 17.9 million people.

APSA's shopping centers occupancy evolution:

In view of the improvement of its tenant's position, APSA continues to apply the Coeficiente de Estabilización de Referencia (CER) upon a part of the contracts converted into pesos (pesificados) and increased the collection in concept of key money upon the signing or renewal of lease agreements in its Shopping Centers.

Tarjeta Shopping

During this quarter, Tarshop S.A., the credit card company in which APSA holds an 80% interest, had a 29.2% decrease in its credit card portfolio (including securitized receivables), from Ps.63.1 million as of March 31, 2002 to Ps.44.6 million as of March 31, 2003. In addition, the number of card holders decreased by 2,948 during this period, amounting to 145,671.

During the course of the quarters, Tarshop S.A. experienced a purge in its credit portfolio after the severe financial crisis. Selling expenses for bad debtors fell from Ps.4.3 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003, to Ps.1.6 million for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and to Ps.1.3 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2003. In addition, even if the current portfolio is smaller than it was a year before, it has a better credit quality, rising collection to pre-crisis levels.

Tarjeta Shopping's share in credit card sales at Alto Palermo, Alto Avellaneda and Abasto de Buenos Aires as of March 31, 2003 was 4.7%, 29.9% and 16.0%, respectively. The credit cards activation rate is approximately 54%.

The chart below presents information on APSA's shopping centers as of March 31, 2003.

III. Sales and Developments

Revenues from this segment were of Ps.44.1 million during the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003, as compared to Ps.40.2 million recorded during the same period of fiscal year 2002. This increase mainly results from the sale of the Piscis Hotel in March 2003 which was registered in this segment.

In addition, the appreciation of the Peso and the opening of the during the quarter encouraged the public to invest in low-risk assets like real estate ones. In spite of the current lack of credit for the purchase of properties, the mentioned factors have begun to reactivate the real estate market.

Sales

Abril, Hudson, Province of Buenos Aires During the quarter ended March 31, 2003, 52 lots of Abril were sold. We are already marketing all the projected neighborhoods, and 91% of the lots are sold. There are 73 houses under construction and 530 finished houses.

In March we sold the 40 pending lots to Pulte for Ps.3.2 million. Pulte cancelled the transaction by returning 27 lots previously acquired, amounting to Ps.2.8 million and cancelled the balance of Ps.0.5 million in cash.

Alto Palermo Park and Plaza During the three-month period ended March 31, 2003 we sold 5 units of Alto Palermo Park for the total US$ 989,201 and 3 units of Alto Palermo Plaza for US$ 1,096,000. In this way we have successfully concluded the marketing of Alto Palermo Plaza.

Developments

As a result of the clear signs of reactivation of the economy and the real estate market, we begun with the projects for future developments.

Cruceros, Dique 2 It is a unique project in the area of Puerto Madero. The residential building of 6,400 sqm will be constructed next to the Edificios Costeros office building. It is oriented to the high-income sector and all its common areas have river view. It will be partially financed through the anticipated sale of apartments. The project is at an advanced stage and we expect to start the pre-sale in the next months.

Purchase of Salguero plot In March 2003, we signed a contract to purchase a plot in Salguero 3313, opposite Paseo Alcorta shopping center, the most exclusive residential area in the city of Buenos Aires. IRSA plans to build a residential building with large apartments and a privileged view. The transaction was made through an exchange with Establecimientos Providence S.A. in which IRSA will give Providence 25% of the functional units once the project is finished. With the sign of the deed contract, US$ 80,000 were paid in advanced, and US$ 230,000 are still pending to be paid at the moment of the deed of title, expected on June 26, 2003. At that moment, a mortgage guarantee will be made in favor of Providence for US$ 750,000 as a guarantee of the operation. The following chart illustrates IRSA's development properties as of March 31, 2003

IV. Hotels

Total revenues from the hotel segment amounted to Ps.25.3 million for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003, as compared to Ps.30.6 million recorded during the same period of fiscal year 2002. In nominal terms, this means an increase of 37%.

Hotels continue to show an excellent performance as the result of the devaluation of the Peso and the influx of tourists to Argentina. With these favorable conditions, the Government is promoting the arrival of foreigners to Argentina, encouraging this activity which is generating considerable income and has great potential. Although all our hotels are increasing their occupancy levels and average rates, Hotel Llao Llao achieved an occupancy rate of 78% in March this year, with the highest rates per room in Argentina. This hotel is consolidating its position as a top-level resort in Argentina, unique for its services and its location.

Edgar Filing: IRSA INVESTMENTS & REPRESENTATIONS INC - Form 6-K

The InterContinental hotel was chosen in April 2003 as the Best Hotel of South America by the prestigious TV network CNN, receiving the Ultimate Service Awards 2002, one of the most important of the tourist industry at international level. In this way, the InterContinental Buenos Aires hotel is globally recognized as a regional leader for the excellence and high quality of the service provided to its clients. It is noteworthy that this award is based on the vote of each traveler who uses different hotel chains and knows how to distinguish luxury, warmth, comfort, and the best hospitality in the same place.

As we did many times during the 90 s, we continue taking advantage of opportunities in the market and on March 19, 2003 we sold the Piscis Hotel and our stake in the Valle de Las Leñas S.A. The transaction yielded a gain of US$ 5.9 million gain in a short period of less than 8 months. This sale was recorded on the Sales and Developments segment.

The chart below shows information regarding our Company s hotels estimated for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003.

V. Financial Transactions and Others

Impact of exchange rate fluctuations on the Company's financial position Our dollar-denominated liabilities have been positively affected by the 22% Peso appreciation during the nine-month period ended March 31, 2003, generating a positive result for our Company of Ps.258.3 million. The exposure of our assets to this same macroeconomic indicator during the same period in fiscal year 2002 generated a loss of Ps.59.1 million. The net result generated by the appreciation of the Peso was of Ps.199.3 million and is registered under Financial Results . It considerably explains the gain for this period.

Purchase of APSA's shares and Convertible Notes During January 2003, we have acquired 3.4 million of additional shares of APSA, thus increasing our ownership to 54.9%. Moreover, we have acquired 2.6 million of APSA's Convertible Notes that together with the 27,324,848 convertible notes subscribed at the moment of the issuance, amount to 59.9% of the convertible notes issued by our subsidiary.

Conversion of Notes After the end of the third quarter ended March 31, 2003, the conversion right was exercised for 4,380 units. As a result, 8,862 common shares of Ps.1.0 face value per share were issued.

Hence, the amount of outstanding Convertible Notes decreased to U$S 99,995,170 while the Company's outstanding shares went from 211,999,273 to 212,008,135.

Buyback of APSA's debt During the three-month period ended March 31, 2003 APSA continued the bond buyback process of the Ps.120 million APSA-SAPSA FRN due January 2005, repurchasing Ps.15.8 million face value, which would have represented a Ps.22.7 million debt as of March 31, 2003. To undertake this operation, a debt with IRSA and Parque Arauco was contracted. The cancellation in advance, allowed APSA to obtain a discount of 16% (Ps.3.6 million).

Additionally, APSA repurchased the amount of Ps.0.5 million of the Ps.85 million Notes due April 2005, which resulted in a Ps.0.2 million gain.

Improvement in the rating of our Global Program for up to US$ 250 million On January 28, 2002, Fitch Argentina, raised the rating of our Global Program for up to US$ 250 million, from C (arg) to B- (arg). This raise is a consequence of our debt restructuring by which we have extended all maturities on a long-term basis. Our Secured Floating Rate Notes for US$ 37.4 million have been issued under this program.

New improvement of the risk rating of APSA's structured debt In April, 2003, Standard & Poor's International Ratings LLC (local branch) raised the rating of the Ps.85 million Notes from raCCC+ with negative trend to raB+ with stable trend. According to some arguments presented by the rating agency, this rating upgrade reflects the improvement in the performance and financial profile of the Company, due to the gradual recovery of the business variables of APSA as from the second half of 2002. Additionally, the financial restructuring undertaken during 2002 resulted in an improvement in its cash flow as well as in its interest and indebtedness coverage ratios .

VI. Brief comments on prospects for the Oncoming Quarter

For Argentina, although the refinancing of the past-due debt payments with the IMF would assist in a decrease of the economic uncertainty, the political and electoral scenario is very complicated and remains the only stumbling block at the time of making macroeconomic predictions.

The recovery of the economy of our country is already an undeniable fact. There is still some political uncertainty that will be dissipated next May 18th in the presidential election. Last April 27 th, no candidate was able to obtain an absolute majority, leading to a second ballot for the next week between the former president Carlos Menem and the governor of the Province of Santa Cruz, Kirchner. Both candidates are from the peronista party. The challenge facing the next Government will be to achieve a fiscal balance and reach an agreement with the IMF for the refinancing of the foreign debt.

After enduring one of the worst beatings of any economy in the world in 2002, the Argentina of 2003 has one of the highest growth prospects of any country. Thanks to the restructuring undergone by IRSA over the past few years, as well as the refinancing of our debt and the issuing of US$ 100 million in Convertible Notes, we are now in a privileged position and with enough cash to capitalize on opportunities arising in the market, and to launch those projects delayed by the recession.

After being hit by the crisis and the devaluation, Argentina arises as a great opportunity which we trust will be recognized by investors around the world. The capital inflow will restore the industry and the financial market, increasing our businesses. Our shopping centers and hotels are already being benefited from the tourism and we expect an increase even higher due to the rise in foreigner's visits. Additionally, future visits of foreign executives in search of investments will revive the business activity of our Intercontinental and Sheraton Hotels, located in the center of the city of Buenos Aires.

We believe that our cautious track record distinguishes us in the Argentine market and we are firmly committed to continued growth that will help consolidate us as one of the most important groups in the country.
