This Statement on Schedule 13D is filed with respect to 12,500,000 shares (the Shares ) of the Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Novavax, Inc. (the Company ) held by Satellite Overseas (Holdings) Limited ( SOHL ). SOHL is a wholly owned subsidiary (except for directors qualifying shares) of Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd ( Cadila ). Cadila and SOHL are referred to herein collectively as the Cadila Entities.

Item 1. Security and Issuer

The name of the subject company is Novavax, Inc., and the address of its principal executive office is 9920 Belward Campus Drive, Rockville, Maryland 20850. The class of securities to which this Statement relates is the common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share ( Common Stock ).

Item 2. Identity and Background

(a)-(c); (f) This Statement is filed by the Cadila Entities and Dr. Rajiv I. Modi ( Dr. Modi ), who may be deemed to control the Cadila Entities. The information concerning the name, state or other place of organization, principal business, and the address of the principal office of each of the Cadila Entities, and the information concerning the name, business address, present principal occupation or employment, and the name, principal business address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment or occupation is conducted, and the citizenship of Dr. Modi and each of the executive officers and directors of the Cadila Entities is filed as Exhibit 1 hereto.

(d); (e) During the last five years, none of the Cadila Entities or Dr. Modi, or, to their knowledge, any of the directors or executive officers of the Cadila Entities, has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree, or final order enjoining future violation of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The Shares were acquired directly from the Company pursuant to an existing shelf registration statement for an aggregate purchase price of $11,000,000. The purchase price was financed by SOHL pursuant to an intercompany loan from Cadila. Approximately $10.9 million of the funds used to make the intercompany loan was obtained by Cadila pursuant to short-term loans due in 120 days (the Short-Term Financing ) from Corporation Bank, Ahmedabad, India (authorized loan amount: $8,898,556; disbursed loan amount: $8,898,556) and Allahabad Bank, Ahmedabad, India (authorized loan amount: $11,864,742; disbursed loan amount: $1,977,457). The Short-Term Financing is personally guaranteed by Mr. Indravadan A. Modi, Chairman and Managing Director of Cadila. The balance of the intercompany loan was obtained from internally generated funds of Cadila.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

One or more of the reporting persons filing this Schedule may determine to purchase additional shares of the Company's Common Stock or other securities in the open market, pursuant to preemptive rights, or otherwise, depending upon price, market conditions, availability of funds, evaluation of alternative investments and other factors. One or more of the reporting persons could determine, based upon the same set of factors listed above with respect to purchases, to sell some or all of the Shares. Furthermore, SOHL may exercise its rights (or one or more of the other reporting persons may cause SOHL to exercise its rights) under the Registration Rights Agreement (as defined in Item 6, below), including the right to cause the Company after December 31, 2009 to register the Shares under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act ), in order to facilitate the sale of any or all of the Shares without being subject to the volume or other limitations of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act ( Rule 144 ). In addition, the reporting persons are considering alternatives for the refinancing of the Short-Term Financing, which may include a pledge of the Shares as collateral. Except as set forth above, the Cadila Entities and Dr. Modi have no intention to effect any of the transactions specified in Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a) SOHL is the beneficial owner of the Shares, which constitute 15.4% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Dr. Modi may be deemed to control Cadila, which controls SOHL. Thus, both Dr. Modi and Cadila may be considered to have beneficial ownership of the Shares. These shares are held for convenience in the name of SOHL, Inc., as nominee for SOHL. SOHL, Inc. has no voting, dispositive or pecuniary interest in any such shares.

(b) SOHL has both voting and investment power with respect to the Shares. However, Cadila and Dr. Modi may be deemed to control SOHL. Therefore, each of the reporting persons has voting and investment power with respect to the Shares.

(c) Neither of the Cadila Entities or Dr. Modi or, to their knowledge, any executive officer or director of the Cadila Entities, has engaged in any transaction in any shares of the Company's Common Stock during the sixty days immediately preceding the date hereof, except for the April 1, 2009 purchase by SOHL directly from the Company of 1,250,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at a purchase price of $0.88 per share pursuant to an existing shelf registration statement.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

On March 31, 2009, SOHL entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Stock Purchase Agreement ) with the Company pursuant to which SOHL agreed to purchase 12.5 million shares of the Company's Common Stock for a purchase price of $0.88 per share. The transaction closed on April 1, 2009. The Stock Purchase Agreement provides that, as long as SOHL owns more than 5% of the Company's then-outstanding Common Stock, SOHL has the right to purchase a pro-rata portion of any sale of Common Stock by the Company, subject to certain exceptions. The Stock Purchase Agreement also provides that for so long as SOHL owns at least 5% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, SOHL has the right to designate one member of the Company's board of directors.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, SOHL also entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement ) with the Company on March 31, 2009. The Registration Rights Agreement provides that after December 31, 2009, SOHL is entitled to one demand registration right every three years. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides SOHL with piggyback registration rights. These registration rights terminate on the first date on which all of the Shares held by SOHL and its affiliates may be sold in any ninety day period without registration in compliance with Rule 144.

Other than as set forth above, neither of the Cadila Entities or Dr. Modi or, to their knowledge, any executive officer or director of the Cadila Entities, has any other contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships with any persons with respect to the securities of the Company.

9. Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification of the Investor. The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Investors and its owners, officers, directors, managers, members, agents, advisors, successors and assigns (each, an Indemnified Party), against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which such Indemnified Party may become subject, under the Securities Act or otherwise (including in settlement of any litigation if such settlement is effected with the written consent of the Company, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon (i) an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement, including the information deemed to be a part of the Registration Statement at the time of effectiveness and at any subsequent time pursuant to Rules 430A and 430B of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Securities Act, if applicable, any Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto (including any documents filed under the Exchange Act and deemed to be incorporated by reference into the Prospectus), any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any materials or information provided to investors by, or with the approval of, the Company in connection with the marketing of the offering of the Common Stock ( Marketing Materials ), including any roadshow or investor presentations made to investors by the Company (whether in person or electronically) or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and will reimburse each Indemnified Party for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with investigating or defending against such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; or (ii) in whole or in part upon any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties of the Company contained herein; or (iii) in whole or in part upon any failure of the Company to perform their respective obligations hereunder or under law; provided, however, that the Company shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in the Prospectus Supplement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by the Indemnified Party, specifically for use in the preparation thereof.

In addition to their other obligations under this Section 9(a), the Company agrees that, as an interim measure during the pendency of any claim, action, investigation, inquiry or other proceeding brought or threatened against the Indemnified Party and which arises out of or based upon any statement or omission, or any alleged statement or omission, described in this Section 9(a), they will reimburse each Indemnified Party on a monthly basis for all reasonable legal fees or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating or defending any such claim, action, investigation, inquiry or other proceeding, notwithstanding the absence of a judicial determination as to the propriety and enforceability of the Company's obligation to reimburse such Indemnified Party for such expenses and the possibility that such payments might later be held to have been improper by a court of competent jurisdiction. To the extent that any such interim reimbursement payment is so held to have been improper, each Indemnified Party that received such payment shall promptly return it to the party or parties that made such payment, together with interest, determined on the basis of the prime rate (or other commercial lending rate for borrowers of the highest credit standing) announced from time to time by The Wall Street Journal (the Prime Rate). Any such interim reimbursement payments which are not made to an Indemnified Party within 30 days of a request for reimbursement shall bear interest at the Prime Rate from the date of such request. This indemnity agreement shall be in addition to any liabilities which the Company may otherwise have.

(b) Notice and Procedures. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party under subsection (a) above of notice of the commencement of any action, such Indemnified Party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the Company under such subsection, notify the Company in writing of the commencement thereof; but the omission so to notify the Company shall not relieve the Company from any liability that it may have to any Indemnified Party except to the extent the Company has been materially prejudiced by such failure. In case any such action shall be brought against any Indemnified Party, and it shall notify the Company of the commencement thereof, the Company shall be entitled to participate in, and, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, and after notice from the Company to such Indemnified Party of the Company's election so to assume the defense thereof, the Company shall not be liable to such Indemnified Party under such subsection for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation; provided, however, that if, in the sole judgment of the Indemnified Party, it is advisable for the Indemnified Party to be represented by separate counsel, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ a single counsel to represent such Indemnified Party, in which event the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be borne by the Company and reimbursed to the Indemnified Party as incurred (in accordance with the provisions of the second paragraph in subsection (a) above).

The Company under this Section 9 shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the Company agrees to indemnify each Indemnified Party against any loss, claim, damage, liability or expense by reason of such settlement or judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an Indemnified Party shall have requested the Company to reimburse such Indemnified Party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated by this Section 8, the Company agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than 30 days after receipt by the Company of the aforesaid request and (ii) the Company shall not have reimbursed the Indemnified Party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement. The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, effect any settlement, compromise or consent to the entry of judgment in any pending or threatened action, suit or proceeding in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity was or could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party, unless such settlement, compromise or consent (a) includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such action, suit or proceeding and (b) does not include a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

(c) Contribution; Limitation on Liability. If the indemnification provided for in this Section 9 is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an Indemnified Party under subsection (a) above, then the Company shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to in subsection (a) above, (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other from the offering of the Shares or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the Company on the one hand and the Indemnified Party on the other in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company or the Indemnified Party and the parties' relevant intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such untrue statement or omission. The Company and the Indemnified Party agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this Section 9(c) were to be determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the first sentence of this Section 9(c). The amount paid by an Indemnified Party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to in the first sentence of this Section 9(c) shall be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending against any action or claim which is the subject of this Section 9(c). Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 9(c), no Indemnified Party shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount received by it (net of expenses) from the public sale of Shares purchased by it pursuant to this Agreement. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(d) Non-Exclusive Remedies. The obligations of the Company under this Section 9 shall be in addition to any liability which the Company may otherwise have and shall extend, upon the same terms and conditions, to each person, if any, who controls any Indemnified Party within the meaning of the Securities Act. Each Indemnified Party shall also have all rights and remedies available to it under the law and in equity, in addition to the rights and benefits of this Section 9.

(e) Survival. Except in the case of fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, the provisions of this Section 9 shall survive until the first anniversary of the Closing.

(e) All communications hereunder, except as may be otherwise specifically provided herein, shall be in writing and shall be mailed, hand delivered, sent by a recognized overnight courier service such as Federal Express, or sent via facsimile and confirmed by letter, to the party to whom it is addressed at the following addresses or such other address as such party may advise the other in writing:

To the Seller: as set forth on the signature page hereto.

To the Investor: as set forth on the signature page hereto.

All notices hereunder shall be effective upon receipt by the party to which it is addressed.

(f) This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware for contracts to be wholly performed in such state and without giving effect to the principles thereof regarding the conflict of laws. To the extent determined by such court, the prevailing party shall reimburse the other party for any reasonable legal fees and disbursements incurred in enforcement of, or protection of any of its rights under this Agreement.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our agreement, please confirm this by signing and returning to us the duplicate copy of this Agreement.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

This REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this Agreement ), dated as of March 31, 2009, by and between Novavax, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its headquarters located at 9920 Belward Campus Drive, Rockville, Maryland 20850 (the Company ), and Satellite Overseas (Holdings) Limited (together with its affiliates and any assignee or transferee of all of its rights hereunder, the Investor ).

WHEREAS:

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement by and between the parties hereto of even date herewith (the Stock Purchase Agreement ), the Company has agreed, upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained therein, to issue and sell to the Investor 12,500,000 shares (the Shares ) of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Common Stock ); and

To induce the Investor to execute and deliver the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company has agreed to provide certain registration rights under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Company and the Investor hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) Affiliate means, with respect to any individual, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association, trust, or any other entity (in each case, a Person ), any other Person which, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with such Person.

(b) Exchange Act means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) Form S-3 means such form under the Securities Act as in effect on the date hereof or any registration form under the Securities Act subsequently adopted by the SEC which permits inclusion or incorporation of substantial information by reference to other documents filed by the Company with the SEC.

(d) SEC means the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(e) SEC Rule 144 means Rule 144 promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act.

(f) SEC Rule 145 means Rule 145 promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act.

(g) Securities Act means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

2. Registration Rights

(a) Demand Registration Rights.

(i) If the Company shall receive, at any time after December 31, 2009, a written demand from the Investor that the Company file a registration statement under the Securities Act, then the Company shall:

(1) as soon as practicable, but in any event within sixty (60) days of the receipt of such request, file a registration statement under the Securities Act covering all of the Shares which the Investor requests to be registered; and

(2) use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC as soon as practicable.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company shall furnish to the Investor requesting a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2(a) a certificate signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company stating that in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of the Company it would be materially detrimental to the Company and its stockholders for such registration statement to become effective or to remain effective as long as such registration statement would otherwise be required to remain effective because such action would (i) materially interfere with a significant acquisition, corporate reorganization or other similar transaction involving the Company, (ii) require premature disclosure of material information that the Company has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential or (iii) render the Company unable to comply with requirements under the Securities Act or Exchange Act, the Company shall have the right to defer taking action with respect to such filing for a period of not more than forty-five (45) days after receipt of the request of the Investor; provided, however, that the Company may not utilize this right more than twice in any twelve-month period and provided further that the Company shall not register any securities for the account of itself or any other stockholder during any such forty-five (45) day period other than a registration statement relating either to the sale of securities to employees of the Company pursuant to a stock option, stock purchase or similar plan or an SEC Rule 145 transaction, a registration on any form that does not include substantially the same information as would be required to be included in a registration statement covering the sale of the Shares, or a registration in which the only Common Stock being registered is Common Stock issuable upon conversion of debt securities that are also being registered.

(iii) All expenses incurred in connection with a registration requested pursuant to this Section 2(a) shall be paid as set forth in Section 2(f) hereof.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2(a) to the contrary, the Company shall only be required to consummate one (1) offering pursuant to this Section 2(a) during any three (3) year period. A registration statement shall not be counted until such time as such registration statement has been declared effective by the SEC (unless the Investor withdraws its request for such registration (other than as a result of information concerning the business or financial condition or prospects of the Company which is made known to the Investor after the date on which such registration was requested) and elects not to pay the registration expenses therefor pursuant to Section 2(f).

(v) If the Investor intends to distribute the Shares covered by its request by means of an underwriting, the Investor shall so advise the Company as part of its request.

(b) Piggyback Registration.

(i) If the Company proposes to register (including for this purpose a registration effected by the Company for stockholders other than the Investor) any of its stock or other securities under the Securities Act in connection with the public offering of such securities solely for cash (other than a registration statement relating either to the sale of securities to employees of the Company pursuant to a stock option, stock purchase or similar plan or an SEC Rule 145 transaction, a registration on any form which does not include substantially the same information as would be required to be included in a registration statement covering the sale of the Shares or a registration in which the only Common Stock being registered is Common Stock issuable upon conversion of debt securities which are also being registered)

(a Piggyback Registration ), the Company shall, at such time, promptly give the Investor written notice of such registration. Upon the written request of the Investor given within twenty (20) days after mailing of such notice by the Company, the Company shall, subject to the provisions of Section 2(e), cause to be registered under the Securities Act all of the Shares that the Investor has requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration. The Company shall pay the expenses of any such Piggyback Registration as set forth in Section 2(g) hereof. The Company shall have the right to terminate or withdraw any registration initiated by it under this Section 2(b) prior to the effectiveness of such registration whether or not the Investor has elected to include Shares in such registration. The expenses of such withdrawn registration shall be borne by the Company.

(ii) In the event that the Investor elects to participate in a Piggyback Registration that is effected by the Company for a stockholder of the Company other than the Investor, the Investor agrees to consider in good faith waiving its rights to participate in such Piggyback Registration if the Company informs the Investor of its good faith opinion that the inclusion of the Shares in such offering would be detrimental to the offering.

(c) Obligations of the Company. Whenever required under this Section 2 to effect the registration of any of the Shares, the Company shall, as expeditiously as reasonably possible:

(i) prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement with respect to such Shares and use its reasonable best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective, and, upon the request of the Investor, keep such registration statement effective for a period of up to one hundred twenty (120) days or, if earlier, until the distribution contemplated in the registration statement has been completed; provided, however, that (i) such 120-day period shall be extended for a period of time equal to the period the Investor refrains from selling any securities included in such registration at the request of an underwriter of

Common Stock (or other securities) of the Company and (ii) in the case of any registration of the Shares on Form S-3 which are intended to be offered on a continuous or delayed basis, subject to compliance with applicable SEC rules, such 120-day period shall be extended, if necessary, to keep the registration statement effective until all such Shares are sold;

(ii) prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection with such registration statement as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement;

(iii) furnish to the Investor (a) a draft copy of the registration statement and (b) such numbers of copies of a prospectus, including a preliminary prospectus, in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, and such other documents as the Investor may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of Shares owned by it;

(iv) use its reasonable best efforts to register and qualify the securities covered by such registration statement under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as shall be reasonably requested by the Investor; provided that the Company shall not be required in connection therewith or as a condition thereto to qualify to do business or to file a general consent to service of process in any such states or jurisdictions, unless the Company is already subject to service in such jurisdiction and except as may be required by the Securities Act;

(v) in the event of any underwritten public offering, enter into and perform its obligations under an underwriting agreement, in usual and customary form, with the managing underwriter of such offering;

(vi) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Shares registered pursuant hereunder and a CUSIP number for all such Shares, in each case not later than the effective date of such registration;

(vii) notify the Investor, promptly after the Company receives notice thereof, of the time when such registration statement has been declared effective or a supplement to any prospectus forming a part of such registration statement has been filed;

(viii) after such registration statement becomes effective, notify the Investor of any request by the SEC that the Company amend or supplement such registration statement or prospectus.

(ix) notify the Investor, at any time when a prospectus relating such registration statement is required to be delivered under the Act, of (i) the issuance of any stop order by the SEC in respect of such registration statement, or (ii) the happening of any event as a result of which the prospectus included in such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing;

(x) to the extent not already listed, cause all Shares registered hereunder to be listed on each securities exchange on which similar securities issued by the Company are then listed; and

(xi) use its reasonable best efforts to furnish, at the request of the Investor, on the date that Shares are delivered to the underwriters for sale in connection with an underwritten registration pursuant to Section 2(b), if such securities are being sold through underwriters, or, if such securities are not being sold through underwriters, on the date that the registration statement with respect to such Shares becomes effective, (i) an opinion, dated as of such date, of the counsel representing the Company for the purposes of such registration, in form and substance as is customarily given to underwriters in an underwritten public offering and reasonably satisfactory to the Investor, addressed to the underwriters and to the Investor, and (ii) a comfort letter dated as of such date from the independent certified public accountants of the Company, in form and substance as is customarily given by independent certified public accountants to underwriters in an underwritten public offering and reasonably satisfactory to the Investor, addressed to the Investor, provided, however, that such comfort letter shall be at the Investor's own expense.

(d) Furnish Information. It shall be a condition precedent to the obligations of the Company to take any action pursuant to this Section 2 with respect to the Shares that the Investor shall furnish to the Company such information regarding itself, the Shares held by it, and the intended method of disposition of such securities as shall be reasonably required to effect the registration of the Shares.

(e) Underwriting Requirements. In connection with any offering involving an underwriting of shares of the Company's capital stock pursuant to Section 2(b), the Company shall not be required to include any of the Shares in such underwriting unless the Investor accepts the terms of the underwriting as agreed upon between the Company and its underwriters. If the total number of securities, including the Shares, requested by stockholders to be included in such offering exceeds the amount of securities to be sold, other than by the Company, that the underwriters determine in their reasonable discretion is compatible with the success of the offering, then the Company shall be required to include in the offering only that number of such securities, including the Shares, which the underwriters determine in their sole discretion will not jeopardize the success of the offering, except that no securities held by the Investor shall be excluded until all securities held by all other Persons other than the Company have been excluded.

(f) Expenses of Demand Registration. All expenses, other than taxes, underwriting discounts and commissions, incurred in connection with registrations, filings or qualifications pursuant to Section 2(a), including (without limitation) all registration, filing and qualification fees (including blue sky fees), printers and accounting fees, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and the reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel for the Investor shall be borne equally by the Company and the Investor; provided, however, that the Investor shall not be required to pay any such expenses in excess of $20,000 per each registration requested pursuant to Section 2(a); provided further, that the Company shall not be required to pay for any expenses of any registration proceeding begun pursuant to Section 2(a) if the registration request is subsequently withdrawn at the request of the Investor; and provided further, however, that if at the time of such withdrawal, the Investor has learned of information concerning the business or financial condition or prospects of the Company not known to the Investor at the time of its request and has withdrawn the request with reasonable promptness after learning of such information, then the Investor shall not be required to pay any of such expenses and shall retain its rights pursuant to Section 2(a).

(g) Expenses of Piggyback Registration. The Company shall bear and pay all expenses incurred in connection with any registration, filing or qualification of Shares with respect to the registrations pursuant to Section 2(b) hereof for the Investor, including (without limitation) all registration, filing, and qualification fees (including blue sky fees), printers and accounting fees relating or apportionable thereto and the fees and disbursements, of counsel for the Investor as selected by it, but excluding taxes, underwriting discounts and commissions relating to Shares.

(h) Indemnification. In the event any Shares are included in a registration statement under this Section 2:

(i) To the extent permitted by law, the Company will indemnify and hold harmless the Investor, and the partners, members, officers, directors, and stockholders of the Investor; legal counsel and accountants for the Investor; any underwriter (as defined in the Securities Act) for the Investor; and each Person, if any, who controls the Investor or underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, against any Damages (as defined below), and the Company will pay to the Investor, underwriter, controlling Person, or other aforementioned Person any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any claim or proceeding from which Damages may result, as such expenses are incurred; provided, however, that the indemnity agreement contained in this Section 2(h)(i) shall not apply to amounts paid in settlement of any such claim or proceeding if such settlement is effected without the consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, nor shall the Company be liable for any Damages to the extent that they arise out of or are based upon actions or omissions made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished by or on behalf of the Investor, underwriter, controlling Person, or other aforementioned Person expressly for use in connection with such registration.

(ii) To the extent permitted by law, the Investor will indemnify and hold harmless the Company, and each of its directors, each of its officers who has signed the registration statement, each Person (if any), who controls the Company within the meaning of the Securities Act, legal counsel and accountants for the Company, and any underwriter (as defined in the Securities Act), against any Damages, in each case only to the extent that such Damages arise out of or are based upon actions or omissions made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished by or on behalf of the Investor expressly for use in connection with such registration; and the Investor will pay to the Company and each other aforementioned Person any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any claim or proceeding from which Damages may result, as such expenses are incurred; provided, however, that the indemnity agreement contained in this Section 2(h)(ii) shall not apply to amounts paid in settlement of any such claim or proceeding if such settlement is effected without the consent of the Investor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided further that in no event shall the aggregate amounts payable by the Investor by way of indemnity or contribution under Sections 2(h)(ii) and 2(h)(iv) exceed the proceeds from the offering received by the Investor (net of any underwriting discounts and commissions paid by the Investor), except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct by the Investor.

(iii) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Section 2(h) of notice of the commencement of any action (including any governmental action) for which a party may be entitled to indemnification hereunder, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against any indemnifying party under this Section 2(h), give the indemnifying party notice of the commencement thereof. The indemnifying party shall have the right to participate in such action and, to the extent the indemnifying party so desires, participate jointly with any other indemnifying party to which notice has been given, and to assume the defense thereof with counsel mutually satisfactory to the parties; provided, however, that an indemnified party (together with all other indemnified parties that may be represented without conflict by one counsel) shall have the right to retain one separate counsel, with the fees and expenses to be paid by the indemnifying party, if representation of such indemnified party by the counsel retained by the indemnifying party would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between such indemnified party and any other party represented by such counsel in such action. The failure to give notice to the indemnifying party within a reasonable time of the commencement of any such action shall relieve such indemnifying party of any liability to the indemnified party under this Section 2(h), to the extent that such failure materially prejudices the indemnifying party's ability to defend such action. The failure to give notice to the indemnifying party will not relieve it of any liability that it may have to any indemnified party otherwise than under this Section 2(h).

(iv) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution to joint liability under the Securities Act in any case in which either (i) any party otherwise entitled to indemnification hereunder makes a claim for indemnification pursuant to this Section 2(h) but it is judicially determined (by the entry of a final judgment or decree by a court of competent jurisdiction and the expiration of time to appeal or the denial of the last right of appeal) that such indemnification may not be enforced in such case, notwithstanding the fact that this Section 2(h) provides for indemnification in such case, or (ii) contribution under the Securities Act may be required on the part of any party hereto for which indemnification is provided under this Section 2(h), then, and in each such case, such parties will contribute to the aggregate losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses to which they may be subject (after contribution from others) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of each of the indemnifying party and the indemnified party in connection with the statements, omissions, or other actions that resulted in such loss, claim, damage, liability, or expense, as well as to reflect any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the indemnifying party and of the indemnified party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or allegedly untrue statement of a material fact, or the omission or alleged omission of a material fact, relates to information supplied by the indemnifying party or by the indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information, and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission; provided, however, that, in any such case, (x) the Investor will be required to contribute any amount in excess of the public offering price of all such Shares offered and sold by the Investor pursuant to such registration statement and (y) no Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) will be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation; and provided further that in no event shall the Investor's liability pursuant to this Section 2(h)(iv), when combined with the amounts paid or payable by the Investor pursuant to Section 2(h)(ii), exceed the proceeds from the offering received by the Investor (net of any underwriting discounts and selling commissions paid by the Investor), except in the case of willful misconduct or fraud by the Investor.

(v) Unless otherwise superseded by an underwriting agreement entered into in connection with the underwritten public offering, the obligations of the Company and the Investor under this Section 2(h) shall survive the completion of any offering of Shares in a registration statement under this Section 2, and otherwise and shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

(vi) As used in this Section 2, Damages means any loss, damage, or liability (joint or several) to which a Person may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or other federal or state law, insofar as such loss, damage, or liability (or any action in respect thereof) arises out of or is based upon (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement of the Company, including any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein or any amendments or supplements thereto; (ii) an omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein, or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; or (iii) any violation or alleged violation by the indemnifying party (or any of its agents or Affiliates) of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, any state securities law, or any rule or regulation promulgated under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or any state securities law.

(i) Reports Under Exchange Act. With a view to making available to the Investor the benefits of SEC Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and any other rule or regulation of the SEC that may at any time permit the Investor to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration or pursuant to a registration on Form S-3, the Company agrees to:

(i) make and keep public information available, as those terms are understood and defined in SEC Rule 144, at all times after the effective date of the first registration statement filed by the Company for the offering of its securities to the general public so long as the Company is subject to the periodic reporting requirements under Sections 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act;

(ii) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act; and

(iii) furnish to the Investor, so long as the Investor owns Shares, forthwith upon request (i) a written statement by the Company that it has complied with the reporting requirements of SEC Rule 144, the Securities Act and the Exchange Act (at any time after it has become subject to such reporting requirements), or that it qualifies as a registrant whose securities may be resold pursuant to Form S-3 (at any time after it so qualifies), (ii) a copy of the most recent annual or quarterly report of the Company and such other reports and documents so filed by the Company, and (iii) such other information as may be reasonably requested in availing the Investor of any rule or regulation of the SEC which permits the selling of any such securities without registration or pursuant to Form S-3 (at any time after the Company so qualifies to use such form).

(j) Assignment of Registration Rights. The Investor may not assign the rights under this Agreement to any Person that is not an Affiliate of the Investor.

(k) Lockup Agreement. In any underwritten registration in which the Investor participates, the Investor shall execute a reasonable and customary lockup agreement as required by the underwriters; provided, however, that such agreement is no more restrictive than the form of agreement required by the underwriters of the other participants in the offering and the directors and officers of the Company.

(l) Limitation on Subsequent Registration Rights.
