PER SHARE IN CASH

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, May 22, 2007 Crescent Real Estate Equities Company (NYSE: CEI) today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement pursuant to which funds managed by Morgan Stanley Real Estate will acquire Crescent in an all cash transaction for $22.80 per share and the assumption of liabilities for total consideration of approximately $6.5 billion. The purchase price represents a 12% premium over Crescent's prior 30 day average closing share price. The total consideration for the acquisition includes the assumption and refinancing of approximately $3.1 billion of the Company's outstanding consolidated and unconsolidated debt and redemption of the Company's outstanding Series A and Series B preferred shares, which have an aggregate liquidation preference of approximately $440 million. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, Crescent will not pay any further dividends on the common shares.

John C. Goff, Crescent's vice-chairman and chief executive officer, said, "The primary goal of the strategic plan we announced on March 1, 2007 was to maximize value for our shareholders. This transaction accelerates the realization of that goal by delivering value to our shareholders more quickly and with greater certainty.
