PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We have registered the shares covered by this prospectus for the selling shareholder. He or his pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest may sell the shares in the over-the-counter market or in other transactions, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices, or at negotiated prices. The shares may also be sold by one or more of the following methods:

- a block trade in which a broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block, as principal, in order to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker or dealer, as principal, in a market maker capacity or by other means and resale by the broker or dealer for its account under the terms of the prospectus; or
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchases.

We will pay the costs and fees of registering the shares, but the selling shareholder will pay any brokerage commissions, discounts or other expenses relating to the sale of the shares. We and the selling shareholder each have agreed to indemnify the other against specified liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, that relate to statements or omissions in the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 provides that during the period that any person is engaged in the distribution of our common stock, the person engaged in the distribution generally may not purchase shares of our common stock. The selling shareholder is subject to applicable rules, regulations and provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our common stock by the selling shareholder and may affect the marketability of our common stock.

The selling shareholder may negotiate and pay brokers or dealers commissions, discounts or concessions for their services. In making sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may allow other broker or dealers to participate. However, the selling shareholder and any brokers or dealers involved in the sale or resale of the shares may qualify as underwriters within the meaning of section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act of 1933. In addition, the brokers or dealers commissions, discounts or concessions may qualify as underwriters compensation under the Securities Act of 1933. If the selling shareholder qualifies as an underwriter, he will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of section 5(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933.

The selling shareholder may also:

agree to indemnify any broker or dealer or agent against liabilities related to the selling of the shares, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933;

transfer his shares in other ways not involving market makers or established trading markets, including directly by gift, distribution, or other transfer; or sell his shares under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 rather than under this prospectus, if the transaction meets the requirements of Rule 144.

Upon notification by the selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker or dealer for the sale of the shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, we will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required by Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, disclosing the material terms of the transaction.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Our Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by the Washington Business Corporation Act, our directors will not be liable for monetary damages to Cray or its shareholders, excluding, however, liability for acts or omissions involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law, illegal distributions or transactions from which the director receives benefits to which the director is not legally entitled.
